Surveyors' Institute of Sri Lanka (Incorporation) Act, No. 22 of 1982

Enacted on 21st May, 1982
L. D.—C. 25/81

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE SURVEYORS' INSTITUTE OF SRI LANKA

WHEREAS an Institute called and known as "The Surveyors' Institute of Sri Lanka" has heretofore been established for the purpose of effectually carrying out and transacting all matters connected with the said Institute according to the rules agreed to by its members:

And whereas the said Institute has heretofore successfully fully carried out its objects and has applied to be incorporated, and it will be for the public advantage to grant the application:

BE it therefore enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Surveyors' Institute of Sri Lanka (Incorporation) Act, No. 22 of 1982.

2. From and after the date of commencement of this Act, such and so many persons as now are corporate members of the Surveyors' Institute of Sri Lanka (hereinafter referred to as "the Institute") or shall hereafter be admitted corporate members of the Corporation hereby constituted, (so long as they continue to be corporate members) shall be and become a body corporate with perpetual succession under the style and name of "The Surveyors' Institute of Sri Lanka" (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") and by that name may sue and be sued in all courts, with full power and authority to have and to use a common seal and to change and alter the same at its will and pleasure.

3. Membership of the Corporation shall be restricted to—

- any person holding a licence granted by the Surveyor General to practise as a land surveyor or as a leveller or as a surveyor and leveller; and
- any person who is for the time being in the service of the Survey Department and holding a post mentioned in paragraph 9 of Schedule A to the Surveyors Ordinance.

Act No. 22 of 1982

4. The general objects for which the Corporation is constituted are hereby declared to be—

General objects of the Corporation.

- (a) to promote and advance the science and practice of land surveying in all its branches in Sri Lanka;
- (b) to promote and encourage professional conduct among members, to regulate professional activities and to assist in maintaining high standards in the general conduct of its members;
- (c) to maintain correct and uniform practice and discipline among members and to take disciplinary action when necessary;
- (d) to provide opportunities for the acquisition and diffusion of knowledge in respect of land surveying and allied subjects, and for that purpose to establish and maintain libraries and provide other facilities;
- (e) to establish, regulate and maintain pension and benefit schemes and other financial arrangements for its members and their dependants;
- (f) to provide means for the amicable settlement of professional differences by arbitration or otherwise and to nominate arbitrators;
- (g) to protect and promote the interests of the members and that of the public in relation to the profession of land surveying;
- (h) to conduct examinations qualifying for membership of the Corporation;
- (i) to conduct examinations to assess the eligibility of candidates for admission to the various grades of membership;
- (j) to consider, represent and express the opinion of the members of the Corporation, and to collect and circulate information relating to legislative and other measures affecting surveyors and land surveying, and to suggest amendments to any law relating to surveyors and land surveying.

Surveyors' Institute of Sri Lanka (Incorporation) Bill
Act No. 22 of 1982

- (k) to foster co-ordination with similar professional institutes and associations in Sri Lanka and other countries in furthering the objects of the Corporation;
- (l) generally to protect and promote the interests, welfare, rights and privileges of the land surveying profession in Sri Lanka; and
- (m) to do all such other acts and things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

5. The Corporation shall have the power to do, perform and execute all such acts, matters, and things whatsoever as are necessary or desirable for the promotion or furtherance of the objects of the Corporation or any one of them, including the power to open, operate and close bank accounts, to borrow or raise moneys with or without security, to seek and obtain grants and other assistance from the State or any other bodies or organisations, to invest its funds, and to engage, employ and dismiss personnel required for the carrying out of the objects of the Corporation.

General powers of the Corporation.

6. (1) The affairs of the Corporation shall, subject to the rules in force for the time being of the Corporation, be administered by a Council consisting of the office-bearers and such other persons as may be provided for in such rules and elected or nominated in accordance therewith.

Management of the affairs of the Corporation.

(2) The first Council of the Corporation shall be the Council of the Institute holding office at the time of the coming into operation of this Act.

7. (1) It shall be lawful for the Corporation, from time to time, at any general meeting and by the majority of two-thirds of the members present and qualified to vote, to make rules, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, for the management of the affairs of the Corporation and the accomplishment of its objects. Such rules when made may, at a like meeting and in like manner, be altered, added to, amended or rescinded.

Rules of the Corporation.

(2) The rules of the Institute in force at the time of the coming into operation of this Act shall be deemed to be rules of the Corporation made under this section and may be altered, added to, amended, rescinded or replaced by rules made under this Act.

(3) The members of the Corporation shall at all times be subject to the rules of the Corporation.
