By order of the Public Service Commission,

M. A. B. DAYA SENARATH,
Secretary,
Public Service Commission.

2nd of November 2018.

Section 13.3(b) of the Service Minute of the Sri Lanka Administrative Service is amended as follows :

13.3 (b) Method of promotion :

An officer who completes the above qualifications will be promoted to the Special Grade by the Public Service Commission according to vacancies available as at the 1st of July and the 1st of January every year :

Notes

1. Only a number of officers in Grade I who have completed the qualifications in 13.3(a) not exceeding the aggregate of both the number of vacancies and a quantum of 25% of such vacancies will be called for the interview according to the seniority of such officers as at the date on which the vacancies are taken into account.
2. The Board of Interview will examine only the basic qualifications and seniority of the officers who are called for the interview.

3. The Public Service Commission will promote a number of officers equivalent to the number of vacancies existed in the Special Grade according to the order of seniority of officers in Grade I to the Special Grade as at the date on which the vacancies are taken into account on the recommendations made by the Board of Interview constituting three members appointed by the Public Service Commission.
