IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING ACCEPTANCE OF NOTICES FOR PUBLICATION IN THE WEEKLY “GAZETTE”

ATTENTION is drawn to each of the ‘Notices’ appearing in the 1st week of every month, regarding the latest dates and times of acceptance of notices for publication in the weekly Gazette at the end of each Part of the Gazette of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka.

All notices to be published in every Part of the Gazette shall close at 12 noon of each Friday, a fortnight before the date of publication. All Departments, Corporations, Boards, etc., are advised that any notification fixing specific dates for closing times of applications in regard to vacancies, tender notices and the dates and times of auction sales, etc., should be prepared with due regard to this change, i.e., by giving adequate time both from the time of despatch of notice to the Government Press and from the date of publication thus enabling those interested in the contents of the notices to actively and positively participate.

All notices to be published in the weekly Gazette should reach this Department positively by 12 noon of the Friday, two weeks prior to date of publication e.g., Notices for publication in the weekly Gazette of 01st February 2008, should reach the Government Press on or before 12 noon on 18th January, 2008.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

01. Significant Accounting Policies :

1. Basis of Accounting

The Financial Statements are prepared on the historical basis of accounting in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and Accounting Standards introduced by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka.

2. Assets and the Basis of their Value

2.1 Depreciation of Non Current assets

The Fixed Assets are shown at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is charged on straight line method at the following rates per annum :

Fixtures & Fittings	10%
Office Furniture & Equipments	10%
Computers	20%
Lab and Teaching Equipments	20%
Library Books & Periodicals	20%
Lab Tools	20%

Depreciation is not charged in the year of purchase whilst a full year's depreciation is charged in the year of disposal.

2.2 Fixed assets received under SAREC grant and transferred from University of Colombo were shown at revaluation amount.

2.3 Amortization

Gifts & Donations for assets are shown at value of the donation less amortization based on the same basis for depreciation.

3. Provision for Gratuity

Full provision is made in the accounts for the retiring gratuity for all employees completed five years of service as at Balance Sheet date under the payment of Gratuity Act No. 12 of 1983.

4. Income and Expenditure

4.1 Revenue Recognition

(a) Revenue and enrolment fees from students are accounted on cash basis whilst interest income is accounted on accrual basis.

(b) Income from Specific Funds and Endowment.

Donations, income from research grants and other services, rendered are included to the extent of the completion of the service concerned. This is generally equivalent to the sum of the relevant expenditure during the year.

5. All foreign currency transactions are accounted for at the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the transaction.

6. The construction of Institute of Biochemistry, Molecular Biology & Biotechnology Building and acquisition of part of Lab Equipments were financed through Sida Soft Loan of SEK. 15 Million (Rs. 180 m), is shown in the books of University of Colombo (Borrower on behalf of Government of Sri Lanka.).

Report of the Auditor General on the Financial Statements of the Institute of Biochemistry, Molecular Biology and Biotechnology Affiliated to the University of Colombo for the year ended 31 December 2006 in terms of Section 108 (2) Universities Act No. 16 of 1978 and Section 13 (7) (a) of the Finance Act, No. 38 of 1971

THE audit of the Financial Statements of the Institute of Biochemistry, Molecular Biology and Biotechnology Affiliated to the University of Colombo for the year ended 31 December, 2006 was carried out under my direction in pursuance of provisions in Article 154 (1) of the Constitution of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka read in conjunction with Section 17 of the Institute of Biochemistry,

Molecular Biology and Biotechnology Affiliated to the University of Colombo Ordinance, No. 1 of the 2003 enacted in terms of Section 18 of the Universities Act No. 16 of 1978, Sections 108 (1) and 111 of the Universities Act and Sub-sections (3), (4) and (7) of Section 13 of the Finance Act No. 38 of 1971. This report is issued in terms of the Section 108 (2) of the Universities Act and the Section 13 (7) (a) Finance Act.

1.2 Scope of Audit

Audit opinion, comments and findings in this report are based on a review of the financial statements presented to audit and substantive tests of samples of transactions. The scope and the extent of such review and tests were such as to enable as wide audit coverage as possible within the limitations of staff, other resources and time available to me. The audit was carried out in accordance with Sri Lanka Auditing standards, methods and practices to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the financial statements are free of material misstatements. The audit included examination of evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in financial statements and assessment of accounting principles and significant estimates and judgements made in the preparation of financial statements, evaluation of their overall presentation and determining whether accounting policies adopted were appropriate, consistently applied and adequately disclosed. Sub-sections (3) and (4) of Section 13 of the Finance Act No. 38 of 1971 give discretionary powers to the Auditor General to determine the scope and extent of the audit.

2. Financial Statements

2.1 Opinion

So far as appears from my examination and to the best of my information and according to the explanations given to me, I am of opinion that the Institute of Biochemistry, Molecular Biology and Biotechnology Affiliated to the University of Colombo had maintained proper books of account for the year ended 31 December 2006 and except for the effects on the financial statements of the matters referred to in paragraph 2.2 of this report, the financial statements which are in agreement with the said books have been prepared and presented in accordance with Sri Lanka Accounting Standards and the stated accounting policies as set out in the notes (from note 2 to 16) to the financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Institute of Biochemistry, Molecular Biology and Biotechnology Affiliated to the University of Colombo as at 31 December 2006 and the financial results of its operation and cash flows for the year then ended.

2.2 Comments on Financial Statements

2.2.1 Accounting Deficiencies

Though the computers valued at Rs. 304,262 should be depreciated at 20% for Rs. 60,852 it had been depreciated at 10% and under stated by Rs. 30,426. As a result the annual expenditure had been understated by Rs. 30,426.

2.2.2. Accounts Receivables

Although an amount of Rs. 185,642 out of 'CIDA SAREC' grants had been paid as an advance to a foreign company on 03 November 2005 the Institute had not been able to obtain the chemical materials or to re gain the said paid amount even at the last day of the year under review.

2.2.3 Non-Compliance with Laws, Rules, Regulations and Management Decisions

The instances of non-compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulation are as follows :-

Reference to Laws, Rules and Regulations

Non Compliance

- (a) Section 110 of the Universities Act
No. 16 of 1978

Annual reports for the years 2004 and 2005 had not been tabled in the parliament. The annual report for the year 2004 had been forwarded to the Ministry of Higher Education only on 28 September 2006.

- (b) Section 153 of the Inland Revenue Act
No. 10 of 2006.

Withholding tax of Rs. 27,000 had not been deducted and forwarded to the Commissioner General of Inland Revenue. University Grants Commission Circular dated 17 November 2006 regarding the withholding tax had been received on 24 November and the Director had informed that an amount of Rs. 45,000 (excluding tax) had been paid and that did not exceed Rs. 50,000 per month or Rs. 500,000 per annum.

Reference to Laws, Rules and RegulationsNon Compliance

- (c) Paragraph 9:8:2 of Public Enterprises
Circular No. PED/12 dated 02 June 2003

Though the former Director of the institute had been paid an honorary allowance of Rs. 180,000 from 01 June 2003 to 30 June 2004 approval of the Public Enterprises Department had not been obtained for same. The Director has informed the audit that the former Director had been paid an honorary allowance from the income earned, for the services rendered to the institute, in keeping with the University Grants Commission Circular No. 422 dated 6 February 1990 and with the approval of the Board of Management.

- (d) Government Financial Regulations

- (i) F. R. 119

Though, on the request of the former Director, it had been decided to deduct Rs. 232,616 which had been paid excessively to him, within 19 installments, approval of the Secretary to the Ministry of Higher Education had not been obtained in that regard.

- (ii) F. R. 722

Action had not been taken to dispose 9 inventory items of which the duration of non assistance and value were not presented to the audit.;

- (iii) F.R. 875

Though a special approval of the Treasury is needed to pay loans out of recurrent grants and to credit the interest of Rs. 3,491 to the fund of the Institute for the distress loan of Rs. 150,000 given to an officer under review. But the institute had not obtained such approval.

2.2.4. Transactions not Supported by Adequate Authority

A sum of Rs. 8,353 had been paid as salaries and allowances with regard to second and third language proficiency within the year 2006 according to the Circular issued by the University Grants Commission contravening the Public Enterprise Circular No. 95 of 14 June 1994. Meanwhile an overpayment of Rs. 17,505 had been made to the Universities Provident Fund and the Employees Trust Fund due to the erroneous computation made by adding the compensatory allowances to the salaries and a sum of Rs. 2,400 had been paid as long service allowances.

Although the Director General of Public Enterprises and the Director General of the National Budget had informed the University Grants Commission that the said payments of salaries and allowances are not in accordance with the government rules and regulations the payments were being continued.

3. Financial and Operating Review

3 : 1 Financial Performances

3:1:1. Financial Results

According to the accounts presented, the result of the operations of the institute before taking the Government Grants for recurrent expenditure was a deficit of Rs. 16,467,063 and the deficit for the previous year was Rs. 11,083,175. After taking the Government Grant of Rs. 15,195,000 for recurrent expenditure the deficit for the year of review was converted into a net deficit of Rs. 1,272,063 and owing to the Government Grants of Rs. 10,800,000 for recurrent expenditure in the previous year the net deficit of the said year was Rs. 283,175.

3.2 Operating Performance

3.2.1 Performance

Following Observations are made :-

- (a) During the year of review two postgraduate courses (Master of Science) had been conducted. Number of students registered in the years 2005 and 2006 were 08 and 10 respectively and the number of students completed the degree out of the said numbers was 03. The average cost per student was Rs. 99,975.
- (b) The number of students registered for the 05 Master of Philosophy courses conducted was 14. Out of the said number, 03 students had completed the degree. Period of the courses (full time/part time) was 03 to 05 years.
- (c) Two (02) PhD programmes had been conducted. The number of students registered for the said programmes was 02. None of the students had completed the degree. Period of the courses (full time/part time) was 04 to 07 years.

- (d) Thirty-two (32) research projects had been conducted covering 10 fields. Research activities of 11 projects had been completed and the reports of the said projects had been issued. Research activities of 21 projects are being conducted 06 out of them were due to be completed within the year 2006. An expenditure of Rs. 2,364,300 under CIDA SAREC grants and Rs. 2,171,200 under other grants had been made.
- (e) Services of 15 visiting lecturers had been obtained for the postgraduate courses. Though it had been planned that they should conduct 102 lecture hours, actual lecture hours conducted was 74 or a seventy-two percent (72%). The cost for the visiting lecturers was Rs. 58,538 and the cost of a lecture hour was Rs. 791. Two of the lecturers who had been assigned for 07 lecture hours had not conducted the said lectures and 05 internal lecturers had conducted 390 hours of lectures.
- (f) Owing to an increase of one position than the previous year, a cost of Rs. 4,404,115 had been incurred for the 11 member staff during the year under review and therefore the average cost per head was Rs. 400,374. There is an increase of 73% when compared with the previous year.

3.3 Corporate Plan and Action Plan

In accordance with the Public Enterprises Circular No. PED 12 dated 02 June 2003 a corporate plan and an action plan should be prepared for a period of not less than three years in order to make the operations of the institute effective.

But the institute had not prepared a corporate plan and an action plan adhering to the said circular other than including the mission, objectives and strategies of the institute in the corporate plan prepared by the institute.

P. A. PEMATILAKA,
Auditor General.

Department of Auditor General,
Independence Square,
Colombo 07.

Dear Sir,

Auditor General Report of the Financial Statements for the Year ended December 2006, as per the Clause 108(2) of the University Act, No. 16 of 1978 and Clause 13(7)(A) of Monetary Act, No. 38 of 1971

The above report has been discussed in the audit meeting held on the 10th of September 2007, and the measures taken to correct the errors that were pointed out during the meeting are stated below.

2.2.1 Accounting Deficiencies

Correction is effected through the following journal entry, recorded as a prior year adjustment at the beginning of year 2007.
(Journal Entry No. 1)

Income and expenditure account Dr. Rs. 30,426
Computer accumulated depreciation account Cr. Rs. 30,426.

2.2.2 Account Receivables

It was requested to repay the advance payments since the ordered chemicals were not delivered on the due period. Due to the existing rules for the fund transfers through Indian banks, there was a delay in remitting the funds to us. The sum of Rs. 192,432 was remitted to our bank account No. 086100151189712 on the 27th of April 2007. A copy of the bank advice for the above remittance is attached herewith. (Annexure I)

2.2.3 Non-Compliance with Laws, Rules, Regulations, etc.

- (a) Annual reports of 2004 and 2005 are handed over to the Ministry of Higher Education on the following dates ; in order to be submitted at the Parliament.

Annual Report of 2004 – 26th of September 2006
Annual Report of 2005 – 28th of May 2007

However, even though we have reminded at many instances, we have not yet been informed about the dates during which additional copies are needed to be submitted to the parliament.

- (b) Noted
- (c) Noted
- (d) Government financial regulations

- (i) A covering approval was obtained on the 06th of May 2007 from the Secretary of the Ministry of Higher Education with regard to the relevant charge. A copy of the letter acknowledging the covering approval is attached. (Annexure II)
- (ii) The Board of Management at the meeting held on the 21st of June 2007, decided to dispose the unused 9 items in an action. Further, since a separate auction cannot be held for these said items, it was decided to auction the items when the University of Colombo holds such an auction.
- (iii) The Institute of Biochemistry, Molecular Biology and Biotechnology was established in year 2004. The institute does not have sufficient funds to provide for any distress loans to the staff members. Thereby loans were granted according to the circulars issued by the University Grants Commission.

2.2.4 Payments for second and third language proficiency and long term service allowances and compensation allowances were made according to the circulars issued by the University Grants Commission.'

3.1.1 Noted

3.2.1 Performance

- (a) Since all post graduate courses take more than 1 1/2 years and the annual cost per student for MSc Course is Rs. 99,975.
- (b) Noted.
- (c) Since the Institute of Biochemistry, Molecular Biology and Biotechnology was established in year 2004, the course duration of the PhD Courses have not lapsed by the end of year 2006.
- (d) 6 research reports that were due to be completed during the year 2006, was not duly completed since the corrections pointed out by the respective supervisors needed to be rectified.
- (e) The lecture hours to be conducted included the tutorial hours and practical session hours and some of the lectures were to be conducted during January 2007 and February 2007. These are the reasons for this disparity.
- (f) The staff consisted of 10 members by the end of year 2005. The staff was limited to only 2 members at the beginning of year 2005. The remaining 8 staff members were recruited during the year 2005 out of which 4 members were recruited in November and December 2005.

But the above 10 staff members were paid salaries for the entire period of year 2006.

Average cost per person shows a 73% increase due to the reasons stated above.

3.3 Corporate plan and Action plan

According to PED 12 the Institution has prepared a corporate plan and action plan for the period 2007-2011. The Board of Management has approved Co-operate Plan and Action Plan.

Presently the documents are given for printing and I will make arrangements to submit a copy as soon as the printing is completed.
