Note.—The above business taxes and license fees for the year 2023 will be effective on the following basis :

1. If one person runs a single business on one or more floors of buildings under one assessment number, it will be considered as a single place only for the purpose of calculating the annual tax and will charge a license fee or business tax.
2. If one person is conducting various businesses in a single storey or multi-storey building under one assessment number, the annual value will be divided according to the amount of land used for that business or industry and the license fee or business tax will be charged separately.
3. Even if the building in which one person runs a business of the same type is a building with several rating numbers, it will be treated as a business operated under the same assessment number and business tax or license fee will be levied. However, the maximum annual license fee or business tax at that location if it is less than Rs. 5,000.00 then the license fee or business tax will be determined according to the total value of the annual valuation of the assessment numbers of all the relevant buildings combined.
4. When one person is running different businesses with multiple rating numbers, even if the rating number is the same, they will be charged separate license fees or business taxes for each of their businesses or industries.
5. If several persons are running a business under one assessment number, the annual valuation of that building will be divided according to the area of land used for each business and levy fees or business taxes will be charged separately.
6. A fee of Rs. 5,000.00 will be charged for a property that has not been assessed as a business unit for the purpose of assessment.
7. Up to the maximum tax amount will be charged from specially identified businesses.
8. Obtaining fire safety certificate is mandatory while obtaining trade license.

The tax levied on receipts (On turnover) for the year 2023 under Section 247(c) shall be levied in the following cycle.

01. Commission Agents
02. Money lenders
03. Brokers
04. Money investors
05. Maintaining a consultancy service institute
06. Auctioneers
07. Tourist operators
