 - (ii) the President of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka established by the Institute of Chartered Accountants Act, No. 23 of 1959.

(2) The Minister shall nominate from amongst the appointed members of the Commission, one member to be the Chairman of the Commission.

(3) In appointing persons under subsection (1), the Minister shall have regard to-

- (a) that person's integrity and standing; and
- (b) the likelihood of any conflict between the interests of the Commission and any interest which that person has or represents.

4 *Securities and Exchange Commission of
Sri Lanka Act, No. 19 of 2021*

Conflict of interest

6. Every appointed or nominated member of the Commission when being appointed shall be required to make a declaration to the Minister on any conflict of interests he may have at the time of his appointment.

Term of office of appointed or nominated
members

7. Every appointed or nominated member of the Commission, unless he vacates office earlier by death, by operation of law, resignation or removal, shall hold office for a term of three years and shall be eligible for reappointment subject to a maximum period of any two terms of office whether consecutive or otherwise.

Resignation of members of the Commission

8. (1) Any appointed or nominated member of the Commission may at any time resign his office by letter addressed to the Minister and such resignation shall take effect upon it being accepted by the Minister.

(2) In the event of vacation of office of any member other than an ex-officio member by reason of death, resignation, removal or the operation of provisions of subsection (4) or (5), the Minister may appoint another person having regard to the provisions of subsection (3) of section 5 to hold office for the unexpired period of the term of office of the member whom he succeeds.

(3) If any member of the Commission other than the Chairman is temporarily unable to perform the duties of his office for a period exceeding three months due to ill health or absence from Sri Lanka or for any other cause, the Minister may appoint some other person to act in his place during such period having regard to the provisions of subsection (3) of section 5.

(4) An appointed or nominated member of the Commission who, without leave of the Commission first being obtained, absents himself from three consecutive meetings of the Commission shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

(5) A member of the Commission being the Chairman, is absent for three consecutive meetings of the Commission shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

9. (1) A person shall be disqualified from being appointed or nominated or from continuing as a member of the Commission if he - Disqualifications

- (d) is or has become an undischarged bankrupt;
- (e) is or has been convicted of an offence which involves moral turpitude;
- (f) has been previously removed from office.

(2) The Minister may by Order published in the Gazette remove a member of the Commission from continuing as a member if his continuation in the office is detrimental to the interests of the Commission.

6 *Securities and Exchange Commission of
Sri Lanka Act, No. 19 of 2021*

Meetings of the Commission

10. (1) The Chairman of the Commission shall, if present, preside at all meetings of the Commission. In the absence of the Chairman from any such meetings, the members present shall elect one amongst themselves to preside at such meeting.

(2) The quorum for any meeting of the Commission shall be five members.

(3) The Commission may regulate the procedure in regard to the meetings of the Commission and the transaction of business at such meetings.

(4) All questions for decision at any meeting of the Commission shall be decided by the vote of the majority of the members present. In the case of an equality of votes the member presiding shall have a casting vote.

Remuneration of members

11. The members of the Commission may be paid such remuneration out of the Fund of the Commission as may be determined by the Minister, in consultation with the Minister assigned the subject of finance.

Chairman of the Commission

12. (1) If the Chairman of the Commission is, by reason of illness or absence from Sri Lanka temporarily unable to perform the duties of his office the Minister shall nominate another member of the Commission to act in his place.

(2) The Chairman may at any time resign from the office of Chairman by a letter addressed to the Minister.

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the term of office of the Chairman shall be his period of membership of the Commission.

Members to disclose any interest

13. A member who is directly or indirectly interested in any decision that is to be taken on any matter by the Commission shall disclose the nature of such interest at the meeting of the Commission where such decision is being taken, and such disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the Commission and such member shall not take part in any deliberation or decision of the Commission with regard to that matter, and shall withdraw from such meeting while such deliberation is in progress or such decision is being made.

14. No proceeding, act or decision of the Commission shall be invalidated by reason only of the existence of a vacancy among its members or of any defect in the appointment of a member thereof.

CHAPTER 4

DIRECTOR-GENERAL AND THE STAFF OF THE COMMISSION

Director-General 19. (1) The Minister shall on the recommendation of the Commission, appoint a Director-General of the Commission, who shall be its chief executive officer. The conditions of employment including remuneration of the Director-General shall be determined by the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall not recommend the appointment of any person as the Director-General of the Commission, if such person-

- (a) has been previously found guilty of serious misconduct by a court or tribunal or has been subject to a disciplinary action by a regulatory body;
- (b) has been previously dismissed from office; or
- (c) has committed a breach of the provisions of this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder.

(3) The Director-General shall, subject to the general direction and control of the Commission, be charged with the direction of the affairs and transactions of the Commission, the exercise, discharge and performance of its powers, functions and duties, and the administration and control of the officers and servants of the Commission.

(4) The Director-General may, with the approval of the Commission, whenever he considers it necessary to do so, delegate to any officer and servant any power, function or duty conferred or imposed on or assigned to him by this Act and such officer or servant shall exercise, discharge and perform such power, function or duty subject to the general or special directions of the Director-General.

(5) The Minister may on the recommendation of the Commission remove the Director-General appointed under subsection (1), from office if his continuation in office is detrimental to the interests of the Commission:

Provided, that the Commission shall grant an opportunity to the Director-General of being heard, prior to such removal.

20. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, the Commission may create cadre positions and employ officers and servants as it considers necessary for the efficient discharge of its functions and may fix their salaries and wages or other remuneration, benefits and pensions of such servants and officers for the purposes of carrying out its functions and duties under the provisions of this Act.

Staff of the Commission

(2) The Commission may establish and regulate pension and provident funds and schemes for the benefit of the Director-General and its officers and servants and their dependents and nominees with the concurrence of the Minister assigned the subject of finance and may make contributions to any such fund or scheme.

(3) The Commission shall promote and sponsor the training of technical personnel on the subjects of securities markets, finance, law, money economics and other subjects and for this purpose, the Commission shall be authorised to defray the costs of study, in Sri Lanka or abroad of the officers and servants of the Commission who are of proven merit as determined by the Commission.

Sri Lanka Act, No. 19 of 2021*

(4) The Commission shall establish a code of conduct which shall be applicable to the officers and servants of the Commission.

(5) The Commission shall not appoint any person to the staff of the Commission where such person-

- (a) has been previously found guilty of serious misconduct by a court or tribunal or has been subject to a disciplinary action by a regulatory body;
- (b) has been previously dismissed from office; or
- (c) has committed a breach of the provisions of this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder.

(6) At the request of the Commission any officer in the public service may, with the consent of the officer and the Public Service Commission established by the Constitution be temporarily appointed to the Commission for such period as may be determined by the Commission or with like consent, be permanently appointed to such staff.

(7) Where any officer in the public service is temporarily appointed to the staff of the Commission, the provisions of subsection (2) of section 14 of the National Transport Commission Act, No. 37 of 1991, shall mutatis mutandis, apply to and in relation to such officer.

 - (A) between trading participants and their clients;
 - (B) between trading participants;
 - (C) between trading participants and an exchange, a central depository or a licensed clearing house;
 - (D) between entities listed on the exchange and the exchange;
- (xiii) generally for the carrying on of the business of the exchange with due regard to the need for the protection of investors; and
- (f) the interests of the public or the proper regulation of the market shall be served by the granting of the licence.

(4) An applicant under subsection (1) shall provide such additional information as the Commission may require in relation to the application.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), the Commission may amend, revoke or impose additional terms or conditions, if the Commission is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so for the protection of investors or for the proper regulation of the securities market.

Duties of an

27. (1) It shall be the duty of an exchange to ensure, an orderly and fair market in securities that are traded through its facilities.

(2) In performing its duty under subsection (1), the exchange shall-

- (a) act in the public interest having particular regard to the need for the protection of investors;
- (b) ensure that where any interest that is required to be served under any law relating to companies conflict with the interest referred to in paragraph (a), the interest referred to in paragraph (a) shall prevail; and
- (c) manage any risks associated with its business and operations prudently.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, a director of an exchange has a duty to act at all times in the public interest having particular regard to the need to protect investors and where there is a conflict between the duty under this Act and a director's duty under any other law, the duty under this Act shall prevail.

(4) It shall be the duty of the exchange to take appropriate action as may be provided for under its rules for the purpose of monitoring or securing compliance with its rules.

(5) An exchange shall immediately notify the Commission if it becomes aware of -

- (a) any matter which adversely affects, or is likely to adversely affect the ability of any trading participant to meet its obligations in respect of its licensed business, including the ability of any trading participant to comply with the minimum financial requirements as may be specified under this Act or regulations, rules or directives made thereunder; or
- (b) any irregularity, breach of any provision of this Act, regulations, rules, directives or any other matter which, in the opinion of the exchange, indicates or may indicate that the financial standing or financial integrity of any trading participant or of the chief executive officer or directors or the key management personnel of the trading participant in question may reasonably be affected.

(6) Where an exchange issues a warning, imposes a penalty, suspends, expels or imposes any other disciplinary measure against any of its trading participants, on the occurrence of activities referred to in subsection (5), it shall, within seven days, give to the Commission in writing the following particulars :-

- (a) the name and address of the business of the trading participant;
- (b) the reason for and the nature of the action taken;
- (c) the period of suspension and the quantum of the penalty, if any; and
- (d) any other disciplinary measure taken.

28. (1) The Commission may, -

- (a) by notice in writing cancel the licence granted under section 26 with effect from the date specified in such notice; or

Cancellation of licence of an

- (b) by notice in writing direct the exchange to cease to provide or operate such facilities, or to cease to provide such services, with effect from the date specified in the notice.

(2) The Commission shall not cancel the licence or issue a directive under subsection (1) unless the Commission is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so for the protection of investors, in the public interest or for the proper regulation of the securities market, where any of the following circumstances occur :—

- (a) the exchange ceases to operate its securities market;
- (b) the exchange is being wound up or otherwise dissolved, whether within or outside Sri Lanka;
- (c) the exchange has contravened any term or condition of its licence or is charged with any offence under this Act;
- (d) the exchange has failed to comply with a term or condition of its license or directive issued under this Act or otherwise fails to comply with any provision or requirement under this Act;
- (e) any information provided for the purposes of section 26, was false or misleading in a material particular or from which there is a material omission;
- (f) a judgment debt against the exchange has not been satisfied in whole or in part;
- (g) a receiver, a receiver and manager, liquidator or equivalent person has been appointed, whether within or outside Sri Lanka in relation to or in respect of any property of the exchange;

- (h) the exchange has, whether within or outside Sri Lanka, entered into a compromise or scheme of arrangement with its creditors which has not been satisfied; or
- (i) the exchange on its own accord applies to the Commission to cancel its licence as an exchange, and the Commission thinks it fit to do so.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (2) where an exchange has ceased to operate its securities market for a period exceeding two weeks, it shall be deemed to have ceased to operate its securities market without obtaining the prior written approval of the Commission.

(4) Notwithstanding the cancellation of a licence or the issuance of a directive under subsection (1), the Commission may permit the exchange to continue, on or after the date on which the cancellation or directive is to take effect, to carry on such activities affected by the cancellation or directive as the Commission may specify in the notice-

- (a) for the purpose of closing down the operations of the exchange or ceasing to provide the services specified in the notice;
- (b) for the purpose of protecting the interest of investors; or
- (c) in the interest of the public.

(5) Where the Commission has granted permission to an exchange to continue under subsection (4), the exchange shall not, by reason of its carrying on the activities in accordance with such permission, be regarded as having contravened subsection (1).

(6) Where the Commission acts under paragraph (a) of subsection (1), the Commission may, take any steps deemed necessary to ensure the protection of investors or to uphold the interests of the public with notice to the Minister.

(7) The Commission shall not take any action under subsection (1) without giving the exchange an opportunity of being heard.

(8) An exchange which is aggrieved by the decision of the Commission made under subsection (1) may, within fourteen days of receipt of such notice, appeal to the Minister.

(9) Notwithstanding the making of an appeal under subsection (8), any action taken by the Commission under this section shall continue to have effect pending the decision of the Minister.

(10) The Minister may, on an appeal made under subsection (8) after hearing the Commission and the exchange within a period of three months after the receipt of such appeal -

- (a) allow the appeal and direct the Commission to revoke the cancellation of the licence or the directive; or
- (b) disallow the appeal.

(11) The Commission shall give effect to the decision of the Minister.

(12) Subject to subsection (11), the Commission shall give public notice of any cancellation of licence or any directive issued under this section.

cancellation of the licence of an

29. Any cancellation of a licence or the issuance of a directive under subsection (1) of section 28 shall not operate so as to –

- (a) avoid or affect any agreement, transaction or arrangement entered into on the securities market operated by the exchange, whether the agreement, transaction or arrangement was entered into before or, where subsection (4) of section 28 applies, after the cancellation of the licence or the issuance of the directive under section 28; or

- (b) affect any right, obligation or liability arising under such agreement, transaction or arrangement.

30. (1) The Commission may, after consultation with the exchange, direct the exchange to close its securities market for a period not exceeding five business days if the Commission is of the opinion that an orderly and fair market for trading in securities on the securities market is being or is likely to be prevented because –

Closure of the exchange in an emergency

- (a) an emergency or natural disaster has occurred within Sri Lanka; or
- (b) there exists an economic or financial crisis or any other similar circumstance within or outside Sri Lanka.

(2) The Commission may extend the closure of the securities market under subsection (1) for any further periods, each not exceeding five business days at a time.

(3) The Commission shall specify the grounds for the closure in the directive given under subsection (1) and the grounds for any extension of closure under subsection (2).

(4) The Commission shall, as soon as may be practicable, give a copy of the directive under subsection (1) or extension under subsection (2) to the exchange and direct the exchange to do all that it is reasonably capable of doing to give effect to the directive under subsection (1) or extension under subsection (2) while the directive or extension remains in force.

(5) Where the Commission exercises its power under this section it shall notify the Minister setting out the reasons for the exercise of the power under this section.

(6) In this section –

“business day” means any day on which there is official trading on the exchange but for the closure;

“fair market” includes a market that reflects the forces of supply and demand.

Listing requirements of

31. (1) Where an exchange decides to list its own securities on such exchange, it shall obtain the prior approval of the Commission and the Ministry of Finance.

(2) The Commission shall grant approval to the exchange to list its securities on such exchange on being satisfied that the exchange has complied with all the necessary listing requirements of the exchange.

(3) On such approval being granted, such exchange shall enter into an arrangement as the Commission may require-

- (a) for dealing with possible conflicts of interest that may arise from the listing on such exchange;
- (b) for the purpose of ensuring the integrity of trading of securities of such exchange; and
- (c) for compliance with obligations as a listed company if such exchange was to become a listed company, and such exchange shall comply with such requirements.

(4) The listing requirements of such exchange shall be deemed to allow the Commission, instead of such exchange to make decisions and to take action, relating to-

- (a) the admission to or removal of the exchange from the official list of such exchange;
- (b) the stopping or suspension of the securities of the exchange from being listed or traded on such exchange; or

- (c) the continuing listing requirements or such other matters as the Commission deems fit for the purpose of subsection (1).

(5) An arrangement under subsection (3) may provide for the exchange to pay such fees to the Commission as the Commission may determine for services provided by the Commission under the arrangement or otherwise.

(6) Without prejudice to the powers of the Commission to approve or amend the rules of an exchange, the Commission may by notice in writing-

- (a) modify the listing requirements of such exchange for the purpose of applying for a listing or trading of the securities of such exchange; or
- (b) exempt such exchange from any listing requirement.

- (f) make its governance arrangements, the rules governing the licensed clearing house, and its admission criteria for licensed clearing house membership, available to the public free of charge.

Commission's power to regulate and supervise a
clearing house

38. Without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred on the Commission under this Act, the Commission shall have the power to regulate and supervise a licensed clearing house in order to satisfy itself that the licensed clearing house carries on its functions in accordance with the provisions of this Act, rules made thereunder and the terms and conditions of the licensed clearing house.

- 39. (1) The Commission may by notice in writing - Cancellation of licence of a clearing house
- (a) cancel the licence granted under section 35 to a clearing house with effect from the date specified in the notice; or
 - (b) direct the licensed clearing house to cease to provide or operate such facilities or to cease to provide such services, with effect from the date specified in the notice.

(2) The Commission shall not cancel a licence or issue a directive under subsection (1) unless the Commission is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so for the protection of investors, in the public interest or for the proper regulation of the clearing and settlement of transactions in securities, if any of the following circumstances occur:-

- (a) the licensed clearing house ceases to provide clearing facilities;
- (b) the licensed clearing house is being wound up or otherwise dissolved, whether within or outside Sri Lanka;
- (c) the licensed clearing house has contravened any term or condition of its licence or is charged with any offence under this Act;
- (d) the licensed clearing house has failed to comply with a term or condition of its license requirement or directive issued under this Act or otherwise fails to comply with any provision or requirement under this Act;

- (h) the licensed clearing house has, whether within or outside Sri Lanka, entered into a compromise or scheme of arrangement with its creditors; or
- (i) the licensed clearing house has on its own accord applied to the Commission to cancel the licence granted to it.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (2), the clearing house shall be deemed to have ceased to provide clearing facilities if it has ceased to provide such facilities for a period exceeding two weeks without obtaining the prior written approval of the Commission to do so.

(4) Notwithstanding the cancellation of a licence or the issuance of a directive under subsection (1), the Commission may permit the clearing house to continue, on or after the date on which the cancellation or directive is to take effect, to carry on such activities affected by the cancellation or directive as the Commission may specify in the notice for the purpose of –

- (a) closing down the operations of the clearing house or ceasing to provide the services specified in the notice; or
- (b) protecting investors or the public interest.

(5) Where the Commission acts under subsection (1), the Commission may, where it considers necessary, appoint an interim board of directors for a period of six months which may be extended up to a period of one year to manage the affairs of the licensed clearing house until a new board of directors is appointed.

(6) The Commission shall not take any action under subsection (1) without giving the clearing house an opportunity of being heard.

40. (1) A licensed clearing house which is aggrieved by the decision of the Commission made under subsection (1) of section 39, may, within fourteen days after the clearing house is notified of the decision, appeal to the Minister.

Aggrieved clearing house
may appeal

(2) Notwithstanding the lodging of an appeal under subsection (1), any action taken by the Commission under this section shall continue to have effect pending the decision of the Minister.

(3) The Minister may, on an appeal made under subsection (1)-

- (a) allow the appeal and direct the Commission to revoke the cancellation of the licence or the directive; or
- (b) disallow the appeal.

(4) The Commission shall give effect to the decision of the Minister under subsection (3).

(5) Subject to subsection (4), the Commission shall give public notice of any cancellation of a licence or any directive issued under this section.

41. Any cancellation of a licence or the issuance of a directive under subsection (1) of section 39 shall not operate so as to –

Effect of cancellation of a licence to a clearing house

- (a) avoid or affect any agreement, transaction or arrangement entered into through the licensed clearing house whether the agreement, transaction or arrangement was entered into before, or where subsection (4) of section 39 applies, after the cancellation of the licence or issuance of the directive under section 39; or
- (b) affect any right, obligation or liability arising under such agreement, transaction or arrangement.

Default rules

42. (1) A licensed clearing house shall, for the purpose of risk management, initiate default proceedings under default rules if a clearing member is unable or is likely to become unable to meet the obligations in respect of all or any unsettled market contracts to which the clearing member is a party.

(2) Where a licensed clearing house initiates any default proceedings, all subsequent proceedings or other action taken under its clearing rules for the purposes of the settlement of market contracts of which the defaulter is a party shall be deemed to have been carried out under the default rules of the licensed clearing house.

Default proceedings etc.
of a clearing house to take precedence

43. (1) Notwithstanding only of an inconsistency with the provisions of any written law relating to the assets of a person subject to insolvency, bankruptcy or winding up, or on the appointment of a receiver, a receiver and a manager, a liquidator or a person in an equivalent capacity, none of the following shall be invalid to any extent in law :—

- (a) a market contract;
- (b) the rules of a clearing house relating to the settlement of a market contract;
- (c) any proceedings or other action taken under the rules of a clearing house relating to the settlement of a market contract;

- (d) a market charge;
- (e) market collateral;
- (f) the default rules of a clearing house; or
- (g) any default proceedings.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the powers of a relevant office holder in his capacity as such and the powers of any court under the law of insolvency or the Companies Act, No.7 of 2007 shall not be exercised in such a way as to prevent or interfere with –

- (a) the settlement of a market contract in accordance with the rules of a clearing house; or
- (b) any default proceedings.

44. Nothing in the Companies Act, No. 7 of 2007 nor any other written law, shall prevent or interfere with the default proceedings instituted by a licensed clearing house in the realization and disposition of any market collateral by the licensed clearing house.

Supplementary provisions relating to default proceedings

45. (1) Upon completion of any default proceedings, a licensed clearing house shall provide a report in respect of each defaulter to the person or entity referred to in subsection (2) in respect of the following: -

Duty to report on completion of default proceedings

- (a) the net sum, if any, certified by the licensed clearing house to be payable by or to the defaulter;
- (b) the fact that no sum is so payable to the defaulter; and
- (c) such other particulars in respect of such default proceedings as it thinks fit.

(2) A certified copy of the report prepared under subsection (1) shall be provided forthwith-

- (a) to the Commission;
- (b) to the defaulter to whom the report relates or to the relevant office holder acting for the defaulter to whom the report relates or to the defaulter's estate; and
- (c) to such other person as the Commission deems fit.

(3) Where the licensed clearing house has made a report pursuant to subsection (1), relevant office holder of the defaulter shall publish a notice of that fact to bring it to the attention of creditors of the defaulter to whom the report relates.

(4) Where a relevant office holder or defaulter receives a report pursuant to subsection (1), it shall, at the request of any of his creditors-

- (a) make the report available for inspection by the creditor within two days from the receipt of such request; or
- (b) on payment of a relevant fee as determined by the relevant office holder or the defaulter, provide to the creditor a certified copy of such report or any part of that report as requested.

Net sum payable on completion of default proceedings

46. (1) Upon the completion of default proceedings, the net sum certified under paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 45 by a licensed clearing house shall be payable by or to the defaulter.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of the Companies Act, No. 7 of 2007, where an order for a receiver or winding up has been made or a resolution for voluntary winding up has been passed, the net sum referred to in subsection (1) shall be taken into account in relation to winding up proceedings under the Companies Act, No. 7 of 2007.

47. (1) If a clearing member (“the first clearing member”) sells securities at an overvalue to, or purchases securities at an undervalue from, another clearing member (“the second clearing member”) in circumstances as described in subsection (3) and thereafter a relevant office holder acts for-

Right of relevant office holder to recover certain amounts arising from certain transactions

- (a) the second clearing member;
- (b) the principal of the second clearing member in the sale or purchase; or
- (c) the estate of the second clearing member or the person referred to in paragraph (b), the relevant office holder may recover, from the first clearing member, or the principal of the first clearing member, an amount equal to the identified gain obtained by the sale or purchase by the first clearing member, or the principal of the first clearing member unless a court orders otherwise.

(2) The amount equal to the identified gain is recoverable even if the sale or purchase may have been discharged according to the rules of the clearing house and replaced by a market contract.

(3) The circumstances referred to in subsection (1) for a sale or purchase shall be where-

- (a) an identified event has occurred in relation to the second clearing member or the principal of the second clearing member; and
- (b) either-

- (i) the first clearing member knew, or could reasonably have known that an identified event was likely to occur in relation to the second clearing member or the principal of the second clearing member; or
- (ii) the principal of the first clearing member knew or could reasonably have known that an identified event was likely to occur to the second clearing member or the principal of the second clearing member, and the identified event occurs within the period of six months immediately following the date on which the sale or purchase was entered into.

(4) In this section-

- (a) “identified event”, in relation to a second clearing member or a person who is or was in respect of a sale or purchase referred to in subsection (1) means-
 - (i) an act of bankruptcy committed by the second clearing member or the principal of the second clearing member, as the case may be;
 - (ii) a meeting of creditors summoned in relation to the second clearing member or the principal of the second clearing member, as the case may be, pursuant to the Companies Act, No.7 of 2007; or
 - (iii) the presentation of a petition for the winding up of the second clearing member or the principal of the second clearing member, as the case may be, to a court;
- (b) “identified gain” in relation to a sale or purchase referred to in subsection (1), means the difference between –

- (i) the market value of the securities which is the subject of the sale or purchase; and
- (ii) the value of the consideration for the sale or purchase, as at the time the sale or purchase was entered into.

48. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, a clearing member who enters into any transaction including a market contract with a licensed clearing house, notwithstanding the fact that he is party to that transaction as an agent shall for all purposes including any civil action, claim or demand by or against a licensed clearing house be deemed to be a party to that transaction as a principal and not as an agent.

Clearing member to be party to certain transactions as principal

49. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, where market collateral is delivered in settlement of a market contract or under a market charge to a licensed clearing house by a clearing member in accordance with the rules of the licensed clearing house, no civil action, claim or demand in respect of any right, title or interest in market collateral delivered to a licensed clearing house shall be allowed against the licensed clearing house.

Market collateral delivered to a clearing house

50. The licensed clearing house shall be entitled to execute the collateral subject to a market contract or market charge in accordance with the procedure specified in the rules of a licensed clearing house.

Application of collateral subject to a market charge

51. (1) A central depository shall give effect to an instruction from a licensed clearing house to effect a transfer of securities into or out of a securities account of an account holder provided such instruction shall be for the purposes of settlement of a market contract or otherwise dealing with a market contract in accordance with the rules of the licensed clearing house.

Transfer of securities in settlement

(2) An instruction under subsection (1) shall be given by a licensed clearing house only in relation to a securities account which relates to an account holder who is a party to a market contract or an account holder who had instructed a clearing member to effect a trade which results in a market contract to which a clearing member has become a party.

(3) Where any transfer of securities pursuant to a market contract is effected by the central depository to or from a securities account of an account holder pursuant to subsection (1), no title in such securities shall pass to an account holder except as provided under the rules of a licensed clearing house.

(4) Where a transfer of securities has been effected into or out of a securities account of an account holder pursuant to subsection (1), a central depository shall not be subject to any action or claim by or be liable to any damages to that account holder.

Purchase and sale of securities

52. (1) A licensed clearing house may require an exchange to effect on behalf of the licensed clearing house a sale or purchase of securities if such sale or purchase, as the case may be, is effected for the purposes of settlement of any market contract or to facilitate default proceedings or to enable the clearing house to realize any asset comprised in any market charge or provided as market collateral, and the exchange shall give effect to any such instruction.

(2) Where a sale or purchase of securities has been effected on behalf of the licensed clearing house pursuant to subsection (1) by an exchange, the exchange shall not be subject to any action or claim by or be liable to any damages to any person.

(3) A clearing or settlement transaction of securities carried out by a clearing house or a payment by or to a licensed clearing house shall not be reversed, undone or cancelled other than in accordance with the clearing and settlement rules of the licensed clearing house.

53. (1) It shall be a defence to a person in any civil or criminal proceedings to prove that in discharging his duties by virtue of delegation of powers under the default rules of a licensed clearing house in connection with any default proceeding in respect of anything done or omitted to be done that he exercised reasonable care and acted in good faith in the course of or in connection with the discharge or purported discharge of that duty.

Defences in criminal or civil liability

(2) The person referred to in subsection (1) shall include –

- (a) any member of the board of directors of the person; and
- (b) any member of any committee established by such person.

(3) Where a relevant office holder takes action in relation to any property of any defaulter which is liable to be dealt with in accordance with the default rules of a licensed clearing house, and where the relevant office holder reasonably believes or has reasonable grounds for believing that he is entitled to take that action, the relevant office holder shall not be liable to any person for any loss or damage resulting from any action of the relevant office holder unless such loss or damage was caused by the negligence of the relevant office holder.

CENTRAL DEPOSITORY

54. (1) A person shall not establish, operate or maintain a central depository for handling of securities, without obtaining a licence from the Commission whether such securities are listed or not listed on an exchange.

Prohibition against operating an unlicensed central depository

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1), commits an offence and shall on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty five million rupees or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply to-

- (a) a central depository operated or established by the Central Bank of Sri Lanka;
- (b) a central depository operated in respect of securities issued by the Government of Sri Lanka or the Central Bank of Sri Lanka; or
- (c) any person providing a Central Depository for any issue of securities which have been exempted by the Commission.

Application to operate a central depository

55. (1) An application for a licence to establish or operate a central depository shall be made to the Commission in such manner and form as may be specified by the Commission and shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed.

(2) An application for a licence to establish or operate a central depository shall only be made by a body corporate.

(3) The central depository shall make rules which have satisfactory provisions with regard to –

- (a) conditions under which securities may be deposited, held by, withdrawn from or transferred to and recorded in the register of securities;
- (b) the processing of dealings in deposited securities;
- (c) facilitating the settlement of deposited securities;

- (d) the protection of the interests of account holders and the protection and control of information on deposited securities and dealings therein;
- (e) transparent and non discriminatory criteria for the admission of depository participants and the categories of depository participants;
- (f) the monitoring and supervision of depository participants and for the enforcement of the rules of the applicant company;
- (g) the expulsion, suspension, imposition of penalties or disciplining of depository participants for failure to comply with the rules of the central depository;
- (h) the settlement of disputes between the central depository and the depository participants and between depository participants; and
- (i) ensuring the segregation of the securities belonging to investors from those of the depository participants.

(4) An applicant under subsection (1) shall provide such information as the Commission considers necessary in relation to the application.

(5) The proposed central depository shall at all times have sufficient financial, human and other resources to ensure the provision of –

- (a) adequately and properly equipped premises for the conduct of its business;
- (b) competent personnel for the conduct of its business; and
- (c) automated systems with adequate capacity, security arrangements and facilities to mitigate risks and to meet emergencies.

(6) Where the Commission is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so in the public interest or for the proper regulation of the securities market, it may, grant a licence to the applicant to establish or operate a central depository subject to such terms or conditions as the Commission thinks fit.

(7) Without limiting the generality of the terms and conditions attached to the licence referred to in subsection (6), the Commission, may amend or revoke any of the terms and conditions imposed or impose new terms and conditions, if the Commission is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so in the interest of the investors, or for the proper regulation of a central depository.

Duties of a
depository

56. (1) A central depository shall –

- (a) operate a safe, effective and efficient system for the handling of securities;
- (b) manage any risks associated with its business and operations prudently; and
- (c) act in the public interest having particular regard to the need for the protection of account holders.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, it shall be the duty of a director of a central depository to act at all times in the public interest having particular regard to the need for the protection of account holders, and where there is a conflict between such duty and a director's duty under the provisions of any other written law the duty under this Act shall prevail.

depository

57. (1) The Commission may by notice in writing -

- (a) cancel the licence granted under section 55 with effect from the date specified in the notice; or

- (b) direct the central depository to cease to provide or operate such facilities, or to cease to provide such services, as are specified in the notice, with effect from the date specified in the notice.

(2) The Commission shall not cancel a licence or issue a directive under subsection (1), unless the Commission is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so for the protection of investors or in the public interest or for the proper regulation of the securities market where any of the following circumstances occur: -

- (a) the central depository ceases to operate a system for the central handling of securities;
- (b) the central depository is being wound up or otherwise dissolved, whether within or outside Sri Lanka;
- (c) the central depository has contravened any term or condition of its licence or is charged with any offence under this Act;
- (d) the central depository has failed to comply with a condition, requirement or directive that is issued under this Act;
- (e) any information provided for the purposes of section 55 was false or misleading in a material particular or from which there is a material omission;
- (f) a judgment debt against the central depository has not been satisfied in whole or in part;
- (g) a receiver, a receiver and manager, liquidator or an equivalent person has been appointed, whether within or outside Sri Lanka, in relation to or in respect of any property of the central depository;

- (h) the central depository has, whether within or outside Sri Lanka, entered into a compromise or scheme of arrangement with its creditors; or
- (i) the central depository has on its own accord applied to the Commission to cancel the licence granted to it and the Commission, thinks it fit to do so.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of subsection (2), the central depository shall be deemed to have ceased to operate a system for the central handling of securities if it has ceased to operate such system for a period exceeding two weeks without obtaining the prior written approval of the Commission.

(4) Notwithstanding the cancellation of a licence or the issuance of a directive under subsection (1), the Commission may permit the central depository to continue, on or after the date on which the cancellation or directive is to take effect, to carry on such activities affected by the cancellation or directive as the Commission may specify in the notice—

- (a) for the purpose of closing down the operations of the central depository or ceasing to provide the services specified in the notice;
- (b) for the purpose of protecting the depositors; or
- (c) in the public interest.

(5) Where the Commission acts under subsection (1), the Commission may where it deems necessary appoint an interim board of directors for a period of six months and be extended for a period of one year to manage the affairs of the central depository until a new board of directors is appointed.

(6) Where the Commission has granted permission to the central depository under subsection (4), the central depository shall not, by reason of its carrying on the activities in accordance with the permission, be regarded as having contravened subsection (1).

(7) The Commission shall not take any action under subsection (1) without giving the central depository an opportunity of being heard.

(8) A central depository which is aggrieved by the decision of the Commission made under subsection (1) may, within fourteen days after the central depository is notified of the decision, appeal to the Minister.

(9) Notwithstanding the making of an appeal under subsection (8), any action taken by the Commission under this section shall continue to have effect pending the decision of the Minister.

(10) The Minister may, on an appeal made under subsection (8)-

- (a) allow the appeal and direct the Commission to revoke the cancellation of the licence or the directive; or
- (b) disallow the appeal.

(11) The Commission shall give effect to the decision of the Minister.

(12) Subject to subsection (11), the Commission shall give public notice of any cancellation of the licence or any directive issued under this section.

58. Any cancellation of a licence or the issuance of a directive under subsection (1) of section 57 shall not operate so as to –

- (a) avoid or affect any agreement, transaction or arrangement entered into by the central depository,

cancellation of
depository

whether the agreement, transaction or arrangement was entered into before or, where subsection (4) of section 57 applies after the cancellation of the licence or issuance of the directive under subsection (1) of section 57; or

- (b) affect any right, obligation or liability arising under such agreement, transaction or arrangement.

Securities
account

59. A central depository may establish different types of securities accounts and every such securities account opened with a central depository shall be in the name of the beneficial owner of the deposited securities or in the name of a nominee. Where a securities account is opened in the name of a nominee, the name of the beneficial owner shall be disclosed to the central depository by the person opening such account.

Book entry securities lodged with the central depository

60. All dealings of securities held in a central depository shall be made by means of book entries in the accounts of the central depository without the physical delivery of scrips.

Record of entry in depositor's
account

61. A record of an entry in an account maintained by the central depository shall be prima facie evidence of the authenticity of such matter.

Effect of securities held in trust by the
depository

62. (1) Where the central depository holds securities in trust for its holders of securities, the person for whose benefit those securities are held in trust-

- (a) shall be deemed to be the holder of such securities; and
- (b) shall in respect of those securities, enjoy all such rights and privileges and be subject to all such duties and obligations in respect of, or arising from, such securities, under the Companies Act, No. 7 of 2007 as the case may be, as if he is the holder of those securities.

(2) The rights and duties attached to the securities maintained in the accounts of the central depository held by a nominee shall be exercised by the beneficial owner identified in the respective account held in the central depository as if he is the holder of those securities.

(3) The appointment of a receiver, a receiver or manager, liquidator or any equivalent person in respect of any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings of a depository participant shall not affect the rights of holders of securities held in trust by the central depository of that depository participant.

63. Any registration of securities by the central depository prior to the enactment of this Act shall not be invalid only for the reason that such registration has been done other than in accordance with the provisions of this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder. Validation

(3) The rules of a market institution in so far as they have been approved by the Commission, shall not be amended, varied or rescinded without the prior approval of the Commission.

(4) Where a market institution proposes to amend its rules, the market institution shall forward to the Commission in writing the proposed amendment.

(5) The Commission shall, after hearing the market institution within ninety days of receipt of the proposed amendment give written notice to the market institution as to whether such amendments to the rules are-

- (a) allowed;
- (b) disallowed; or
- (c) allowed with amendments, variations or modifications.

(6) Where the proposed amendment is disallowed, the Commission shall give reasons for such disapproval.

(7) Where the Commission fails to revert to the market institution within ninety days, proposed amendments to such rules under subsection (4) shall take effect immediately on the expiration of ninety days.

(8) Upon receipt of notice under subsection (5), the market institution shall give immediate effect to such rule.

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in subsections (5) and (8), the Commission may amend the rules of any market institution at any time and such rules shall take effect with immediate effect or on such date as specified by the Commission.

65. (1) Where any person who is under a duty to comply, observe, enforce or give effect to the rules of a market institution fails to do so, the Commission shall direct such person to comply with such rules or to give reasons for such failure upon the market institution referring such matter to the Commission.

Power of Court to order observance or enforcement of rules of market

(2) Where the Commission is not satisfied with the reasons given by such person, the Commission may direct such person referred to in subsection (1) to comply with the rules and any other direction given by the Commission which the Commission deems necessary.

(3) Any person who violates a directive of the Commission issued under subsection (2) commits an offence.

(4) Where any person fails to comply with a directive issued by the Commission under subsection (1), the Commission may proceed as provided for under subsection (2) or make an application to court for an order under subsection (5).

(5) The Court may, make an order directing the first mentioned person to comply, observe, enforce or give effect to the rules of a market institution.

66. (1) A person other than a representative of the government, shall not enter into any agreement or arrangement to acquire any voting shares of a market institution either individually or together with any other person acting in concert with him, exceeding five per centum or more of the aggregate of all the voting shares in a market institution, without obtaining the prior written approval of the Commission.

substantial shareholders of a market
institution

(2) The Commission may impose restrictions on the maximum proportion of voting shares that may be held directly or indirectly by a group of persons representing a particular interest as may be determined by the Commission by way of an Order published in the Gazette.

(3) The Commission may, at any time by publishing a notification in the Gazette, vary the threshold referred to in subsection (1) after taking into consideration the stage of securities market development or the public interest.

(4) An application for the purpose of obtaining approval under subsection (1) shall be made by the person intending to acquire voting shares referred to therein and shall be sent to the Commission in the form and manner as may be specified by the Commission.

(5) The Commission may require the applicant –

- (a) to give further information in connection with an application; and
- (b) to have any information submitted in support of an application verified at the cost of the applicant, in such manner and by such persons as it may specify.

(6) The Commission may grant its approval subject to such terms and conditions as it thinks fit to impose.

Power of the Commission to make a preliminary order to impose
prohibition

67. (1) Where the Commission is satisfied that any person has contravened the provisions of section 66, the Commission may issue a directive imposing one or more of the following prohibitions as may be applicable or appropriate in the circumstances of the contravention in respect of any shares:-

- (a) prohibit the buying of, or the carrying out of the agreement or arrangement to buy, such voting shares, or in the case of unissued shares, the carrying out of the agreement or arrangement to buy or the buying of the right to be issued with unissued shares;
- (b) prohibit the exercise of any voting rights in respect of such shares;
- (c) prohibit the issue of any further shares in right of such shares or in pursuance of any offer made to the holder of such shares; or
- (d) except in liquidation, prohibit the payment of any sums due from the market institution, on such shares, whether in respect of capital, dividends or otherwise.

(2) A directive issued under subsection (1) shall be served on the person who contravenes subsection (1) as soon as is practicable, and may be publicised in such manner as the Commission thinks fit.

(3) A directive issued under subsection (1) shall be binding on the person who contravenes subsection (1) or any person for the time being holding the voting shares to which such directive relates and on any other person specified in the directive.

(4) Any person against whom a directive has been issued under subsection (1), or any other person prejudicially affected by such directive, may within fourteen days of the issuance of the directive, make an appeal in writing to the Commission for the setting aside of the directive on the ground that he had not contravened the provisions in relation to which the directive has been issued, or for a variation of the directive on the ground that it would be just and proper to vary it for reasons to be specified in the appeal.

(5) The Commission may, within forty five days of receiving an application under subsection (4) after considering the appeal made by such application either confirm, set aside or vary the directive issued under subsection (1).

(6) Where the Commission confirms the directive made under subsection (1) the Commission may direct the holder of the shares to which the directive applies to dispose of the shares.

(7) The Commission may issue any instruction or a directive to the directors or officers of the market institution, as may be necessary to give effect to any decision of the Commission made under this section, or as may be incidental, ancillary or consequential to such decision.

(8) Any transaction, including any agreement or arrangement in relation to any shares which is in contravention of any directive issued or of any decision made under subsection (5) or of any instruction given or directive issued by the Commission under subsection (7), shall be deemed to have no effect in law.

(9) A person who contravenes any directive or decision made under subsection (5), or any instruction given or directive issued under subsection (7), commits an offence and shall, on conviction after summary trial by a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty five million rupees or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Appointment of directors to a market

68. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Companies Act, No. 7 of 2007, a person shall not accept appointment, reappointment, election or re-election as a director, chief executive officer or chief regulatory officer of a market institution except with the prior approval of the Commission.

- (b) audited financial statements prepared in accordance with Sri Lanka's Accounting Standards and such other requirements as may be specified in the rules; and
- (c) consolidated financial statements, where the market institution is a holding company or a subsidiary where appropriate.

(2) The financial statements to be included in an annual report under subsection (1) shall be audited in accordance with Sri Lanka's Auditing Standards.

(3) The annual report of a clearing house and a central depository shall also include an audited report on risk management procedures and their application and any other information required by the Commission.

(4) The information required under subsections (2) and (3) which is required to be included in an annual report shall be in addition to the requirements imposed under the Companies Act, No.7 of 2007.

Duties of an auditor of a

74. (1) If an auditor of a market institution, in the ordinary course of performing his duties, becomes aware of-

- (a) any matter which, in his opinion, adversely affects or may adversely affect the financial position of the market institution, to a material extent;

- (b) any matter which, in his opinion, constitutes or may constitute a breach of any provision of this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder or an offence involving fraud or dishonesty affecting the financial stability of the market institution to a material extent; or
- (c) any irregularity that has or may have a material effect on the accounts of the market institution, including any irregularity that adversely affects or may adversely affect, the funds or property of investors in securities, the auditor shall immediately send to the board of directors a written report of the matter or the irregularity with a copy to the Commission.

(2) An auditor of a market institution shall not be liable to any suit by any person in respect of any statement made in his report under subsection (1) provided the auditor has acted in good faith.

(3) The Commission may impose all or any of the following duties on an auditor of a market institution: –

- (a) a duty to submit such additional information and reports in relation to his audit as the Commission considers necessary;
- (b) a duty to enlarge, extend or alter the scope of his audit of the business and affairs of the market institution;
- (c) a duty to carry out any other examination or establish any procedure in any particular case; or

- (d) a duty to submit a report on any matter arising out of his audit, examination or establishment of procedure referred to in paragraph (b) or (c), and the auditor shall carry out such duties, as an extension to his ordinary audit scope for issuing an independent opinion on the financial statements.

(4) The market institution shall remunerate the auditor in terms of the schedule of fees published by the Commission in respect of the discharge by him of all or any of the duties referred to in subsection (3) and in circumstances where further investigation is necessary, remuneration to auditors shall be paid out of the Fund of the Commission.

Obligation to submit periodic reports

75. A market institution, shall submit to the Commission such reports including a risk management audit in such form, manner and frequency as may be specified by the Commission. The Commission in addition shall subject the market institution to supervision and an annual audit by the Commission to ascertain compliance by the market institution with the provisions of this Act and of rules, regulations, directives that may be issued by the Commission from time to time.

Payment of annual fee

76. A market institution shall pay to the Commission an annual fee as may be prescribed.

Power of the Commission to review its own decision

(2) The Commission shall communicate its decision to the applicant in writing not later than ninety days from the date of the receipt of the application.

PART III

Issue of Securities

79. The object and purpose of this Part shall be—

Object and purpose of this Part

- (a) to regulate the issue of securities by way of public offers;
- (b) to ensure the disclosure of financial information by listed public companies;

- (c) to require auditors to disclose financial irregularities of listed public companies;
- (d) to licence market intermediaries and register their representatives; and
- (e) to protect assets of the clients.

CHAPTER I

PUBLIC OFFER OF SECURITIES

Public Offer of
Securities

80. A listed public company or any public company which has applied to obtain a listing in an exchange shall not make a public offer of securities either directly or through a third party by way of a prospectus or a similar document or otherwise for the purposes of solicitation of funds from the public unless approved by the Commission or a person authorised by the Commission:

Provided however, the Commission having taken into consideration the volume of securities, class of securities, the number and type of investors, the nature of the issuer or the nature of the securities market may by rules made under this Act require that the approval of the Commission be obtained prior to certain types of public offers of unlisted companies.

Approval of the Commission for issue of securities

81. (1) A listed public company shall obtain the approval of the Commission or any person authorised by the Commission to grant approval in respect of—

- (a) any new issue or offer for sale of securities to the public, whether such issues or offers for sale are by way of a public offer or otherwise;

- (b) private placement of securities;
- (c) rights issues of securities;
- (d) bonus issues of securities; or
- (e) schemes of arrangements, schemes of reconstruction, take over schemes, share option schemes and acquisition of assets by way of issues of securities.

(2) A listed foreign entity seeking a listing on an exchange licensed by the Commission shall apply to the Commission or any person authorised by the Commission for approval to make a public offer of securities.

(3) The board of directors of every listed public company and listed foreign entity shall ensure that the company or the entity shall comply with the rules and requirements of the exchange in which it is listed at all times so long as the company or the entity remains listed on the exchange.

82. (1) The prospectus or similar document prepared by a person making an offer to the public shall comply with the requirements specified in the Companies Act, No. 7 of 2007, and any other requirements specified by the Commission and the rules of an exchange.

Prospectus or

(2) A person making an issue of securities to the public shall lodge a copy of the prospectus or a similar document with the Commission or with any person authorised by the Commission for that purpose prior to registration of the prospectus as required under the Companies Act, No. 7 of 2007.

(3) The Commission may examine any prospectus or similar document when a person makes a public offer of securities for the purpose of solicitation of funds from the public.

Commission to issue stop orders

83. (1) Where the Commission is of the opinion that—

- (a) a prospectus or similar document submitted to a licensed stock exchange under its listing rules or in respect of public offers falling within section 80 does not comply with or is not prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Act or the rules of the exchange as the case may be;
- (b) a prospectus or similar document contains a statement or information that is false or misleading or from which there is a material omission; or
- (c) an issuer has contravened any provision of this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder or has not complied with the requirements imposed under this Act, the Commission may issue an order to the issuer not to allot, issue, offer or make an invitation to subscribe for or purchase or sell further securities relating to public offers.

(2) The Commission shall not make an order under subsection (1) unless the Commission has given a reasonable opportunity to be heard to any affected person as to whether such an order should be made.

(3) If the Commission considers that any delay in making an order under subsection (1) by giving an opportunity to be heard would be prejudicial to the interest of investors, the Commission may make an interim order without giving an opportunity to be heard.

(4) An interim order under subsection (3) shall, unless previously revoked have effect until the end of twenty one days after the day on which it is made or the conclusion of the hearing in subsection (2), whichever date is later.

(5) An order made under subsection (1) or an interim order made under subsection (3) may be revoked by the Commission by way of a directive if the Commission becomes satisfied that the circumstances that resulted in the making of the order no longer exist.

(6) Where applications to subscribe for or purchase securities to which the prospectus or similar document relates has been made prior to an order under subsection (1) being made—

- (a) but before the securities have been issued to the applicants, the applications shall be deemed to have been withdrawn and cancelled and the issuer or such other person who receives the monies, shall, forthwith repay without interest all monies received from the applicants and if the money is not repaid within fourteen days of the order, the issuer shall be liable to repay the monies with interest as may be specified by the Commission from the expiration of that period; or

- (b) where the securities have been allotted to the applicants, the allotment of securities shall be deemed to be void and the issuer or any other person shall forthwith repay without interest all monies received from the applicants and if such money is not repaid within fourteen days of the date of service of the order the issuer shall be liable to repay such monies with interest at the rate as may be specified by the Commission from the expiration of that period.

(7) Provisions of this section shall not apply in respect of any issuer if any of the securities to which the prospectus or similar document relates have been issued or listed on an exchange and trading in them has commenced.

Purchase, sale or transfer of securities

84. (1) A person holding securities in a company listed on an exchange shall buy, sell, gift or otherwise deal in such securities in compliance with the trading procedure adopted by such licensed exchange:

Provided however, where no express trading procedure has been adopted by such exchange, the approval of the Commission shall be obtained.

(2) A person as referred to in subsection (1) may gift any such securities to a relation otherwise than in compliance with such trading procedure, if he gives prior notice to the Commission and the licensed exchange, of the particulars relating to the proposed gift.

(3) In this section “relation” means a parent, spouse, child including step children, brother or sister including step brother or step sister of that person or the spouse of a child of that person.

85. (1) Where it appears to the Commission from the disclosures made to the public that -

Power of the Commission to require the production of documents

- (a) there exist circumstances that the business of a listed public company has been conducted—
 - (i) in a manner that contravenes the provisions of this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder or rules of a market institution; or
 - (ii) in a manner, prejudicial to interest of investors;
- (b) there exist circumstances that the company was listed for a fraudulent or unlawful purpose;
- (c) there exist circumstances that the persons concerned with the listing of a company or the management of its affairs in relation to the listing have been guilty of fraud, wrongdoing or other misconduct; or
- (d) there exist circumstances that the director or management of a listed public company have intentionally suppressed information with respect to the affairs of the company that is required to be provided under this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder or as may reasonably be expected to be released to the public, the Commission may issue directives to the listed public company requiring such company to produce the documents, electronic records or other information specified in the directive at a specified time and place in order to conduct an inquiry or investigation into the matters specified in the preceding provisions.

(2) The Commission may delegate its authority under subsection (1) to any person to require the submission of documents, electronic records or any other information for the purposes of subsection (1).

(3) The Commission or an authorised person may also require the production of such documents and electronic records in relation to the listed public company which is the subject of an inquiry or investigation, from any person who is in possession of them.

(4) Where such documents or electronic records referred to in subsections (1), (2) and (3) are produced, the Commission or the authorised officer shall require the listed public company–

- (a) to require that person or any other person who is a present or past officer of the listed public company or was at any time employed by the listed public company to provide an explanation of such documents and electronic records; and
- (b) where the records and documents and electronic records are not produced as required, the person required to produce such records, documents or electronic records to give reasons for such failure; or
- (c) where the documents and electronic records are not produced, the person required to produce them shall disclose its location to the best of his knowledge and belief.

(5) Where any listed public company fails to comply with this section, the Commission shall issue a directive to the listed public company under section 86 of this Act.

86. Where the Commission after due inquiry or investigation determines that a listed public company has contravened or failed to comply with any provision of the Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder or has furnished the Commission with information that is false, inaccurate or misleading, the Commission may take any enforcement action provided under this Act as deemed appropriate.

Power of the Commission to issue directives to listed public companies

87. (1) A person who furnishes information or cause information to be furnished to the Commission under this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder shall exercise due care to ensure that the information is not false or misleading in any material particular.

Duty not to furnish false information to the Commission

(2) A person who –

- (a) signs a document lodged with the Commission; or
- (b) submits to the Commission a document by electronic means using any identification or other authentication method or procedure assigned to him by the Commission, shall exercise due care to ensure that the document is not false or misleading in a material particular.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence under this Act.

Duty not to make false statements to

88. A person with intent to deceive, makes or furnishes, or knowingly and willfully authorises or permits the making or furnishing of any misleading statement or report to a market institution licensed under this Act in relation to any information that a listed public company is required to furnish under this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder commits an offence under this Act.

Appointing directors or chief executive officer

89. (1) The board of directors of every listed public company shall ensure that the company and its directors comply with the rules and requirements of the exchange on which it is listed on a continuous basis as long as the company remains listed on such exchange.

(2) The directors or chief executive officer of a listed public company shall comply with the fit and proper criteria specified by the Commission by rules or in the rules of an exchange approved by the Commission.

Duties of an
listed public

90. (1) If an auditor of a listed public company in the ordinary course of the performance of his duties, becomes aware of-

- (a) any contravention or non compliance with any requirement or provision of this Act, any regulation, rule or directive made thereunder or a breach of any rule of an exchange or any offence involving fraud or dishonesty; or
- (b) any matter which may in his opinion adversely affects or is likely to adversely affect the financial position of the listed public company to a material extent; or
- (c) any irregularity that has or may have a material effect upon the accounts of a listed public company including any irregularity that affects or jeopardizes or may affect or jeopardize the funds or property of any investor in securities, the auditor shall immediately report such matters referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) to the audit committee in writing for rectification and if no remedial measure is taken within two weeks thereof, refer such matters to the board of directors in writing to rectify such matters or deter the commission of a breach where it has not yet occurred.

(2) If no action is taken under subsection (1) by the board of directors to rectify such matters referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) within two weeks, the auditor shall submit a written report on the matters immediately thereupon—

- (a) in the case of a contravention or non compliance with any requirement or provision of this Act, any regulation, rule or directive issued thereunder or an offence involving fraud or dishonesty, to the Commission; or
- (b) in the case of a breach of or non compliance with any rules of an exchange, to the relevant exchange and the Commission.

(3) No auditor shall be liable to be sued in any court for any report submitted by the auditor in good faith and in the performance of any duty imposed on the auditor under this section.

(4) The Commission may at any time during or after an audit, require an auditor of a listed public company to—

- (a) submit such additional information in relation to his audit as the Commission may specify;
- (b) enlarge or extend the scope of his audit of the business and affairs of the listed public company in such manner or to such extent as the Commission may specify;
- (c) carry out any specific examination or establish any procedure in any particular case; or
- (d) submit a report including an interim report on any matter referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c), and the Commission may specify the time within which such requirements shall be complied with by the auditor.

(5) The auditor shall comply with any requirement of the Commission under subsection (4) and the listed public company shall remunerate the auditor at the rates specified by the Commission in respect of the discharge by him of all additional duties under this section.

(6) The listed public company shall provide such information and access to such information as the auditor shall require in respect of the discharge by him of all of the additional duties under this section.

Prohibition against undue influence

91. (1) A person shall not influence, coerce, mislead or authorise any person engaged in –

- (a) the preparation of the financial statements of a listed public company or any of its related companies; or
- (b) the performance of an audit of the financial statements of a listed public company or any of its related companies,

Sri Lanka Act, No. 19 of 2021*

- (i) lead to the improper conduct of business by the applicant or by any of its directors, chief executive officer or controller; or
- (ii) reflect discredit on the manner of conducting the business of the applicant; or
- (l) the Commission is of the opinion that it would be contrary to the interests of the investors to grant or renew the licence.

(2) The Commission shall not refuse to grant or renew a licence without giving the applicant an opportunity to be heard.

Minimum
requirements

96. A market intermediary shall not carry on business for which it is licensed under this Chapter, without the written consent of the Commission if it does not meet the minimum financial requirements as may be specified by the Commission or as may be provided in the rules of an exchange.

Requirement to register with the Commission

97. (1) The Commission may specify by way of rules that a person who deals with clients for and on behalf of a market intermediary to register with the Commission and for that purpose such person shall be known as a “registered person”.

(2) For the purposes of seeking registration under subsection (1), a market intermediary shall submit an application to the Commission on behalf of that person referred to in subsection (1) (hereinafter referred to as the “applicant”).

Application for registration or renewal of registration

98. (1) An application for the purpose of registration or renewal of the registration as a registered person under section 97 shall be made to the Commission in such form accompanied by such documents as may be specified by the Commission by rules together with such fee as may be prescribed.

(2) The Commission may require an applicant—

- (a) to furnish further information in connection with an application as it may specify; and
- (b) to have any information submitted in support of an application verified at the cost of the applicant in such manner and by such persons as it may specify.

(3) An application for renewal of registration under this section shall be made three months prior to the expiry of the registration.

(4) Where an application for renewal of registration is made after the expiry of its registration, the Commission may in addition to the renewal fee impose a late fee not exceeding five per centum of the registration fee as may be prescribed for each day of delay until the renewal is made.

(5) The Commission may grant or renew a registration for the purposes of this Chapter, subject to such conditions or restrictions as it thinks fit.

99. (1) Where an application is made for the grant or renewal of registration as a registered person under this Part, the Commission may refuse the application on any of the following grounds: —

Grounds for refusal to register or renew registration

- (a) the application was not made in accordance with section 98;
- (b) the applicant has failed to comply with any requirement of section 98;
- (c) any information or document that is furnished by the applicant to the Commission is false or misleading or from which there is a material omission;

- (d) the applicant is an undischarged insolvent or an undischarged bankrupt whether within or outside Sri Lanka;
- (e) execution against the applicant in respect of a judgment debt has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part;
- (f) the applicant has –
 - (i) been convicted, whether within or outside Sri Lanka of an offence involving fraud or dishonesty or of an offence the conviction for which involves a finding that he had acted fraudulently or dishonestly;

 - (iii) been convicted or compounded in respect of an offence under this Act or under any laws governing securities outside Sri Lanka; or
 - (iv) contravened any provision made under any written law whether within or outside Sri Lanka appearing to the Commission to be enacted for protecting members of the public against financial loss due to dishonesty, incompetence or malpractice by persons, concerned in the provision of financial services or the management of companies or against financial loss due to the conduct of discharged or undischarged bankrupts;
- (g) the Commission is not satisfied as to the educational or other qualification or experience of the applicant having regard to the nature of the duties to be performed for and on behalf of the market intermediary;

- (h) the Commission has reason to believe that the applicant may not be able to act in the best interests of the clients of the market intermediary having regard to his reputation, character, financial integrity and reliability;
- (i) the Commission is not satisfied as to the record of past performance or expertise of the applicant having regard to the nature of the duties to be performed for and on behalf of the market intermediary;
- (j) the Commission has reason to believe that the applicant has not acted honestly or fairly; or
- (k) the Commission is of the opinion that it would be contrary to the interests of investors to grant or renew the registration.

(2) The Commission shall not refuse to grant or renew the registration without giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard.

100. The Commission may, at any time by notice in writing to a market intermediary and the registered person, vary any condition or restriction or impose such further condition or restriction as it considers necessary for the protection of investors.

Power to vary conditions or restrictions

101. (1) A licence that has been granted under this Part shall be valid for a period of twelve months from the date of issue of the licence.

Duration of licence or registration

(2) A licence that has been renewed under this Part shall continue to be in force for a further period of twelve months or such later date as may be specified by the Commission commencing on the date upon which it would have expired but for its renewal.

(3) Where a licence is renewed for a period of more than twelve months, in terms of subsection (2), the market intermediary shall pay to the Commission the prescribed licence fee.

(4) The provisions of subsections (1) to (3) of this section shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to, and in relation to the duration of the registration granted to a registered person under this Part.

False and misleading statements to the Commission

102. (1) A person shall not, in connection with an application submitted to the Commission under this Part –

- (a) make or procure the making of a statement to the Commission which he knows or could reasonably be expected to know is false or misleading; or
- (b) omit to state any matter to the Commission where he knows or could reasonably be expected to know that because of the omission, the statement is misleading in a material respect.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.

Duty to notify the Commission

103. (1) Where a market intermediary proposes to alter material particulars already furnished or undergoes or intends to alter the particulars specified in the application for a licence or the renewal of a licence, it shall be the duty of such market intermediary to inform the Commission and obtain its prior consent before such alteration or change is effected.

(2) Where a registered person proposes to alter any particulars already furnished or intends to change or alter the status specified in the application for registration or renewal of a registration as a registered person, it shall be the duty of such registered person and the market intermediary for whom the registered person is acting for or employed, to forthwith inform the Commission of such alteration or change.

104. A person shall not act as an agent in carrying on the business of a licensed market intermediary or hold himself out as doing so unless he is duly authorised by the Commission or a person authorised by the Commission to carry on such activity.

Prohibition against holding out as an agent

105. (1) The Commission shall, cancel or suspend a licence granted to a market intermediary under this Part, where the Commission is satisfied that-

Cancellation or suspension of a licence or a registration

- (a) there exists any ground on which the Commission may refuse an application for a licence;
- (b) the market intermediary has contravened any condition or restriction in respect of its licence or any directive issued to him by the Commission under this Act; or
- (c) the market intermediary has contravened any provision of this Act or any rule binding upon him as the case may be.

(2) Before the cancellation or suspension of a licence granted to a market intermediary in terms of subsection (1) of this section, the market intermediary shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(3) Where the licence granted to a market intermediary is cancelled, it shall be the duty of the market intermediary to forthwith surrender its licence to the Commission.

(4) The cancellation of a licence by the Commission under subsection (1) shall not affect or prejudice the institution or maintenance of any action against such market intermediary under this Act.

(5) The Commission shall have the power to suspend or cancel the registration granted to a registered person under this Part –

- (a) if it transpires that there exists any ground that would disentitle him to registration;
- (b) if the registered person has contravened any condition or restriction in respect of its registration or any directive issued to him by the Commission under this Act; or
- (c) if the registered person has contravened any provision of this Act or any of the rule which are binding on him as the case may be.

(6) The provisions of subsections (2) to (4) of this section shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to, and in relation to, any suspension or cancellation as the case may be, of a registration granted to a registered person under this Part.

Trading in securities by
intermediaries

106. A market intermediary or registered person shall not –

- (a) trade in or otherwise deal in securities outside the exchange of which he is a trading participant without the prior approval of the Commission;
- (b) trade in securities in contravention of such rules of the Commission or the rules of a market institution;
- (c) effect any transaction in a margin account in a manner contrary to the requirements set out by the market institution of which he is a trading participant; or
- (d) effect any transaction by means of any manipulative, deceptive or other fraudulent device or contrivance in order to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of any securities.

Lending and borrowing of securities without the consent of the client

107. A market intermediary shall not lend or arrange for lending of any securities carried for the account of any client without the client's written consent or borrow or arrange to borrow, using the securities carried for the account of any client as collateral without the client's written consent.

108. (1) If an auditor of a market intermediary, in the ordinary course of the performance of his duties as an auditor, is of the opinion that there has been a breach of or non compliance with any provision of this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder or a breach of any rule of a market institution or any matter which may adversely affect the financial position of the market intermediary to a material extent, the auditor shall immediately submit a written report to the board of directors on the matter with a copy to—

intermediary

- (a) in the case of a contravention or non compliance with any provision of this Act, regulation, rule or directive made thereunder or any offence involving fraud or dishonesty, to the Commission;
- (b) in the case of a breach or non compliance of any of the rules of a market institution, to the relevant market institution and to the Commission; or
- (c) in any other case, which adversely affects the financial position of the market intermediary to a material extent, to the relevant market institution and to the Commission.

(2) No auditor shall be liable to be sued in any court for any report submitted by the auditor in good faith and in the performance of any duty imposed on the auditor under this section.

(3) The Commission may at any time during or after an audit, require an auditor of a market intermediary to—

- (a) submit such additional information in relation to his audit as the Commission may specify;
- (b) enlarge or extend the scope of his audit of the business and affairs of the market intermediary in such manner or to such extent as the Commission may require;

- (c) carry out any specific examination or establish any procedure in any particular case; or
- (d) submit a report or an interim report as the case may be on any matter referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c), and the Commission may specify the time within which such requirements shall be complied with by the auditor.

(4) The auditor shall comply with any requirement of the Commission under subsection (3) and the market intermediary shall remunerate the auditor at the rates specified by the Commission in respect of the discharge by him of all additional duties under this section.

(5) The market intermediary shall provide such information and access to such information as the auditor shall require in respect of the discharge by him of all of the additional duties under this section.

CHAPTER 3

PROTECTION OF CLIENTS' ASSETS

Interpretation

109. For the purposes of this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires—

“client” in relation to a market intermediary means a person on behalf of whom the market intermediary trades or from whom the market intermediary accepts instructions to deal in securities;

“money or other assets” means money received or retained by, or any other asset deposited with a market intermediary in the course of its business for which it is liable to account to its client, and any money or other assets accruing therefrom.

110. (1) A market intermediary shall, to the extent that it receives money or other assets from or on account of a client— Protection of client's assets

- (a) do so on the basis that the money or other assets shall be applied solely for such purpose as may be agreed to by the client when or before it receives the money or other assets;
- (b) shall hold money and other assets received on account of a client in trust for the benefit of such client;
- (c) shall not commingle money received on account of a client with its own funds or use such money as margin or guarantee for, or to secure any transaction of or to extend credit of any person other than the client; and
- (d) record and maintain a separate book entry for each client in accordance with the provisions of this Part or any rules that may be specified under subsection (2) in relation to that client's money or other assets.

(2) The Commission may, make rules in respect of all or any of the matters in subsection (1), including the handling of money or other assets by a market intermediary.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this section or the rules made under subsection (2), all money or other assets received from or on account of clients or deposited with a market intermediary—

- (a) shall not be available for payment of debts of the market intermediary; and
- (b) shall not be liable to be paid or taken in execution under an order or a process of any court in respect of any liability of that market intermediary.

(4) Any market intermediary who, contravenes subsection (1), subsection (3) or any rule made under subsection (2), shall commit an offence.

Rules on business conduct

111. (1) The Commission may make rules regulating the business conduct of a market intermediary or a registered person as the Commission considers necessary in the interest of client protection and for the purpose of raising professional standards of a market intermediary and a registered person.

(2) Any person who contravenes the rules made under subsection (1) commits an offence.

Duty in making recommendations

112. (1) A market intermediary or a registered person shall not make a recommendation with respect to any securities to a client where such client may reasonably be expected to rely on the recommendation, if the market intermediary or registered person does not have a reasonable basis for making the recommendation to the client.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a market intermediary or registered person does not have a reasonable basis for making a recommendation to a client unless—

- (a) he has, for the purposes of ascertaining that the recommendation is appropriate, having regard to the information possessed by him concerning the investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs of the client, given such consideration to, and conducted such analysis or investigation of the subject matter of the recommendation as is reasonable in all the circumstances; and
- (b) he has based the recommendation on the consideration, analysis or investigation referred to in paragraph (a).

113. (1) Where a market intermediary or a registered person sends a circular or other similar written communication in which he makes a recommendation, with respect to any securities, he shall include in the circular or other written communication in print not less legible than that used in the remainder of the circular or other written communication, a concise statement of the nature of any interest in the securities, or any interest in the acquisition or disposal of the securities that he or a person associated with or connected to him, has at the date on which the circular or other communication is sent.

Disclose certain interests in
securities

(2) Where a market intermediary or registered person is charged with an offence in respect of a contravention of subsection (1), it shall be a defence for the market intermediary or registered person to prove that at the time the circular or other communication was sent, he was not aware and could not reasonably be expected to have been aware —

- (a) that he had an interest in the securities, or an interest in the acquisition or disposal of the securities; or
- (b) that the person associated with or connected to him had an interest in the securities, or an interest in the acquisition or disposal of the securities as the case may be.

(3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2) -

- (a) an interest of a person in the acquisition or disposal of any securities includes any financial benefit or advantage that will or is likely to accrue directly or indirectly to the person upon or arising out of the acquisition or disposal of the securities;
- (b) without limiting the generality of paragraph (a), a person who has entered into an underwriting agreement in respect of any securities shall be deemed to have an interest in the acquisition or disposal of the securities; and

- (c) notwithstanding subsection (1) or paragraph (b) of subsection (2), a person is not connected to or associated with another person unless the person and the other person are acting jointly or otherwise acting under or in accordance with an arrangement made between them, in relation to the sending of the circular or other communication.

(4) When a market intermediary sends to a person a circular or other written communication to which subsection (1) applies, the market intermediary shall preserve a copy of the circular or other written communication for six years from the date on which the circular or other written communication is sent.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a circular or other written communication sent to a person shall, if it is signed by an officer of a market intermediary, be deemed to have been sent by the market intermediary.

(6) Any person who contravenes this section commits an offence under this Act.

Internal procedures and processes

114. A market intermediary shall establish and maintain procedures and processes for the purpose of monitoring compliance by such market intermediary and its employees, with the provisions of the Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder which will enable the market intermediary to monitor risk to its business.

Register of
intermediaries
and registered persons

115. (1) The Commission shall keep in such form and manner as it may determine, a register of market intermediaries and registered persons which shall be made available for public inspection in such manner as the Commission may determine.

(2) The register shall be in electronic form and the Commission shall update the register at all times.

(3) The register for the market intermediary and the registered person shall contain –

- (a) the name of the market intermediary or the registered person;
- (b) the business address of the market intermediary or the registered person;
- (c) the type of licence held by the market intermediary or the type of registration held by the registered person;
- (d) the date the licence was granted to the market intermediary or the date the registration was granted to the registered person;
- (e) the names of registered persons acting for or employed by the market intermediary; and
- (f) any other matter that the Commission considers appropriate.

(4) The Commission may make necessary amendments in the register with respect to a market intermediary or a registered person where the licence held by the market intermediary is cancelled or suspended or where the registration held by the registered person is cancelled or suspended under this Act.

PART IV

Trade In Unlisted Securities

116. The object and purpose of this Part shall be –

Object and purpose of this Part

- (a) to provide a platform through a recognised market operator for sale and purchase of unlisted securities in Sri Lanka to local and overseas investors in a transparent manner; and

- (b) to facilitate the disclosure of information relating to unlisted securities to local and overseas investors through a recognised market operator in a transparent manner.

ESTABLISHMENT OF A RECOGNISED MARKET OPERATOR

Establishment of a market operator 117. A person shall not act as a market operator under this Part unless such person is registered with the Commission or exempted from such registration by the Commission.

Requirement to register a market operator 118. (1) For the purposes of section 117, the Commission may upon application made by a person, register the person as a recognised market operator or exempt from such registration subject to any terms and conditions as the Commission considers necessary.

(2) The Commission may exempt a market operator from registration under section 117 having regard to the criteria specified under section 119 subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified by the Commission.

(3) The Commission may, from time to time, vary, amend or revoke any terms and conditions imposed under subsection (1).

(4) The Commission may notwithstanding the exemption granted under subsection (2), withdraw such exemption and may require such person to be registered if the Commission deems it necessary in the interests of investors.

Application for registration 119. (1) An application to be registered as a recognised market operator shall be accompanied by such documents and information and in such form as the Commission may specify by rules.

(2) An application by such person for registration under this section shall provide documents to prove that such person has experience in trades executed on a platform to the satisfaction of the Commission.

(3) An application by such person for registration under this Chapter shall provide documents to prove that the arrangements are made by such platform for the clearance and settlement of the trades executed on the platform to the satisfaction of the Commission.

CHAPTER 2

ROLE OF A RECOGNISED MARKET OPERATOR

120. The functions and duties of a recognised market operator shall be-

Functions and duties of a recognised market operator

- (a) to provide a platform for the sale and purchase of unlisted securities in Sri Lanka;
- (b) to provide information relating to unlisted securities in Sri Lanka to the local and international financial community;
- (c) to provide criteria for admission and regulatory standards of its trading members;
- (d) to comply with any directive issued by the Commission, whether of a general or specific nature; and
- (e) to provide such assistance to the Commission, or to a person acting on behalf of or with the authority of the Commission, as the Commission or such person reasonably requires.

121. Any person buying and selling securities on a platform shall execute their orders through trading members admitted by the platform.

Trading on a platform

122. The Commission may make rules or require the market operator to make rules subject to the approval of the Commission -

Rules to be made by the Commission or the market operator

- (a) to determine the type of unlisted securities that can be traded on a platform;
- (b) to determine the type of issuers who can report trades to a platform;
- (c) to determine the type of investors that may trade on the platform;
- (d) to determine the type of trading members that may trade on the platform;
- (e) for the admission of trading members on the platform;
- (f) to determine the level of disclosures required to be made by the platform; and
- (g) to determine the standard of business conduct in the sale or purchase of unlisted securities.

Cancellation of
registration

123. (1) Subject to subsection (3), where the Commission is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so in the interest of the investors or for the maintenance of an orderly and fair market, the Commission may, by notice in writing, cancel the registration of a recognised market operator with effect from a date that is specified in the notice.

(2) The grounds for the cancellation of the registration shall be stated in the notice referred to in subsection (1).

(3) Notwithstanding the cancellation under subsection (1), the Commission may permit the person to continue on or after the date on which the cancellation is to take effect, to carry on such activities affected by the cancellation as the Commission may specify in the notice for the purpose of –

- (a) closing down the operations of the recognised market operator to which the cancellation relates; or
- (b) protecting the interest of the investors.

(4) Where the Commission has granted permission to a person under subsection (3), such person shall not, by reason of its carrying on the activities in accordance with the permission, be regarded as having contravened any provision of this Act.

(5) The Commission shall not exercise its power under subsection (1) in relation to a recognised market operator unless it has given the recognised market operator an opportunity of being heard.

(6) Any cancellation of registration made under this section shall not operate so as to –

- (a) avoid or affect any agreement, transaction or arrangement entered into by the recognised market operator whether the agreement, transaction or arrangement was entered into before or where subsection (3) applies, after the cancellation of the registration under subsection (1); or
- (b) affect any right, obligation or liability arising under such agreement, transaction or arrangement.

124. (1) The Commission may from time to time review the performance of a recognised market operator under this Part.

Review of the performance of a recognised market operator

(2) The Commission may have regard to the following when reviewing the status of the recognised market operator:-

- (a) the systemic risk inherent in a platform;
- (b) the public interest;
- (c) the size and structure of the platform;
- (d) the class of unlisted securities traded on the platform; and
- (e) the nature of the investors and the participants using the platform.

(3) The Commission shall not exercise its powers under subsection (1) without giving the recognised market operator an opportunity of being heard.

Application of the provisions of the Act to unlisted
securities

125. The rules relating to unlisted securities applicable to such trading platform made by the Commission or the recognised market operator under this Part shall prevail over any other rules relating to unlisted securities.

PART V

Market Misconduct

Object and purpose of this Part

126. The object and purpose of this Part shall be to facilitate for the deterrence and the taking of enforcement action against –

- (a) all types of market manipulation including false trading, market rigging and securities fraud; and
- (b) insider trading, with a view to establishing a fair, orderly and transparent securities market.

Application of this Part

127. This Part shall apply unless specified otherwise therein-

- (a) in respect of securities-
 - (i) to acts or omissions occurring within Sri Lanka in relation to securities of any listed public company or any unlisted company that has made a public offer of securities in accordance with section 80 which is established or is carrying on business within or outside Sri Lanka;
 - (ii) to acts or omissions occurring outside Sri Lanka in relation to securities of any listed public company or any unlisted company that has made a public offer of securities in accordance with section 80 which is established or is carrying on business within Sri Lanka;

- (iii) to acts or omissions occurring in relation to any securities issued by any Government outside Sri Lanka which are traded using the facilities of an exchange licensed by the Commission; or
- (iv) to acts or omissions occurring in relation to securities traded on a platform operated by a recognised market operator; and

(b) in respect of derivatives-

- (i) to acts occurring within Sri Lanka in relation to derivatives, traded on an exchange licensed by the Commission; and
- (ii) to acts occurring outside Sri Lanka in relation to derivatives traded on an exchange licensed by the Commission.

PROHIBITED CONDUCT

128. (1) A person shall not create or cause the creation of or do anything that is intended to create –

- (a) a false or misleading appearance of active trading of securities traded on an exchange licensed by the Commission or a platform operated by a recognised market operator; or False trading and market rigging transactions

- (b) a false or misleading appearance with respect to the market for or the price of any such securities referred to in paragraph (a).

(2) A person shall not maintain, inflate or depress or cause inflation in the market price for any such securities –

- (a) by means of any purchase or sale of any security that does not involve a change in the beneficial ownership of those securities; or
- (b) by means of any fictitious transaction or device.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), a person who –

- (a) effects, takes part in, is concerned in or carries out, either directly or indirectly, any transaction of sale or purchase of any securities, being a transaction that does not involve any change in the beneficial ownership of the securities; or
- (b) makes or causes to be made an offer to buy or sell such number of securities at a specified price where he has colluded with another or caused such collusion to be made with another or knows that a person associated with him has made with him or caused to be made with him an offer to purchase the same number or substantially the same number, of the same securities at a price that is substantially the same as the first mentioned price, shall be deemed to have created a false or misleading appearance of active trading in such securities.

(4) In dealing with a contravention of subsection (1) it shall be a defence if the person establishes that the purpose or purposes for which he purchased or sold the securities was not, or did not include, the purpose of creating a false or misleading appearance with respect to the market for or the price of such securities.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (3), it is a defence for a person to establish that–

- (a) the purpose for which he did the act was not or did not include, the purpose of creating a false or misleading appearance of active trading on an exchange or a platform operated by a recognised market operator; and
- (b) he did not act recklessly, whether or not he created a false or misleading appearance of active trading on an exchange or a platform operated by a recognised market operator.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a purchase or sale of securities does not involve a change in the beneficial ownership, if a person or a person associated with such person had an interest in such securities before the purchase or sale and continues to have an interest in such securities after the purchase or sale.

(7) The reference in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) to a transaction of sale or purchase of securities includes -

- (a) the making of an offer to sell or purchase securities; and
- (b) the making of an invitation, that expressly or impliedly invites a person to offer to sell or purchase securities.

129. (1) A person shall not carry out or be involved in carrying out, either directly or indirectly, one or more transactions in securities of a company being transactions that have or are likely to have the effect of artificially-

Stock market manipulations

- (a) raising;
- (b) lowering; or
- (c) pegging, fixing, maintaining or stabilizing,

the price or volume of securities of that company traded on an exchange licensed by the Commission or a platform operated by a recognised market operator, for the purpose of inducing other persons whether or not such person is actually induced to acquire or dispose of the securities of the company or of a related company.

(2) A reference in this section to a transaction in relation to securities of a company traded on an exchange licensed by the Commission or a platform operated by a recognised market operator includes—

- (a) the making of an offer to sell or purchase such securities of the company; and
- (b) the making of an invitation, that expressly or impliedly invites a person to offer to sell or purchase such securities of the company.

False or misleading
statements

130. A person shall not make a statement, or disseminate information that is false or misleading in a material particular and which is likely to have the effect of raising, lowering, maintaining or stabilizing the market price or volume of securities traded on an exchange licensed by the Commission or a platform operated by a recognised market operator,–

- (a) without taking reasonable care to check the accuracy of the statement or information; or
- (b) if he knows or could reasonably be expected to have known that the statement or information is false or misleading in a material particular.

131. (1) A person shall not induce or attempt to induce another person to trade in securities traded on an exchange licensed by the Commission or a platform operated by a recognised market operator, -

Fraudulently inducing persons to deal in securities

- (a) by making or publishing any statement or by making any forecast that he knows to be misleading, false or deceptive;
- (b) by any dishonest concealment of material facts;
- (c) by the reckless making or publishing, dishonestly or otherwise of any statement or forecast that is misleading, false or deceptive; or
- (d) by recording or storing in, or by means of, any mechanical, electronic or other device, information that he knows to be false or misleading in a material particular.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (d) of subsection (1), it shall be a defence if the person referred to therein establishes that when the information was recorded or stored, that such person had no reasonable grounds for believing that the information would be available to any other person.

132. A person shall not directly or indirectly in connection with the subscription, purchase or sale of any securities traded on an exchange licensed by the Commission or a platform operated by a recognised market operator, -

Use of manipulative and deceptive devices

- (a) use any device, scheme or artifice to defraud;
- (b) engage in any act, practice or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person; or
- (c) make any false statement of a material fact or omit to disclose in a statement a material fact which results in making such statement false or misleading.

INSIDER TRADING

Information

133. In this Chapter unless otherwise provided, “information” includes –

- (a) information relating to listed public companies that are not sufficiently definite to warrant being made known to the public;
- (b) matters relating to the intended decisions, of a person;
- (c) matters relating to negotiations or proposals with respect to –
 - (i) commercial dealings; or
 - (ii) dealings in securities;
- (d) information relating to the financial performance of a company;
- (e) information that a person proposes to enter into or has entered into one or more transactions or agreements in relation to securities or has prepared or proposes to issue a statement relating to such securities; and
- (f) matters related to the listed public company that have been decided to be executed in the future.

Information becoming generally available

134. (1) In this Chapter, information generally available means information-

- (a) that has been published or made known in a manner that would or would tend to bring it to the attention of a reasonable person who invests or trades in securities of a kind whose price or value might be affected by such information; and

- (b) which since it was made known a reasonable period for it to be disseminated among such persons has lapsed.

(2) The information referred to in subsection (1) includes information that consists of deductions or conclusions made or drawn from such information.

135. For the purpose of this Chapter, information which has a material effect on the price or value of securities means such information which would or would tend to, on becoming generally available influence a reasonable person who invests in securities in deciding whether or not to acquire or dispose of such securities or enter into an agreement with a view to acquire or dispose of such securities.

Material effect on price or value of securities

136. For the purposes of section 137, a person is deemed to procure an act or omission to be done or omitted to be done by another person if the first named person incites, counsels, induces, encourages or directs the said act or omission by such other person.

Reference to "procure"

137. (1) For the purpose of this Part, an 'insider' means a person, whether or not such person is connected to the respective company, if that person—

Prohibited conduct of persons in possession of information not generally available

- (a) possesses information that is not generally available which on becoming generally available a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or the value of securities; and

- (b) knows or could reasonably be expected to know that the information is not generally available.

(2) An insider shall not whether as principal or agent in respect of any securities to which the information in subsection (1) relates -

- (a) sell or buy or enter into an agreement or transaction for the sale or purchase of such securities; or
- (b) procure directly or indirectly, an acquisition or disposal of or enter into an agreement or transaction with a view to the acquisition or disposal of such securities.

(3) Where trading in the securities to which the information in subsection (1) relates is permitted on a securities market of an exchange or a platform operated by a recognised market operator, the insider shall not directly or indirectly, communicate the information referred to in subsection (1) or cause such information to be communicated to another person, if the insider knows or could reasonably be expected to know that the other person would or would tend to -

- (a) acquire, dispose of or enter into an agreement with a view to the acquisition or disposal of any securities to which the information referred to in subsection (1) relates; or
- (b) procure or direct a third person to acquire, dispose of or enter into an agreement with a view to the acquisition or disposal of any securities to which the information referred to in subsection (1) relates.

138. (1) In this Chapter, a company is deemed to possess any information-

Information in possession of an officer of a company

- (a) which an officer of the company-
 - (i) possesses and which came into his possession in the course of his duties as an officer of the company; or
 - (ii) knows or could reasonably be expected to know because he is an officer of the company;
- (b) which an officer of the company possesses and which came into his possession in the course of his duties as an officer of a related company of the first mentioned company where-
 - (i) the officer is an insider by reason of being in possession of the information;
 - (ii) the officer is involved in the decision, transaction or agreement of the first mentioned company in acquiring or disposing of securities in relation to which the officer is an insider or entering into an agreement to acquire or dispose of such securities, procuring another person to acquire or dispose of such securities or enter into an agreement to do so or communicating the information in circumstances referred to in subsections (2) and (3) of section 137; or

- (iii) it is reasonable to expect that the officer would communicate the information to another officer of the first mentioned company acting in his capacity as such unless it is proved that the information was not in fact so communicated.

(2) In this section “information” refers to information which a company is deemed to possess and “insider” means a person in possession of such information.

(3) It shall be a defense for a company accused of contravening subsections (2) or (3) of section 137 by entering into a transaction or agreement if the company proves that-

- (a) the decision to enter into the transaction or agreement was taken on behalf of the company by a person or persons other than an officer of the company in possession of the information;
- (b) the company had in operation at that time arrangements that could reasonably be expected to ensure that-
 - (i) the information was not communicated to a person or one of the persons who was involved in or made the decision to enter into or be involved in the transaction or agreement;
 - (ii) no advice with respect to the decision to enter into or be involved in the transaction or agreement was given to that person by the person in possession of the information; or
 - (iii) the person in possession of the information would not be involved in the decision to enter into or be involved in the transaction or agreement; and

- (c) the information was not communicated, no such advice was given and the person in possession of the information was not involved in the decision to enter into or be involved in the transaction or agreement.

139. (1) In this Chapter, a partner of a partnership is deemed to possess any information –

Information in possession of a partner or an employee of partnership

- (a) if a partner possesses information and it came into another partner's possession in his capacity as a partner of the partnership;
- (b) if an employee of the partnership possesses such information and it came into the employee's possession in the course of his duties; or
- (c) if a partner or an employee of a partnership knows or could reasonably be expected to know any matter or thing because of another partner or employee who knows or possess the information, it is presumed, unless the contrary is proved that every partner of the partnership knows or could reasonably be expected to know that matter or thing.

(2) It shall be a defense for a partnership which is accused of entering into a transaction in contravention of subsection (2) or (3) of section 137 to prove that -

- (a) the decision to enter into the transaction or agreement was taken on behalf of the partnership by -
 - (i) a partner who was not in possession of the information; or
 - (ii) an employee of the partnership who was not in possession of the information;

- (b) the partnership had in existence at that time agreements that could reasonably be expected to ensure that-
 - (i) the information was not communicated to the partner or employee who was or were involved in or made to enter into the transaction or agreement in question;
 - (ii) no advice with respect to the decision to enter into the transaction or agreement was tendered to that partner or employee by a partner or an employee who was in possession of the information; or
 - (iii) the partner or employee in possession of the information would not be involved in the decision to enter into or be involved in the transaction or agreement; and
- (c) the information was not communicated, no advice was given and the partner or employee in possession of the information was not involved in the decision to enter into or be involved in the transaction or agreement.

(3) A partner of a partnership does not contravene subsection (2) of section 137 by entering into the transaction or agreement referred to in that subsection otherwise than on behalf of the partnership merely because the partner is deemed to possess information that is in possession of another partner or employee of the partnership.

(4) In this section “information” refers to information which a partnership is deemed to possess and where a partner or an employee of the partnership in possession of that information is an insider.

140. (1) Subsection (2) of section 137 shall not apply in respect of –

Exceptions in relation to underwriting and sub underwriting

- (a) the entering into of an underwriting agreement or a sub underwriting agreement; or
- (b) the acquisition of securities under an obligation to do so in an agreement referred to in paragraph (a).

(2) Subsection (3) of section 137 shall not apply in respect of the communication of information in relation to securities to a person solely for the purpose of procuring the person–

- (a) to enter into an underwriting agreement or a sub underwriting agreement in relation to such securities; or
- (b) to acquire such securities under an obligation to do so in an agreement referred to in paragraph (a).

141. (1) Section 137 shall not apply to an acquisition or disposal of securities or the communication of information that is carried out under any other written law relating to schemes of arrangement, reconstruction and takeover of companies.

Exceptions in relation to schemes of arrangement, reconstruction and takeover of companies

(2) Subsection (2) of section 137 shall not apply to a clearing house which acquires or disposes of securities for the purpose of settlement of a market contract or in relation to any proceedings or other action relating to the settlement of a market contract where the acquisition or disposal of securities is made in accordance with the rules of a licensed clearing house.

(3) Subsection (2) of section 137 shall not apply to an exchange or a central depository in relation to a sale or purchase of securities where the exchange or central depository acts on an instruction from a licensed clearing house.

Exception for a company with knowledge

142. (1) A company does not contravene subsection (2) of section 137 by entering into a transaction or an agreement in relation to securities other than the securities of such company merely because the company is aware that it proposes to enter into or has previously entered into one or more transactions or agreements in relation to those securities.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a company does not contravene subsection (2) of section 137 by entering into a transaction or an agreement in relation to securities other than the securities of such company because an officer of the company is aware that it proposes to enter into or has previously entered into one or more transactions or agreements in relation to those securities.

(3) Subsection (2) shall not apply unless the officer of the company becomes aware of the matter referred to in that subsection in the course of his duties.

(4) Subject to subsection (5) a person does not contravene subsection (2) of section 137 by entering into a transaction or an agreement on behalf of a company in relation to securities other than the securities of such company merely because the person is aware that the company proposes to enter into or has previously entered into one or more transactions or agreements in relation to those securities.

(5) Subsection (4) shall not apply unless the person becomes aware of the matters referred to that subsection in the course of his duties as an officer of the first mentioned company or in the course of acting as an agent of the first mentioned company.

Exception in
individual

143. An individual does not contravene subsection (2) of section 137 by entering into a transaction or an agreement in relation to securities merely because he is aware that he proposes to enter into or has previously entered into one or more transactions or agreements in relation to those securities.

144. (1) A market intermediary who carries on the business of buying and selling of securities on behalf of investors or its representative shall not contravene subsection (2) of section 137 by entering into a transaction or an agreement as an agent for another person, being a transaction or an agreement entered into on the securities market of an exchange if –

transaction by

- (a) the transaction or agreement is entered into under a specific instruction by the other person and was not solicited by a market intermediary or its representative carrying on the business of buying and selling of securities;
- (b) the market intermediary carrying on the business of buying and selling of securities or its representative has not given any advice to the other person in relation to the transaction or agreement or otherwise sought to procure the other person's instructions to enter into the transaction or agreement; and
- (c) the other person is not associated with the market intermediary or its representatives carrying on the business of buying and selling of securities.

(2) Nothing in this section shall affect the responsibility of the market intermediary in relation to subsection (1) of this section with respect to the business of buying and selling of securities in his capacity as the principal.

145. Subsection (2) of section 137 shall not apply in respect of the redemption by a trustee under a trust deed relating to a collective investment scheme in accordance with a buyback covenant contained or deemed to be contained in the trust deed at a price that is required by the trust deed to be calculated, so far as is reasonably practicable, by reference to the underlying value of the assets less any liabilities of the collective investment scheme to which the units of the collective investment scheme relates and less any reasonable charge for purchasing the units of the collective investment scheme.

collective investment schemes

Parity of information
defence

146. (1) A person does not contravene subsection (2) of section 137 if-

- (a) the other party to the transaction or agreement knew, or could reasonably have known, of the information before entering into the transaction or agreement; and
- (b) that person acquires or disposes of such securities on such terms and in such circumstances, that –
 - (i) he does not obtain any gain or avoid any loss, including an unrealized gain or unrealized avoidance of loss in price or value of the securities, as the case may be, for himself or any other person by reason of the effect that the information is likely to have when it becomes generally available; and
 - (ii) the purpose of the acquisition or disposal of the securities does not include any purpose of securing a gain or avoiding a loss, as the case may be, for himself or any other person by reason of the effect that the information is likely to have when it becomes generally available.

(2) It shall be a defense for a person accused of a contravention of subsection (3) of section 137 to prove -

- (a) that the information came into the possession of the person so communicating the information solely as a result of it being made known in a manner likely to make it generally available pursuant to section 134; or
- (b) that the other party knew or could reasonably be expected to have known the information before the information was communicated.

147. (1) A person who contravenes sections 128, 129, 130, 131, 132 or subsections (2) and (3) of section 137 commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine of not less than ten million rupees or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Offences under this Part and punishment

(2) Any person who abets or conspires to commit an offence under subsection (1), commits an offence and shall be punishable in the same manner as provided for in subsection (1).

148. Every offence committed under this Part shall be triable upon indictment by the High Court.

Jurisdiction of the Courts

149. Every prosecution in respect of an offence under this Part shall be instituted and conducted by the Attorney General.

Prosecution of offences under
this Part

150. In a prosecution or in an action made by the Commission under section 152 against any person for an offence under section 137, it is not necessary for the prosecution or the Commission to prove the non-existence of facts or circumstances which, if existed would by virtue of sections 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145 and 146 preclude the act from constituting a contravention of subsections (2) and (3) of section 137.

Prosecution need not disprove the defences

151. (1) A person who suffers loss or damage by reason of or by relying on the conduct of another person who has contravened sections 128, 129, 130, 131, 132 or subsections (2) and (3) of section 137 under this Part may recover the amount of loss or damage by instituting an action in the court against the other person whether or not the other person has been charged with an offence in respect of the contravention or whether or not a contravention has been proved in a prosecution.

Right of the aggrieved party to claim damages

(2) This section shall not affect any liability under any other law in respect of the conduct constituting the contravention.

Right of the Commission to recover damages and seek civil penalties

152. (1) Whenever it appears to the Commission that any person has contravened sections 128, 129, 130, 131, 132 or subsections (2) and (3) of section 137 and where the Commission considers it necessary having taken into consideration the nature and manner of the contravention, the impact it has on the market and the extent of the loss caused to any investor, the Commission may institute Civil Proceedings in the court against that person.

(2) In a proceeding instituted by the Commission under subsection (1), the court may if it is satisfied on a balance of probabilities, that the person has contravened the provisions of sections 128, 129, 130, 131, 132 or subsections (2) and (3) of section 137, make an order against that person-

- (a) to pay to the Commission an amount equal to three times the gross amount of the pecuniary gain made or loss avoided by such person; and
- (b) for the payment of a civil penalty as the court considers appropriate having regard to the severity or gravity of the contravention, being an amount not less than ten million rupees and not exceeding one hundred million rupees.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, the court shall exercise jurisdiction in respect of the matters set out in subsection (2), and proceedings under subsection (2) shall be instituted by way of a plaint filed by the Commission and the provisions contained in the Civil Procedure Code (Chapter 101) shall apply mutatis mutandis regarding regular actions instituted by way of a plaint.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Commission from entering into an agreement with any person to pay with or without admission of liability an amount equal to three times the gross amount of the pecuniary gain made or the loss avoided by such person as determined by the Commission.

(5) An amount recovered by the Commission in an action under subsection (1) or in terms of the agreement referred to in subsection (4), each one third of that amount shall be -

- (a) applied to reimburse the Commission for all costs of the investigation and proceedings in respect of the contravention;
- (b) applied to compensate persons who have suffered loss or damage as a result of the contravention; and
- (c) credited to the Compensation Fund:

Provided that, if the Commission considers that it is not practicable to compensate the persons referred to in paragraph (b) in view of the amount of any potential distribution to each person or the difficulty of ascertaining or notifying the persons to whom it is appropriate to compensate, as the case may be, the Commission may decide not to distribute to the persons referred to in paragraph (b) and credit such sums to the Compensation Fund of the Commission.

(6) If the person fails to pay the civil penalty imposed on him within the time specified in the order made by the court referred to in subsection (2) or the sum to be paid in terms of the agreement as referred to in subsection (4), the Commission may recover the civil penalty or such sum as the case may be, as if it were a judgment debt owing to the Commission.

153. An action under section 152 shall not be commenced after the expiration of six years from the date of the contravention of any of the provisions in this Part. Prescription

PART VI

Finance

Object and purpose of this Part

154. The object and purpose of this Part shall be-

- (a) to establish various funds for the proper functioning of the Commission; and
- (b) to establish a fund to provide limited compensation to investors who have no other remedy.

CHAPTER 1

FUNDS OF THE COMMISSION

Levy of a Cess

155. (1) There shall be charged, levied and paid a cess at such rates as may be prescribed by the Minister by regulations published in the Gazette on every purchase and sale of securities recorded in an exchange or notified to it under its rules by both the purchaser and the seller. Different rates may be prescribed in respect of different classes of securities.

(2) The cess imposed under this section shall be in addition to any other tax or cess levied under any other law.

Cess Fund

156. (1) There shall be established a fund called the “Cess Fund” to be administered by the Commission to which shall be credited the proceeds of the cess imposed under section 155.

(2) The monies lying to the credit of the Cess Fund shall only be utilized for the purpose of –

- (a) developing the securities market;
- (b) enhancing monies lying to the credit of the Compensation Fund or the Fund of the Commission established under this Part;

- (c) meeting all expenditure incurred by the Commission in the management, administration, and operation of the Commission in the exercise, performance and discharge of its duties and functions;
- (d) granting loans for housing, educational, health and transport purposes to the staff of the Commission as the Commission deems appropriate;
- (e) to make contributions to pension and provident funds and other schemes established for the benefit of the Director General and its officers and servants and their dependents and nominees; and
- (f) to defray the costs of study, in Sri Lanka or abroad of the officers and servants of the Commission who are of proven merit as determined by the Commission.

(3) Any excess money lying to the credit of the Cess Fund may be invested by the Commission in such manner as may be determined by the Commission for the purpose of developing the Cess Fund.

157. (1) The Commission shall have its own Fund.

Fund of the Commission

(2) There shall be paid into the Fund –

- (a) all such sums of money as may be voted upon from time to time by Parliament for the use of the Commission;
- (b) all sums of money as may be charged as costs incurred in carrying out all inspections under the provisions of this Act or paid as fees under the provisions of this Act;

Sri Lanka Act, No. 19 of 2021*

- (c) such sums of money that are recovered, as reimbursements for costs incurred in carrying out investigations and institution of legal proceedings in respect of contraventions under the provisions of this Act;
- (d) all such sums of money as may be received by the Commission by way of donations, gifts or grants from the Consolidated Fund, the Government or a foreign Government, State Agencies and from multilateral and bilateral agencies whether within or outside Sri Lanka; and
- (e) such sums of money as may be credited from the Cess Fund.

(3) There shall be paid out of the Fund all such sums of money required to defray the expenditure incurred by the Commission in the exercise, discharge and performance of its powers, functions and duties.

(4) Monies belonging to the Fund of the Commission may be invested by the Commission in such manner as may be determined by the Commission.

CHAPTER 2

FUND TO PROVIDE COMPENSATION TO INVESTORS

Fund

158. (1) There shall be established a fund called the “Compensation Fund,” by the Commission for the purpose of granting limited compensation to any investor who suffers pecuniary loss as a result of any licensed stock broker or stock dealer being found by the Commission as being incapable of meeting its contractual obligations.

(2) The Compensation Fund shall consist of -

- (a) such sums of money as may be voted upon by Parliament;

- (b) such sums of money as may be credited to the fund under the provisions of this Act; and
- (c) such sums of money as may be credited from the Cess Fund as approved by the Commission.

(3) Monies belonging to the Compensation Fund may be invested by the Commission in such manner as may be determined by the Commission.

159. (1) The Commission shall appoint from amongst the members of the Commission, three members who shall comprise the Compensation Committee (hereinafter referred to as the “Committee”) of the Commission.

Appointment of a Compensation Committee

(2) The Committee appointed under subsection (1) shall be responsible for assessing and awarding compensation in respect of any application made under section 162 and the decision of such Committee on any such assessment or award shall be final and conclusive for the purpose of this Act.

160. (1) Any investor who has suffered pecuniary loss as a result of any licensed stock broker or stock dealer being found incapable of meeting his contractual obligation towards such investor may make an application to the Committee in the specified form claiming compensation from the Compensation Fund.

Application for compensation

(2) The Committee may from time to time, require an applicant to produce any document or other evidence in support of the claim of the applicant for compensation. Where the applicant fails to comply with such request, the Committee may disallow the claim of the applicant.

(3) If at any time the Committee considers it necessary so to do, it may hold an inquiry into the claim of the applicant and shall by notice in writing, inform the applicant to be present on such date, and at such time and place as may be specified in the notice. Where the applicant fails to appear for such inquiry on the date set out in the notice, the Committee may disallow the claim of the applicant.

161. (1) The Committee may, after examination of the documents and other evidence produced in support of the claim by an applicant or in any case where an inquiry was held on the conclusion of such inquiry allow or disallow such claim for compensation.

(2) Where the Committee allows any claim it shall make an assessment of the limited compensation payable and shall make an award in relation thereto. Notice of such award shall be given in writing to the applicant.

CHAPTER 3

FINANCIAL YEAR AND AUDIT OF ACCOUNTS

Financial Year

162. The financial year of the Commission shall be the period of twelve months commencing on the first day of January each year.

Audit of Accounts

163. (1) The Commission shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept of the income and expenditure, assets and liabilities and all other transactions of the Commission.

(2) The provisions of Article 154 of the Constitution relating to the audit of accounts of public corporations shall apply to the audit of the accounts of the Commission.

PART VII

General

Object and purpose of this Part

164. The object and purpose of this Part shall be to ensure effective implementation of provisions in this Act relating to production of documents, disclosure of information, establishment of a Complaints Resolution Committee, conducting inquiries and investigations, sharing of information and the protection of whistleblowers.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO IMPLEMENTATION

165. (1) The Commission or a person authorised by the Commission may by notice in writing require any person within such period as specified in the notice to furnish any information or produce any document or electronic record (other than any information or document which is prohibited from being disclosed or produced under any law relating to the imposition and recovery of any tax) as specified in such notice and as the Commission may consider necessary for the proper exercise of its powers or the discharge of its functions under this Act.

Production of documents and disclosure of information

(2) It shall be the duty of any person who receives a notice under subsection (1) to comply with the requirements of such notice within the period specified therein and, where in compliance with such notice such person discloses any information or produces any document or electronic record which he is prohibited from doing under any law, such disclosure or production shall notwithstanding anything to the contrary in such law not be deemed to be a contravention of the provisions of such law.

(3) Any information furnished or the contents of a document or an electronic record produced in compliance with a notice issued under this section shall not be published or communicated by the Commission to any other person except—

- (a) by an order of court; or
- (b) in the course of the discharge of the functions of the Commission; or
- (c) with the consent of the person furnishing such information, document or electronic record.

(4) The consent under paragraph (c) of subsection (3) is not required when the person furnishing the information, document or electronic record is being investigated by the Commission for a breach of any provision of this Act or any regulation, rule or directive made thereunder.

Inquiries and investigations

166. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, the Commission or any person duly authorised by the Commission, may hold inquiries or carry out investigations as it may consider necessary or expedient for the exercise, performance and discharge of the powers, duties and functions of the Commission under this Act.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Commission or any person authorised by the Commission may, summon and call upon any person to appear before it or him to give evidence or to produce any book or document in the possession or control of such person as are required for the purpose of such investigation or inquiry, where the Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that—

- (a) the transactions in securities are being dealt with in a manner detrimental to investors or the securities market by any person; or
- (b) any market institution, market intermediary, investor or any other person has violated any of the provisions of this Act, regulations or the rules made thereunder or the directives issued by the Commission.

(3) Any person summoned or called upon to appear before the Commission or any person duly authorised by the Commission under subsection (2) may be examined orally and any statement made by the person so examined may be in writing. Every such statement in writing shall be signed by the person so examined provided that prior to signing the same, such person shall be required to read such statement or if he does not understand the language in which it is written it shall be interpreted to him in a language he understands and he shall be at liberty to explain or add to such statement.

(4) Every person who fails to appear before the Commission or the person authorised, when required to do so under subsection (2) or who refuses to answer any question put to him by the Commission or a person duly authorised by the Commission or any person who refuses to produce or allow the Commission or any person duly authorised to take copies of any book, document or electronic record in his possession or control when required to do so or knowingly gives any false answer to any question put to him by the Commission or a person duly authorised by the Commission commits an offence.

(5) (a) For the purpose of carrying out an inquiry or investigation under subsection (1), the Commission may authorise in writing any officer and any expert recognised under the Computer Crimes Act, No. 24 of 2007, as may be required to enter at all reasonable hours of the day any premises of a market institution or market intermediary or listed public company to inspect and take copies of any document or electronic record or take into possession any electronic device required to be kept under this Act or under any regulation or rule or directive made thereunder or any other law in respect of such business and where the Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that such information may be required in discharging its duties under the Act, to access their computer systems to collect evidence.

(b) For the purpose of carrying out an inquiry or an investigation under subsection (1), it shall be lawful for the Commission or any person authorised by the Commission upon an order issued by Magistrate's court to have access to any other premises not specified in paragraph (a) and inspect any property, book, document, article, thing or electronic record or device or otherwise in any form whatsoever and seize or take possession of the copies of such book, document, article, thing or electronic record or otherwise in any form whatsoever provided it is deemed by such authorised persons to be material evidence for a successful investigation or inquiry under subsection (1).

(6) Every authorised officer under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be a peace officer within the meaning and for the purposes of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979.

(7) The provisions of the Computer Crimes Act, No. 24 of 2007 shall mutatis mutandis apply in carrying out an inquiry or investigation under subsection (5) or any other section in this Act relating to electronic records or documents.

(8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law where the Commission on a consideration of material collected in the course of an investigation or inquiry or both an inquiry and investigation as the case may be is satisfied that any person has committed an offence under this Act other than an offence under Part V, it may authorise the Director General to initiate criminal proceedings against such person or to take any other enforcement action as provided for under this Act.

(9) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law the Commission may if it deems appropriate forward the material collected and received under this Part to the Attorney General or any other authority to take any appropriate action under any other written law.

Issue of freezing
orders

167. (1) On reasonable suspicion of a contravention of any provision of this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder, the Commission may, at any time where an inquiry is being carried out or a person is being investigated in terms of section 165, issue a directive (hereinafter referred to as a “freezing order”)-

- (a) prohibiting a person from disposing assets of such person or any part thereof which is related to the matter under inquiry or investigation; or
- (b) prohibiting a person from entering into any transaction or a class of transactions as may be determined by the Commission.

(2) A freezing order made under subsection (1) shall not be in force for a period exceeding seven market days from the date of issue of such order.

(3) The Commission after issuing a freezing order under subsection (1), shall within the period during which the freezing order is in force, make an application to court seeking confirmation of such freezing order and also if circumstances so necessitates, request an extension thereto as required after giving the aggrieved person an opportunity of being heard.

(4) Where the court is satisfied that there are sufficient reasons for issuance of such freezing order, the court may confirm the freezing order and if it is satisfied that there are sufficient reasons for extension thereof may, grant extensions for such periods as it considers appropriate.

(5) On an application made by the Commission to court in terms of subsection (3), the court shall make an appropriate order in respect of the management of the asset under a freezing order.

168. (1) The Commission shall establish a Complaints Resolution Committee to hear complaints by any person relating to the professional misconduct or the breach of any provision of this Act, regulations, rules made thereunder or directives issued on a market institution, market intermediary, listed public company or a registered person or any other person who comes under the regulatory purview of the Commission.

Inquiry by Complaints Resolution
Committee

(2) The Commission or any person duly authorised by the Commission may hold such inquiries as it or he may consider necessary or expedient for the exercise, performance and discharge of the powers, duties and functions of the Commission under this Act and for such purpose summon and call upon any person to appear before the Complaints Resolution Committee to give evidence or to produce any books or documents in the possession or control of such person as are required for the purpose of such inquiries.

(3) The Commission shall establish appropriate processes and procedures for handling such complaints, and all matters related thereto by rules.

(4) The Complaints Resolution Committee may on receipt of any written complaint made by a person, examine the evidence produced to find whether any provision of this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder or any rules of a market institution has been contravened.

(5) Where the Committee finds that a market institution, market intermediary, listed public company or registered person has contravened a provision under this Act, regulation, rule or directive issued thereunder or rules of a market institution, the Complaints Resolution Committee shall convey such finding with a recommendation to the Commission and the Commission shall have the discretion to either give effect to such recommendation or take any other action as it may deem expedient.

(6) The Commission shall not take any action under this section without affording such market institution, market intermediary, listed public company or registered person an opportunity of being heard.

Supplementary Service Providers

169. (1) The Commission shall be entitled to seek information, clarification or explanation from supplementary service providers in relation to professional services carried out in respect of a market institution, market intermediary or listed public company or an unlisted company which has made a public offer of securities in accordance with section 81.

(2) Where the Commission is of the view that the services rendered in terms of subsection (1) is likely to cause harm to the interest of investors, the Commission may issue a directive to such supplementary service provider to take corrective action as may be determined by the Commission.

(3) The Commission may make guidelines or rules to provide for the duties and obligations of supplementary service providers where the Commission considers it necessary.

170. The Commission may enter into agreements or memoranda of understanding with such other organisations in connection with the sharing of information on regulatory functions relating to securities and investors in securities markets.

Implementation of agreements or memoranda of understanding

171. (1) The Commission may on its own motion or upon an order issued by a competent court of law-

Sharing of information and cooperation

- (a) permit a police officer or any public officer to have access to and inspect any property, book, document, article, thing or electronic record or otherwise in any form whatsoever which has been produced before, seized, detained or taken possession of by the Commission under this Act; or
- (b) provide to a police officer or any public officer a copy of any book, document or electronic record or otherwise in any form whatsoever seized, detained or taken possession of by an investigating officer or by any officer of the Commission in the course of any inspection carried out by the Commission in the exercise of its powers or in the discharge of his duties in respect of any person.

(2) The Commission may, where it deems necessary, enter into regulatory arrangements to cooperate with any domestic or foreign supervisory authority which may include –

- (a) obtaining any information or document or electronic record from any domestic or foreign supervisory authority; and
- (b) share any information or document or electronic record with any domestic or foreign supervisory authority.

(3) The Commission may, upon receiving a written request from a foreign supervisory authority for assistance in respect of any regulatory matter which the foreign supervisory authority enforces or administers, provide such assistance to such foreign supervisory authority as the Commission deems fit for the purpose.

(4) In determining whether to render assistance under subsection (3), the Commission shall have regard to-

- (a) whether the foreign supervisory authority shall pay the Commission any cost and expenses incurred for providing the foreign supervisory authority with the assistance; and
- (b) whether the foreign supervisory authority shall be able and willing to provide reciprocal assistance in response to a comparable request for assistance from the Commission.

(5) In this section –

“domestic supervisory authority” means the Central Bank of Sri Lanka established under the Monetary Law Act, Registrar General of Companies appointed under the Companies Act, No. 7 of 2007, the Police and any other regulatory authority under any written law;

“foreign supervisory authority” means a foreign authority which exercises functions corresponding to the functions of the Commission under this Act or any person or international organisation outside Sri Lanka exercising regulatory functions and in respect of which the Commission considers desirable and necessary in the interest of the public to enter into such arrangement or to render such assistance; and “Public Officer” shall have the meaning assigned to that expression by Article 170 of the Constitution.

172. (1) An employer shall not discharge, terminate, demote or cause harassment to a person in employment on account of having provided information to the Commission concerning violations or potential violations of this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder or any rule of a market institution.

Whistleblower protection

(2) Any employer who retaliates against such person for providing information to the Commission in terms of subsection (1) may be subjected to such administrative penalty as may be determined by the Commission by rules, after affording such person an opportunity of being heard.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a “person in employment” includes a director, partner, chief executive officer, chief financial officer, company secretary, internal auditor or any other employee.

(4) The Commission may grant a reward in terms of rules made in that regard, to a whistleblower who is the first to provide such information which leads to the successful prosecution or any other sanction by the Commission against a person for a contravention of the provisions of this Act.

173. The Minister may, from time to time, request the Commission in writing to furnish to him in such form as he may require returns, accounts and other information with respect to the work of the Commission and the Commission may furnish such information other than information deemed confidential by the Commission, on the grounds that providing such information –

- (a) would cause grave prejudice to an ongoing investigation under the Act;
- (b) would cause grave prejudice to the prevention or detection of any offence under the Act; or
- (c) expose the identity of a confidential source of information in relation to any inquiries or investigations that are being conducted by the Commission under the Act.

Protection for action taken under the Act

174. (1) No suit or prosecution shall be instituted against any member of the Commission or against any officer of the Commission for any acts done or purported to be done or omitted to be done in good faith under this Act or on the direction of the Commission.

(2) Any expense incurred by the Commission in any suit or prosecution brought by or against it before any court shall be paid out of the Fund of the Commission and any cost paid to or recovered by the Commission in any such suit or prosecution shall be credited to such fund of the Commission.

(3) Any expenses incurred by a person referred to in subsection (1) in any suit or prosecution brought against him before any court in respect of any act which is done or purported to be done by him under this Act or on the direction of the Commission shall, if the court holds that such act was done in good faith be paid out of the Fund of the Commission unless such expenses are recovered by him in such suit or prosecution.

CHAPTER 2

any book, document or electronic record or accounts required to be kept or maintained under this Act, regulations, rules or directives made thereunder with intent to defraud any person, or to prevent, delay or obstruct the exercise of any power under this Act, commits an offence.

(2) Any person who abets or conspires to commit an offence as stated in subsection (1) hereof, commits an offence and shall be punishable in the same manner as punishable for an offence under subsection (1).

(3) All offences under this Act other than offences in Part V shall be triable in the Magistrate's court and any person who is found guilty of an offence under this Act for which no penalty is expressly provided for under this Act shall be liable on conviction after summary trial to a fine not less than ten million rupees and not exceeding one hundred million rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a period not exceeding ten years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) Where any offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate, any person who is at the time of the commission of the offence, a director, manager or other similar officer of the body corporate shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence unless he proves that such offence was committed without his knowledge or connivance or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of that offence as he ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of his functions and all the circumstances of the case.

Acts applicable
process

176. (1) The Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 shall be applicable in the conduct of all prosecutions made under this Act and except for offences under Part V, proceedings on behalf of the Commission shall be instituted by the Director-General.

(2) In prosecutions and in civil actions under this Act, the provisions of the Electronic Transactions Act, No. 19 of 2006 shall apply to and in relation to the admissibility of evidence of electronic records or other documents.

177. Other than offences listed in Part V of this Act, the Commission may having regard to the circumstances in which the offence under this Act was committed, compound such offence for a sum of money not exceeding one half of the maximum fine imposable for such offence and all such sums of money received by the Commission in the compounding of an offence under this section shall be credited to the Compensation Fund of the Commission.

Compounding of offences

178. (1) Except in relation to offences under Part V, if any person –

Power of the
impose administrative sanctions

- (a) contravenes any provision of this Act or commits a breach of any regulation or rule made thereunder;
- (b) contravenes or fails to comply with any condition or restriction of a licence or registration granted under this Act;
- (c) fails to comply with any provision of the rules of a market institution; or
- (d) fails to comply with any written notice, guideline, directive or condition imposed by the Commission, the Commission may, having regard to the nature and manner of the contravention, non-compliance or breach and the impact of such contravention, non-compliance or breach on the market referred to in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subsection (1), take any one or more of the following administrative actions: -

- (i) direct the person who has committed the contravention, non-compliance or breach to comply, observe, enforce or give effect to such provisions, regulations, rules, written notice, condition, directive or guideline;

- (ii) impose a penalty on the person who has committed the contravention, non-compliance or breach, in proportion to the severity or gravity of the contravention, non-compliance or breach and such penalty in any event shall not exceed fifty million rupees;
- (iii) reprimand the person who has committed the contravention, non-compliance or breach;
- (iv) require the person who has committed the contravention, non-compliance or breach to take such steps as the Commission may direct to remedy the contravention, non-compliance or breach to mitigate the effect of such contravention, non-compliance or breach, including making restitution to any other person aggrieved by the contravention, non-compliance or breach;
- (v) in the case of a promoter or a director of a listed public company, in addition to the actions that may be taken under paragraphs (i) to (iv), the Commission may impose a moratorium on or prohibit any trading of or any dealing in, the listed public company's securities or in any other securities which the Commission thinks fit, by the promoter or director or any person connected with the promoter or director.

(2) The Commission shall not take any action under subsection (1) without giving the person in contravention, non-compliance or breach an opportunity of being heard.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (iv) of subsection (1) in determining whether or not restitution is to be made by a person in contravention, non-compliance or breach, the Commission shall have regard to—

- (a) the profits that have accrued to such person in contravention, non-compliance or breach; or

- (b) whether one or more persons have suffered loss or been otherwise adversely affected as a result of the contravention, non-compliance or breach.

(4) Where the Commission takes an action under subsection (1) against any person under the rules of a market institution the Commission shall notify the market institution of the action taken by the Commission.

(5) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Commission from—
