The Third Shcedule

The parties agree to the following conditions in relation to the introduction of new computed based banking technology by the Bank covered and bound by this Agreement.

- 1 Wherever practical, the Bank will endeavour to ensue that jobs are designed to include a mix of VDU/non VDU tasks which seek to provide variation in visual and mental demands upon the operator.
- 2 The workload of operators of VDUs will be regularly reviewed by Management for the purpose of ensuring proper safety and effectiveness of the operation.
- 3 The Banks agree to provide VDU operators with adequate training within the parameters of their job description to ensure the safety and health of employees.
4. (a) In selecting VDUs the Bank will attempt to obtain equipment which will ensure the following ;
 - (i) Screens that give clear stable images ;
 - (ii) Proper sitting of keyboards so as to ensure the reduction of stress and improved maneuverability ;
 - (iii) Equipment which is quiet in operation so that the level of noise is kept to a reasonable limit ;
- (b) The Bank will undertake proper servicing and maintenance to ensure optimum functioning of the VDUs.

The Bank will pay attention to the proper positioning of screens, keyboards and provide facilities for placing documents and ancillary equipment in a manner to facilitate the work of employees.

The Bank will endeavour to provide lighting facilities to minimise visual fatigue in the operation of VDUs.

Employees whose main or primary function, as decided by the Management of the Bank, is the operation of a VDU, will be permitted to visit, at the cost of the Bank, an Optician selected by the Bank to have his eyesight examined prior to his commencing employment on a VDU. In the event of an adverse report being obtained from the Optician the employee should inform the Bank immediately.

Where an employee whose main or primary function, as decided by the Management of the Bank, is the operation of a VDU, and he is already using spectacles, when he is called upon to operate a VDU for the first time, he will be permitted, at the expenses of the Bank, to be examined by an Optician nominated by the Bank for the purpose of obtaining an opinion as to whether any modification is necessary to his lenses. The cost of such examination and modification to the lenses if necessary, will be borne by the Bank on the following basis :

- (i) The cost of the examination will be met by the Bank outside the limits prescribed by the Medical Assistance Scheme herein ;
- (ii) The cost of modification of the lenses will be met within the Medical Assistance Scheme, but if such cost should exceed the limits prescribed by the Scheme, the Bank will bear such additional cost as well ;

5 Accepting the fact that continuous work at a terminal by a data entry operator causes a certain amount of strain, the Bank is agreeable to a reasonable pause in entering information at or about the end of each period of 2 hours so long as there is no disruption of the smooth flow of work and so long as such pause does not exceed 10 minutes.

6 The Provisions of this Agreement will apply to employees whose main or primary function, as decided by the Management of the Bank, is operating a VDU. Provided however the Union will be entitled to make representations as to whether the main or primary function is the operation of a VDU subject to there being no industrial dispute being raised on this issue.

7 The Bank agrees that they will not seek to retrench employees who become redundant solely and exclusively in consequence of the introduction of new computer based banking technology. Instead, the Bank may avail itself of any one or more of the following options :

- (a) The aforementioned excess employees may be transferred to other sections/departments to perform work which is within their skill and capacity without reduction in salary and allowances which are in force at such time in relation to such employees. This option refers to a transfer other than within the scope of employment which the Bank would under normal circumstances be entitled to effect ;
- (b) The Bank may, on a transfer within the scope of (a) above, re-train an employee if the Bank consider it necessary ;
- (c) The Banks will be entitled to negotiate with employees who are redundant for the reasons contemplated in this Agreement, with a view to achieving a cessation of employment on terms mutually agreed upon and this will not amount to retrenchment within the meaning of this Schedule ;

8 For the purpose of this Agreement, retrenchment will mean an involuntary termination of the employees made redundant consequent upon the introduction of new computer based banking technology. It will not include a situation where such redundant employees voluntarily leave the service of the employees on terms mutually agreed upon.
