Insertion of new sections 33A, 33B, 33C, 33D and 33E of the principal enactment.

“Conditions relating to the appointment of directors of an insurer. 33A. (1) A director or an employee of an insurer shall not be appointed, elected or nominated as a director of another insurer, except where such insurer is a subsidiary company or an associate company of the first mentioned insurer.

(2) An employee of an insurer may be appointed, elected or nominated as a director of that insurer, subject however to the condition that the number of employees that may be so appointed, elected or nominated as directors, shall not exceed one-third of the total number of members of the Board of Directors of that insurer.

Insurer to inform Board of proposed appointment, nomination or election of directors. 33B. (1) Every insurer shall submit to the Board along with the Form required to be filed with the Registrar-General of Companies, a notice in such form and manner as shall be determined by the Board, giving information about each person sought to be appointed, elected or nominated as a director of the insurer, prior to the making of such appointment, election or nomination, as the case may be, and obtain the Boards approval for the same.

6 Regulation of Insurance Industry (Amendment)
 Act, No. 3 of 2011

(2) Where the Board receives a notice from an insurer under subsection (1) informing it of a proposed appointment, election or nomination of a person as a director of such insurer, the Board shall within thirty days of receipt of such notice and having regard to the provisions of section 33A, and to the disqualifications specified in the Second Schedule to this Act, approve or refuse to approve such appointment, election or nomination, as the case may be, and inform the insurer of its decision along with its reasons for reaching such decision. It shall also be the duty of the insurer to communicate to the person concerned, who is sought to be appointed, elected or nominated, as a director, the decision of the Board.

(3) Any person aggrieved by a decision given by the Board under subsection (2), may submit an appeal against such decision to the Board which shall be referred by the Board to a Panel of Review, consisting of three persons appointed by the Minister, from among persons who have experience and shown capacity in the field of insurance, financial management or law. The Panel of Review shall having considered the grounds on which the appeal is being made and any other matters which in its opinion merits consideration, make a decision either confirming the refusal or approving the appointment, election or nomination, as the case may be, of such person as a director of the insurer concerned.

Appointments,
elections or nominations
of directors
of an insurer
to be approved by the Board .

33c. (1) An insurer shall not appoint, elect or nominate as a director of such insurer a person whose appointment, election or nomination has not been approved by the Board under section 33B of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), a person whose name has been submitted to the Board for approval under subsection (1) of section 33B, may be appointed, elected or nominated as a director of the insurer, pending the receipt of the decision of the Board. However, where the Board refuses to grant approval and the insurer communicates to the person concerned, the decision of the Board, such person shall from the date of such communication, cease to hold office as a director of the insurer, subject to any decision the Board may reach upon any objections that may have been tendered by the person concerned, under subsection (3) of section 33B, against the decision of the Board refusing to grant approval.

(3) It shall be the duty of an insurer to inform the Board forthwith of every appointment, election or nomination of a director, whose appointment, election or nomination, as the case may be, was approved by the Board.

Removal of a director who is ineligible to hold office as a director.

33D. (1) An insurer shall, immediately upon becoming aware that a director of such insurer has become subject to any one or more of the disqualifications specified in the Second Schedule to this Act or has become ineligible to continue to hold office as a director of the insurer, inform the Board of such fact.

(2) Where the Board receives any information under subsection (1) about a director or where the Board becomes aware at any time that a person appointed, elected or nominated as a director of an insurer has thereafter become disqualified under any one or more of the disqualifications specified in the Second Schedule to this Act or has otherwise become ineligible to continue to hold office as a director of an insurer, the Board shall—

 Act, No. 3 of 2011

- (a) direct the insurer concerned, in writing, to remove such person from the office of a director within such period as may be specified in such direction; and
- (b) in writing, notify the person who is to be removed of the fact of such removal, with a copy of the direction issued to the insurer regarding the same annexed to such notification.

(3) The insurer to whom a direction is issued under subsection (2) shall, within the period specified in the direction—

- (a) remove the person from the office of director; and
- (b) take such steps as are necessary to inform the shareholders of the insurer and the Registrar-General of Companies of such removal.

(4) The removal of a director in accordance with a direction issued under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) shall, notwithstanding the Articles of Association of the insurer, take effect from the date of receipt by the director of the notification of removal sent by the insurer.

(5) Any person who is aggrieved by the removal of such person from the office of a director under subsection (3) of this section, may within fourteen days of being notified of such removal, appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeal. The Court of Appeal may on appeal made under this section, confirm, revise, modify or set aside the decision against which the appeal is made and may make such order as the interests of justice may require.

Failure to comply to be an offence.

33E. An insurer who fails to comply with any direction given under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 33D within the period specified in such direction and a director who has been served with a notice under paragraph (b) of that subsection who continues to function as a director thereafter, shall each be guilty of an offence under this Act and shall be liable on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate to a fine not exceeding five hundred thousand rupees and shall in addition be liable—

- (a) in the case of the insurer, to a further fine of one hundred thousand rupees, for each day that the insurer continues to commit such offence after conviction; and
- (b) in the case of a director of the insurer, to a further fine of rupees one hundred thousand for each day such director continues to function as director, after conviction.”.

REGISTRATION OF LOSS ADJUSTERS

Prohibition
against acting
as a loss
adjuster
without a Certificate of Registration.

89A. (1) No person shall act or hold out as a loss adjuster to any insurer, unless such person is the holder of a Certificate of Registration as a loss adjuster, issued by the Board under this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), a person who is not a resident of Sri Lanka and who has obtained the necessary legal recognition as a loss adjuster from the relevant authority in the country where such person is resident, is permitted to function as a loss adjuster within Sri Lanka, provided such function is being carried on with a person in Sri Lanka who has been duly registered as a loss adjuster under the provisions of this Act.

Qualifications
for
registration.

89B. No person shall be eligible to be registered as a loss adjuster under this Act, unless such person possesses such qualifications and experience as may be determined by the Board by rules made in that behalf.

Application
for
registration
and issue of certificate.

89C. (1) An application for registration as a loss adjuster shall be made to the Board in such form as shall be provided for that purpose by the Board and be accompanied by such documents, information and fee as shall be determined by the Board by rules made in that behalf.

18 Regulation of Insurance Industry (Amendment)
 Act, No. 3 of 2011

(2) On receipt of an application under subsection (1), the Board shall, having considered the particulars stated therein and where it deems necessary having given the applicant an opportunity of being heard, inform the applicant by written notice whether the applicant is eligible to be registered as a loss adjuster or not. Upon registration of any person as a loss adjuster, such person shall be issued with a Certificate of Registration and be subject to such terms and conditions as shall be specified in the certificate.

(3) A Certificate of Registration issued by the Board shall authorize its holder to carry on such activity as specified therein and a Certificate issued shall not be transferred to any other person nor be used for the benefit of any other person.

(4) Any transfer or use of a Certificate of Registration by the holder thereof in contravention of the provisions of subsection (3), shall be null and void, and the Board shall have the power to revoke such registration with immediate effect.

(5) The Board may at any time add to, vary or revoke any term or condition specified in a Certificate of Registration issued to a loss adjuster or add any new terms or conditions thereto.

Revocation
of
registration.

89D. (1) The Board may revoke a Certificate of Registration issued to a loss adjuster, where the Board is satisfied that such loss adjuster —

- (a) has acted in contravention of any provisions of this Part of this Act, or any rules or regulations made thereunder;

- (b) has acted in breach of any term or condition specified in the Certificate of Registration issued by the Board under this Act;
- (c) has made any statement in any application, account, written information or document submitted to the Board by such loss adjuster, which was later found to be false, inaccurate or misleading or it is discovered that the loss adjuster has concealed or failed to disclose some material facts that would have affected the decision of the Board in assessing his suitability as a loss adjuster; or
- (d) has since the grant of the Certificate of Registration, been found to be disqualified for the grant of such registration.

(2) A loss adjuster who is aggrieved by the decision of the Board under subsection (1) may appeal therefrom to the Court of Appeal and the provisions of section 19 of this Act shall mutatis mutandis apply to and in relation to such an appeal.

Board to grant opportunity to show cause before a rejection.

89E. (1) An application made under this Act for registration as a loss adjuster shall not be rejected by the Board without giving notice in writing to the applicant to show cause within such period as shall be specified in such notice, as to why such application should not be rejected.

(2) Where any applicant for a registration—

- (a) fails to show cause within the time specified in the notice issued under subsection (1); or

20 Regulation of Insurance Industry (Amendment)
Act, No. 3 of 2011

(b) fails to show sufficient cause
acceptable to the Board,

the application made shall be rejected by the Board.”.

“Amendment of section 90 of the principal
enactment.

34. Section 90 of the principal enactment is hereby amended by the substitution for the word “Company”
wherever such word appears in the section, of the word “person”.

Insertion of a new section 92A
in the principal
enactment.

35. The following new section is hereby inserted immediately after section 92 of the principal enactment and shall have effect as section 92A of that enactment:—

“Carrying on the function
of a loss
without being duly registered, to be an offence.

92A. Any person who acts or holds out as a loss adjuster without being duly registered under this Act, shall be guilty of an offence
and shall on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not less than fifty thousand rupees or to imprisonment for a term not less than one year or to both such fine and imprisonment.”.

Amendment of
section 93 of the principal
enactment.

36. Section 93 of the principal enactment is hereby amended by the substitution for the words “or any rule made under this Act;”, of the words “or any regulation, rule or order made under this Act or any conditions imposed or determinations made by the Board under this Act;”.
