- (m) approve the internal audit report prepared by the Audit Committee of the Central Bank and monitor implementation of the internal auditor's recommendations in the Central Bank; and
 - (n) generally, do all such acts and things as are necessary for, or incidental or conducive to the administration and management of the Central Bank and to give effect to the provisions of this Act.
- (6) The Governing Board may, in writing, delegate the functions specified in paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (5) to the Governor of the Central Bank.
- (7) The Governing Board may establish specialized boards and sub-committees to assist in supervising the administration and management of the Central Bank.
- (8) The Governing Board may make such rules as it may consider necessary in relation to any matter affecting or connected with or incidental to the exercise, performance and discharge of the powers, duties and functions of the Central Bank.
- (9) The Governing Board may utilize the funds of the Central Bank for the purpose of meeting all expenditures incurred by the Central Bank in the administration, management and operation of the Central Bank and in the exercise, performance, and discharge of the powers, duties and functions of the Central Bank.

9. (1) The meetings of the Governing Board shall be held at least once a month, and as frequently as is necessary for the purpose of exercising, performing and discharging the powers, duties and functions of the Central Bank.

Meetings of the Governing
Board

(2) The Chairperson of the Governing Board shall, if present, preside at every meeting of the Governing Board. In the absence of the Chairperson from any meeting, a member appointed under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 8 elected by the members present at that meeting shall preside at such meeting.

(3) The meetings of the Governing Board shall be convened by the Chairperson or at the written request of any two members of the Governing Board.

(4) The quorum for a meeting of the Governing Board shall be five members.

(5) Each member of the Governing Board shall have one vote and in the event of an equality of votes at any meeting of the Governing Board, the member presiding at such meeting shall, in addition to his vote, have a casting vote.

(6) All matters for decision at any meeting of the Governing Board shall be decided by the votes of the majority of the members present.

(7) The Governing Board may make rules of procedure for the exercise, performance and discharge of its powers, duties and functions under this Act, and such rules of procedure may provide for the manner in which the meetings of the Governing Board shall be conducted.

(8) Subject to the preceding provisions of this section, the Governing Board may regulate the procedure in regard to the meetings of the Governing Board and the transaction of business at such meetings.

(9) No act, decision or proceeding of the Governing Board shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the existence of a vacancy in the Governing Board or a defect in the appointment of any member of the Governing Board.

10. (1) The proceedings of the meetings of the Governing Board shall be confidential to the extent permitted under the Right to Information Act, No. 12 of 2016. The Governing Board may give publicity to any of its decisions on any matter, if it considers it necessary.

Confidentiality

(8) The proceedings of the meeting of the Monetary Policy Board shall be confidential to the extent permitted under the Right to Information Act, No. 12 of 2016.

(9) The Monetary Policy Board shall publish the resolution adopted by it after the conclusion of every meeting of the Monetary Policy Board with an explanation of recent economic developments and the economic outlook which underpins such resolution.

(10) The Monetary Policy Board may make rules of procedure for the exercise, performance and discharge of its powers, duties and functions.

(11) The rules of procedure may provide for the manner in which the meetings of the Monetary Policy Board shall be conducted.

(12) The minutes of each meeting of the Monetary Policy Board shall be kept in writing, and retained at least for a period of twelve years.

(13) No act, decision or proceeding of the Monetary Policy Board shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of the existence of any vacancy in the Monetary Policy Board or any defect in the appointment of any member of the Monetary Policy Board.

14. (1) The Governor of the Central Bank shall be the Chief Executive Officer and the principal representative of the Central Bank.

Powers of the Governor and the Deputy Governors of
the Central Bank

(2) The Governor of the Central Bank, in consultation with the Deputy Governors, shall be responsible for-

- (a) the day-to-day operations of the Central Bank; and
- (b) implementing policy decisions of the Governing Board and the Monetary Policy Board.

(3) The Governor of the Central Bank shall discharge such other functions of the Central Bank expressly assigned to the Governor of the Central Bank by the Governing Board or the Monetary Policy Board.

(4) The Governor of the Central Bank shall have the authority to sign any rule, order, direction, notice, contract, promissory note, security, report, balance sheet, statement, or such other document on behalf of the Central Bank.

(5) The Governor of the Central Bank shall devote his full professional time to the business of the Central Bank.

(6) The Governor of the Central Bank shall not accept or hold any other office or employment whatsoever, whether public or private, and whether remunerated or not.

(7) The Governor of the Central Bank may delegate any of his powers, duties and functions to the Senior Deputy Governor of the Central Bank, or with the concurrence of the Governing Board to any other Deputy Governor of the Central Bank.

(8) Where the Governor of the Central Bank is temporarily absent from duty or is temporarily unable to exercise, perform and discharge his powers, duties and functions, the Senior Deputy Governor of the Central Bank designated in terms of subsection (8) of section 15 shall act as the Chief Executive Officer of the Central Bank and shall have authority to exercise, perform and discharge the powers, duties and functions of the Governor of the Central Bank.

(9) Where both the Governor of the Central Bank and the Senior Deputy Governor of the Central Bank are temporarily absent from duty or are temporarily unable to exercise, perform and discharge their powers, duties and functions, the Governing Board shall appoint a Deputy Governor of the Central Bank to act as the Chief Executive Officer of the Central Bank.

(10) The Deputy Governor of the Central Bank appointed under subsection (9) shall be designated as the acting Chief Executive Officer of the Central Bank.

(11) (a) Where the Governor of the Central Bank vacates or ceases to hold office for any reason, the Senior Deputy Governor of the Central Bank designated in terms of subsection (8) of section 15 shall act as the Chief Executive Officer of the Central Bank.

(b) Where the Senior Deputy Governor of the Central Bank referred to in paragraph (a) is unable to act as the Chief Executive Officer for any reason, the acting Chief Executive Officer designated in terms of subsection (10) shall act as the Chief Executive Officer of the Central Bank.

(12) The office of the Governor of the Central Bank shall not remain vacant for a period of more than forty-five days.

15. (1) The Minister shall, having regard to the provisions of section 17, recommend to the President-

- (a) the name of a person to be appointed as the Governor of the Central Bank; and
- (b) the names of persons to be appointed as members of the Governing Board referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 8 and the experts of the Monetary Policy Board referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 12 (in this Act referred to as the “appointed members”).

Appointment of the Governor and other appointed members and the Senior Deputy Governor of the Central Bank

(2) In recommending the names of persons to be appointed as members of the Governing Board referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 8, the Minister shall take into account the desirability of promoting diversity in the membership of the Governing Board.

(3) Upon the receipt of the recommendations of the Minister under subsection (1), if the President is satisfied with the suitability of the persons so recommended, the President shall recommend the names of such persons to the Constitutional Council for approval.

(4) Upon the receipt of approval of the Constitutional Council under subsection (3), the President shall appoint such persons as the Governor of the Central Bank and the other members of the Governing Board and the Monetary Policy Board.

(5) Where the Constitutional Council refuses to approve the name of a person referred to in subsection (3), the Minister shall make a fresh nomination, and the provisions of subsections (2), (3), and (4) shall apply to such nomination accordingly.

(6) Where the President is of the view that any person recommended under subsection (1) is not suitable for such appointment, the President shall, in writing, communicate such fact along with reasons therefor to the Minister and the Minister shall table such communication in Parliament.

(7) Where the Minister receives a communication referred to in subsection (6), he shall recommend to the President another person. The provisions of subsections (2), (3), (4) and (6) shall apply to the recommendation made under this subsection.

(8) The Minister shall, on the recommendation of the Governing Board-

- (a) determine the number of Deputy Governors of the Central Bank to be appointed and appoint such number of Deputy Governors who shall exercise, perform and discharge such powers, duties and functions assigned to them by this Act or the Governing Board; and
- (b) designate the most senior Deputy Governor appointed under paragraph (a) as the Senior Deputy Governor of the Central Bank.

(9) Every appointment made under this section shall be subject to the provisions of section 17.

(10) The Deputy Governors of the Central Bank shall be employees of the Central Bank.

(11) The appointment of the Deputy Governors of the Central Bank and the designation of the Senior Deputy Governor of the Central Bank shall be made in accordance with the criteria prescribed by rules of the Governing Board.

(12) The appointments referred to in subsection (1) shall be finalized not more than a period of thirty days prior to the expiration of the term of office of the previously appointed member.

(13) In the event of the President failing to appoint any person approved by the Constitutional Council under subsection (4) within a period of thirty days from the date of approval of the Constitutional Council, such person shall be deemed to have been appointed as the Governor of the Central Bank, a member of the Governing Board or an expert of the Monetary Policy Board, as the case may be, with effect from the date of expiry of such period.

16. (1) The term of office of the Governor of the Central Bank and an appointed member shall be a period of six years commencing on the date of his appointment.

Term of office of the Governor of the Central Bank and an appointed member

(2) Where the Governor of the Central Bank or any appointed member vacates office before the expiration of the term of office, another person shall be appointed in terms of section 15 in his place to hold office during the unexpired period of the term of office of the Governor of the Central Bank or the appointed member so vacating the office.

(3) The Governor of the Central Bank or any appointed member who vacates office by effluxion of time shall be eligible for reappointment:

Provided however, the aggregate term of office of any such member shall not exceed a period of twelve years.

Eligibility and disqualifications
of the Governor and other appointed members and Deputy Governors of
the Central Bank

17. (1) The persons appointed under section 15 shall be persons of eminence and integrity who have distinguished themselves in public and professional life and who possess professional or academic experience in the fields of Economics, Monetary Policy, Banking, Finance, Accounting and Auditing, Law or Risk Management in order to assist the Central Bank to achieve its objects and to exercise, perform and discharge its powers, duties and functions.

(2) A person shall be disqualified from being appointed or continuing as the Governor of the Central Bank, or an appointed member or a Deputy Governor of the Central Bank, if such person –

- (a) has committed or has been connected with the commission of, any act which involves fraud, deceit, dishonesty or professional misconduct;
- (b) is subject to an investigation or inquiry consequent upon being served with notice of a charge involving fraud, deceit, dishonesty or other similar criminal activity, by any regulatory authority, supervisory authority, professional association, commission of inquiry, tribunal or any other body established by law, in Sri Lanka or abroad;

- (b) has not complied with the relevant code of conduct of the Central Bank;
- (c) has failed to exercise, perform and discharge the powers, duties and functions of such office for a consecutive period of more than three months without the approval of the Governing Board; or
- (d) is disqualified in terms of the provisions of subsection (2) of section 17.

(2) Upon the receipt of the approval of the Constitutional Council, the President shall, in writing, remove any person appointed under subsection (4) of section 15, and shall state in the letter of removal—

- (a) the date on which the removal shall take effect which shall not be a date earlier than the date on which the letter of removal is received; and
- (b) the reasons for the removal.

(3) Any person appointed under subsection (4) of section 15 may be suspended from the office by the President prior to the commencement of the hearing or during the course of the hearing under subsection (1).

(4) Any person appointed under subsection (8) of section 15 may be removed from office by the Minister on the advice of the Governing Board, in the event the Minister is satisfied following a hearing of the relevant person that such person—

- (a) is unable to exercise, perform and discharge the powers, duties and functions of such office because of an infirmity of body or mind that has lasted for more than a period of three months;
- (b) has not complied with the relevant code of conduct of the Central Bank;
- (c) has failed to exercise, perform and discharge the powers, duties and functions of such office for a consecutive period of more than three months without the approval of the Governing Board; or
- (d) is disqualified in terms of the provisions of subsection (2) of section 17.

(5) No person appointed pursuant to subsections (4) and (8) of section 15 shall be removed from office on any ground other than the grounds specified in subsection (1) or (4).

(6) Any person appointed under subsection (7) of section 15 may be suspended from the office by the Minister, on the advice of the Governing Board, prior to the commencement of the hearing or during the course of the hearing under subsection (4).

Restriction on subsequent actions

20. Any person who ceases to be the Governor of the Central Bank, a member of the Governing Board or Monetary Policy Board, Deputy Governor, or an employee of the Central Bank shall not serve in any capacity whatsoever, in or for, any financial institution until the expiration of a period of three years from the date of such cessation.

Remuneration

21. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, the remuneration of the Governor of the Central Bank and the allowances payable to the appointed members shall be determined by the Parliament.

(2) The amount of remuneration and allowances determined under subsection (1) shall be specified in the letter of appointment issued to such Governor and appointed members, and such remuneration shall not be reduced during the terms of office of such Governor and appointed members.

(3) No remuneration or allowance shall be based on the profits of the Central Bank or any of its revenues.

22. The Governing Board shall adopt such Codes of Conduct applicable to members of the Governing Board and the Monetary Policy Board.

conduct

EMPLOYEES OF THE CENTRAL BANK

23. (1) The Governing Board may appoint and remove employees of the Central Bank, and may determine the terms and conditions of their employment including the remuneration.

Appointment
and removal of employees of
the Central Bank

(2) No remuneration shall be based on the profits of the Central Bank or any of its revenue.

(3) The Governing Board may establish and regulate pensions or provident funds or schemes for the benefit of employees and their dependents and nominees, and may make contributions to any such fund or scheme.

(4) The Governing Board may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of section 114, grant loans and advances, to employees of the Central Bank for such purposes as may be determined by the Governing Board subject to such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Governing Board.

(5) The compulsory age of retirement for every employee of the Central Bank shall be sixty years and the optional age of retirement for every employee of the Central Bank shall be fifty-five years.

(6) The Central Bank shall make rules relating to disciplinary control for all the employees of the Central Bank.

Employees not to accept any other office

24. (1) The employees of the Central Bank shall devote their professional services to the Central Bank, and shall not accept or hold any other office or employment, whether public or private, or whether remunerated or not, except as a nominee of the Central Bank or for educational or academic purposes, which are not in conflict with or which will not prevent the ability of any employee to devote his professional services to the Central Bank, and are within the limits determined by the Governing Board in that regard.

(2) The Governing Board may, at the request of any ministry, department, public international financial institution or a public corporation which is not a financial institution, temporarily release any officer of the Central Bank with the consent of such officer, to serve any office or position in such ministry, department, public international financial institution or public corporation, subject to such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Governing Board:

Provided, however, the temporary release of any officer of the Central Bank shall not exceed a period of five years unless the Cabinet of Ministers approves such other longer period.

(3) Any officer of the Central Bank who is released to serve any office or position in terms of subsection (2), shall be deemed to be removed from such office or position, if such officer is removed from his office in the Central Bank under the provisions of this Act.

Codes of
conduct

25. The Governing Board shall make codes of conduct applicable to employees of the Central Bank.

PART IV

INFLATION TARGET

26. (1) The Minister and the Central Bank shall sign a monetary policy framework agreement with regard to setting out the inflation target to be achieved by the Central Bank. Inflation target

(2) In the event the Minister and the Central Bank are unable to reach an agreement with regard to the inflation target as referred to in subsection (1), the Minister shall place his proposal for the inflation target and that of the Central Bank before the Cabinet of Ministers, and the Cabinet of Ministers shall determine the inflation target to be achieved by the Central Bank.

(3) The Minister shall publish the monetary policy framework agreement including the inflation target and other parameters relating thereto in the Gazette within a period of one week from the date of such agreement.

(4) The Minister and the Central Bank may review the inflation target and any other parameters relating thereto, once in every three years or in such other intervals, if exceptional circumstances so warranted. The Minister shall, upon such review, publish in the Gazette the inflation target and other parameters relating thereto so reviewed and the exceptional circumstances that warranted such review.

(5) If the Central Bank fails to meet the inflation target by a margin determined in terms of subsections (1) and (4) of this section for two consecutive quarters, the Monetary Policy Board shall submit a report to Parliament through the Minister, which shall also be made available to the public, setting out-

- (a) the reasons for the failure to achieve the inflation target;
- (b) the remedial actions proposed to be taken by the Central Bank; and
- (c) an estimate of the time-period within which the inflation target shall be achieved.

(6) The Monetary Policy Board shall determine the monetary policy and other instruments relating to the implementation of the monetary policy of the Central Bank and shall have the authority to adjust such instruments for the purpose of implementing the monetary policy.

report on inflation

27. The Central Bank shall publish a report once in six months explaining recent movements in inflation, sources of inflation and medium-term projections for inflation and key risks to such projections.

Action to preserve price
stability

28. (1) Where the Monetary Policy Board anticipates economic disturbances that are likely to threaten the domestic price stability in Sri Lanka or there are abnormal movements in the price level that are actually endangering such domestic price stability, it shall be the duty of the Monetary Policy Board –

- (a) to adopt such policies, and to cause such remedial measures to be taken, as are appropriate in the circumstances and authorized by this Act;
- (b) to submit to the Minister and, if it is not prejudicial to the public interest, publish, a detailed report which shall include, as a minimum, an analysis of –
 - (i) the causes of the anticipated economic disturbances, or of the actual abnormal movements of the price level;
 - (ii) the probable effects of such disturbances or movements on the level of production, employment, and income in Sri Lanka; and

- (iii) the measures which the Monetary Policy Board has already taken, and monetary, fiscal, or administrative measures that it proposes to take or recommends for adoption by the Government.

(2) The Monetary Policy Board shall continue to submit further reports periodically so long as the circumstances which occasioned the submission of the first report constitute a threat to domestic price stability.

(3) The Minister shall submit the reports referred to in this section to the Cabinet of Ministers to consider the same and take appropriate decisions to avert such an occurrence.

PART V

MONETARY AND OTHER OPERATIONS

29. (1) In the carrying out of its operations, the Central Bank may open and maintain cash, precious metals and securities accounts on its books for –

Opening of accounts

- (a) financial institutions, foreign banks, and government entities;
- (b) central banks, international organizations including public international financial institutions, foreign governments, and donor organizations.

(2) The Central Bank may prescribe by rules the conditions for opening accounts on its books.

(3) The Central Bank may open and maintain cash, precious metals and securities accounts on the books of –

- (a) financial institutions which are subject to the regulation and supervision of the Central Bank;

- (b) central banks, depositories, foreign banks and international organizations including public international financial institutions.

Custodial
services of the
Central Bank

30. The Central Bank may, subject to the payment of fees in line with market rates and the terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Governing Board, provide custodial facilities to financial institutions for denominated currency notes and coins as it designates, and for securities, precious metals and any other valuable assets as the Governing Board may determine.

Open market
operations

31. (1) In order to achieve the objects of the Central Bank and to exercise, perform and discharge its powers, duties and functions, the Central Bank may –

- (a) operate in the financial markets by buying and selling outright or under a repurchase agreement, and by lending or borrowing claims and marketable instruments, as well as precious metals;
- (b) conduct credit operations with licensed banks and other market participants operating in Sri Lanka, based on adequate collaterals; or
- (c) issue securities on such terms and conditions and in such form as may be determined by the Monetary Policy Board.

(2) The Monetary Policy Board shall make rules specifying–

- (a) the types of instruments and collateral to be used for open market and credit operations for the purpose of the monetary policy; and
- (b) the conditions under which the Central Bank may enter into transactions for the purposes of paragraph (a).

(3) The Governing Board shall make rules specifying –

- (a) the types of instruments and collateral to be used for credit operations other than the monetary policy; and
- (b) the conditions under which the Central Bank may enter into transactions for the purposes of paragraph (a).

32. (1) The Central Bank shall require-

Regulation of reserves of the financial institutions

- (a) the licensed commercial banks; and
- (b) such other financial institutions falling under such criteria as may be prescribed by the Monetary Policy Board (in this Act referred to as the “relevant financial institutions”), to maintain reserves against their deposit liabilities and such of their other financial liabilities as the Monetary Policy Board may consider necessary and shall, for that purpose, prescribe the classes of deposit liabilities and the categories of other financial liabilities against which reserves are required to be maintained.

(2) The reserves required to be maintained by a licensed commercial bank or a relevant financial institution under subsection (1), shall be proportionate to the volumes of each class of its deposit liabilities and each category of its other financial liabilities and shall, subject to subsection (3), take the form of rupee deposits in the Central Bank.

(3) The Monetary Policy Board may, in the interest of the national economy and the banking and financial systems of Sri Lanka, demand the maintenance of any part of the reserves required to be maintained, in the form of assets other than rupee deposits in the Central Bank.

33. (1) The Monetary Policy Board shall prescribe the reserve ratios applicable to each class of deposit liabilities and each category of other financial liabilities against which

Monetary Policy
Board to prescribe reserve

reserves are required to be maintained under subsection (1) of section 32 and may, from time to time, vary such ratios as it may consider necessary.

(2) Where any licensed commercial bank or relevant financial institution is required to maintain a reserve against any class of deposit liabilities or any category of other financial liabilities, the Central Bank shall, if so determined by the Monetary Policy Board, in the interest of the national economy and the banking and financial systems of the country, pay to such licensed commercial bank or relevant financial institution, as the case may be, interest at such rate as may be determined by the Monetary Policy Board, on the amount maintained as a reserve or a part thereof.

(3) Where the reserves maintained by any licensed commercial bank or relevant financial institution are below the reserves required to be maintained by such licensed commercial bank or relevant financial institution, such licensed commercial bank or relevant financial institution shall pay to the Central Bank, an interest on the amount of the deficiency at such rate as may be determined by the Monetary Policy Board.

Consequences of
deficiencies

34. Where a licensed commercial bank or a relevant financial institution regularly fails to maintain the reserves required to be maintained by such licensed commercial bank or relevant financial institution under subsection (1) of section 32, the Monetary Policy Board may, in the interest of the national economy, make order –

- (a) prohibiting or restricting the making of loans or investments by such licensed commercial bank or relevant financial institution;
- (b) prohibiting the application of the whole or any specified part of the net profits of such licensed commercial bank or relevant financial institution for the purpose of payment of a dividend to its shareholders.

35. The Monetary Policy Board may recommend to the Governing Board to adopt such other methods of monetary control as may be authorized by this Act.

Operational methods of monetary
control

36. (1) In exceptional circumstances, the Central Bank may, on such terms and conditions as the Governing Board determines, grant liquidity assistance to a financial institution, or for its benefit-

Liquidity assistance to
institutions

- (a) under such rate as the Governing Board may determine which shall be above the prevailing market rate; and
- (b) for a period not exceeding a period of ninety-one days that may be renewed following a decision by the Central Bank for another period not exceeding a period of ninety-one days.

(2) The Central Bank shall provide such financial assistance on the basis of a programme specifying the remedial measures:

Provided however, no such commitment shall be made by the Central Bank unless such financial institution, in the opinion of the Governing Board, is solvent and can provide adequate collateral to support the loan, and the request for financial assistance is based on the need to improve liquidity.

(3) The renewal of credit facilities granted under subsection (1) shall, after the initial ninety-one days, require a Government guarantee in writing securing their repayment. The maximum renewal period shall be ninety-one days upon which the credit operations shall be repaid.

(4) The Governing Board shall determine the type and minimum value of the collateral to be deposited or provided for to secure credit operations granted or renewed under this section.

(5) If the Central Bank discovers that the assisted financial institution did not implement the remedial measures specified in subsection (2), or that such measures did not achieve the results intended, the Central Bank shall take appropriate measures including the administrative measures provided for in section 107.

(6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the preceding provisions of this section, the Central Bank may, if it considers that financial stability issues are at stake and to avoid a disturbance in the financial system, at its own discretion and on such terms and conditions as the Governing Board determines including the viability of the financial institution in the context of a restructuring or resolution plan, provide liquidity support in exceptional circumstance to a financial institution for a maximum period of one hundred and eighty days in cases where the Government has, for the sake of public interest, provided to the Central Bank an unconditional and irrevocable guarantee for any losses incurred by the Central Bank from the loan.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE OPERATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL RESERVES

Foreign
exchange
operations of the
Central Bank

37. (1) The Central Bank may engage in foreign exchange operations by conducting –

- (a) foreign exchange auctions;
- (b) derivative transactions;
- (c) direct dealings; or
- (d) any other acceptable methods as approved by the Governing Board.

(2) Foreign exchange operations may be transacted by the Central Bank only with –

- (a) licensed commercial banks operating in Sri Lanka;
- (b) the Government and agencies or institutions acting on behalf of the Government, whether established by any written law or otherwise;

- (c) foreign commercial and investment banks;
- (d) foreign central banks;
- (e) international financial institutions; and
- (f) foreign Governments, foreign provincial governments and agencies or institutions acting on behalf of foreign Governments.

38. The Central Bank shall not accept any commission or impose any charge of any description in respect of the purchase or sale of foreign exchange, except telegraphic or other costs which are actually incurred in connection with such purchase or sale.

Central Bank not to accept any commission or impose any charges in foreign exchange operations

39. (1) The Central Bank may grant collateralized loans to, or take loans from, any institution of any description referred to in paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) of subsection (2) of section 37 and may engage in such other transactions with such institutions as are expedient or desirable in the public interest and are appropriate having regard to the character of the Central Bank.

Loans to and from foreign institutions

(2) Any loan taken as provided in subsection (1) may be secured by assets held by the Central Bank.

(3) The Central Bank may act as an agent or correspondent of a foreign commercial bank or an investment bank or any institution referred to in paragraphs (b), (d), (e) and (f) of subsection (2) of section 37.

40. (1) The Central Bank shall manage the official international reserves consistent with international best practices and the rules made by the Governing Board having regard to the safety, liquidity and return in that order of priority.

Management of international reserves

(2) The international reserves of the Central Bank may include the following assets –

- (a) gold including credit balances representing such gold;
- (b) assets denominated in freely convertible foreign currencies in the form of –
 - (i) foreign notes and coins held by or to the credit of the Central Bank;
 - (ii) credit balances and interbank deposits that are payable on demand or within a short term held in the accounts of the Central Bank, on the books of foreign central and commercial banks, or international financial institutions;
 - (iii) readily-marketable debt securities issued by, or supported by foreign governments including provincial governments, foreign central banks, international financial institutions and agencies;
- (c) either the whole, or such maximum percentage of the whole, of the holdings of such drawing rights in the International Monetary Fund as may be determined from time to time by the Governing Board; and
- (d) any other readily-marketable financial assets denominated in freely convertible foreign currencies as determined by the Governing Board.

(3) In the event, the Central Bank is satisfied that there is a decline or a likelihood of decline in the international reserves, or such reserves may reach to a level that could jeopardize the objects of the Central Bank, and that the Central Bank is unable to remedy such decline by its own measures, the Central Bank shall report to the Minister in writing of such decline including reasons for and recommendations to remedy such decline.

41. (1) Every licensed commercial bank shall, after the closure of business at the end of such period as may be prescribed by the Governor of the Central Bank, make a report to the Central Bank setting out the volume and composition of its purchases and sales of foreign exchange during that period, and shall furnish such additional information as the Central Bank may require with reference to such purchases and sales and to the movements of its accounts in foreign currencies.

Information on
operations

(2) The Governor of the Central Bank may require any other person to make reports to the Central Bank at specified times or intervals as to all transactions or operations in gold, in any shape or form, and in foreign exchange.

(3) Every report under this section shall be in such form as the Governor of the Central Bank may prescribe for the purpose.

(4) The Central Bank may make such inspection or examination of or take custody of any of the books and accounts kept by any licensed commercial bank or other person as it may deem necessary for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any statement set out in any report made by such licensed commercial bank or person.

42. (1) The Governing Board may determine the manner of determination of the maximum amount of the working balances which licensed commercial banks may hold in foreign currencies generally or in any specified foreign currency or currencies, and may require such banks to sell to the Central Bank all or any specified part of the surpluses in excess of such maximum amount.

exchange
holdings of commercial banks

(2) The Governing Board may, having regard to the special needs of any particular licensed commercial bank, permit such bank to hold working balances in any specified foreign currency in excess of the maximum amount determined for such currency under subsection (1).

(3) In ascertaining whether the working balances of any licensed commercial bank in any foreign currency are in excess of the maximum amount determined under subsection (1), there may be deducted from such balances the net liabilities of that bank in currencies into which the first-mentioned currency is freely convertible.

PART VII

CURRENCY AND LEGAL TENDER

Currency	43. The currency of Sri Lanka shall be the Sri Lanka rupee. The Sri Lanka rupee shall be divided into one hundred units each of which shall be called a “cent”.

Issue of commemorative currency notes
or coins

(2) Any commemorative currency notes or coins issued under subsection (1) may be sold at a price higher than the denomination specified in such notes or coins and as may be determined by the Minister.

(3) The sale of commemorative currency notes or coins issued under subsection (1) at a price higher than the denomination specified in such currency notes or coins shall be deemed not to be a contravention of section 55 or 56.

(4) Numismatic items prepared from currency notes or coins other than commemorative currency notes or coins may be sold at a price higher than the denomination specified in such notes or coins with the approval of the Governing Board, and the sale of such items at a price higher than the denomination specified in such currency notes or coins shall be deemed not to be a contravention of section 55 or 56.

49. (1) The Central Bank shall, with the approval of the Minister, prescribe the denominations, dimensions, designs, inscriptions, and other characteristics of currency notes and coins issued by the Central Bank.

Characteristics of currency

(2) Every currency note shall bear the signatures in facsimile of the Minister and of the Governor of the Central Bank and shall be stated on the face thereof to be issued on behalf of the Government of Sri Lanka.

Contracts for printing of notes
and minting of coins

50. The Central Bank shall have the authority to enter into contracts with any other person in Sri Lanka or abroad for the printing of currency notes and the minting of coins.

Exchange of currency

51. Upon a request made and subject to such conditions as may be specified by rules, the Central Bank shall exchange, without charge or commission, currency notes and coins issued by the Central Bank.

Replacement of currency unfit for circulation

52. The Central Bank shall withdraw from circulation and shall cancel all currency notes and coins which for any reason whatsoever are unfit for circulation, and shall, as soon as practicable and subject to such rules as may be made in that behalf by the Governing Board, replace them by the delivery in exchange of fit currency notes and coins.

Redemption of
currency

53. (1) The Governing Board may, in its discretion, by notice published in the Gazette call in for the replacement of currency notes or coins of any issue or denomination.

(2) Any currency notes and coins called in for replacement in accordance with this section shall remain legal tender for such period not exceeding one year from the date of call as may be specified by the Governing Board and shall thereafter cease to be legal tender.

(3) The Governing Board may determine a period not less than one year within which the Central Bank or any agent authorized by the Governing Board for the purpose, shall, upon surrender of any currency notes or coins so called in for replacement, replace such currency notes or coins, at par and without charge, by the delivery in exchange of fit currency notes or coins.

(4) All currency notes and coins called in for replacement and not surrendered as provided in subsection (3) shall cease to be a liability of the Central Bank and the bearer of any such notes or coins shall not be entitled to any compensation.

54. The Central Bank shall create and administer a currency stock in order to ensure the availability of a regular supply of currency notes and coins.

Currency stock

55. Any person who without the authority of the Governing Board—

Mutilation or defacement of
currency notes

- (b) prints, stamps, or draws anything upon any currency note, or affixes any seal or stamp to or upon any currency note;
- (c) attaches or affixes to or upon any currency note anything in the nature or form of an advertisement;
- (d) reproduces in any form whatsoever, or makes a facsimile of, any currency note; or
- (e) uses otherwise as a legal tender, any currency note, commits an offence.

56. (1) Any person who, without the authority of the Governing Board, melts, breaks up, perforates, mutilates or uses otherwise than as legal tender, any coin which is legal tender in Sri Lanka commits an offence.

Use of currency
coin otherwise than as legal tender

(2) Any person who knowingly uses, possesses or deals with any metal or article which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe, is derived from any coin which has been dealt with in contravention of subsection (1), commits an offence.

Conclusive
evidence of imitation of a
currency note

57. (1) Where, in any proceedings in any court, it has to be determined whether a document purporting to be a currency note is an imitation of a currency note, a certificate under the hand of the Governor of the Central Bank to the effect that such document is an imitation of a currency note and is not a currency note issued or deemed to be issued by the Central Bank shall be received in such proceedings as conclusive evidence of the fact that such document is an imitation of a currency note.

(2) The Governor of the Central Bank who issues a certificate under this section shall not be examined or cross-examined with respect to that certificate.

(3) Every certificate issued under this section shall be in a form as may be determined by the Governing Board.

Conclusive
evidence of imitation of a coin or current coin

58. (1) Where, in any proceedings in any court, it has to be determined whether an article purporting to be a coin or a current coin is an imitation of such coin or current coin, a certificate under the hand of the Governor of the Central Bank to the effect that such article is an imitation of a coin or a current coin, as the case may be, and is not a coin or a current coin issued or deemed to be issued by the Central Bank, shall be received in such proceedings as conclusive evidence of the fact that such article is an imitation of a coin or a current coin.

(2) The Governor of the Central Bank who issues a certificate under this section shall not be examined or cross-examined with respect to that certificate.

(3) Every certificate issued under this section shall be in a form as may be determined by the Governing Board.

(4) In this section, the expression “current coin” shall have the same meaning as in the Penal Code (Chapter 19).

PART VIII

PAYMENT AND SETTLEMENT SYSTEMS

59. (1) The Central Bank may establish and operate one or more systems –

Establishment of systems for transfer of funds and transfer and settlement of scripless securities

- (a) for the transfer of funds by and between the Central Bank, licensed commercial banks and such other institutions or persons that maintain a settlement account with the Central Bank and who are admitted as participants to such system by the Central Bank;
- (b) for the transfer and settlement of scripless securities by and between the Central Bank and direct participants;
- (c) for the settlement of payment obligations in respect of transfer and settlement of scripless securities under paragraph (b); and
- (d) for the maintenance of a depository for the recording of title to scripless securities of the Central Bank, of direct participants, and in the case of dealer direct participants, of their customers. The Central Bank may make such rules as it may consider necessary in relation to the depository.

(2) A system established under subsection (1) may be linked to another system in Sri Lanka or elsewhere for the clearing or settlement of payment obligations or securities, and the Central Bank may enter into agreements with the operators of any of such systems.

(3) (a) The Central Bank shall provide facilities for clearance transactions among licensed commercial banks operating in Sri Lanka or any other financial institutions as may be approved by the Governing Board.

(b) The reserves maintained by licensed commercial banks in the Central Bank or the funds maintained in the Central Bank by any financial institution as may be approved by the Governing Board shall serve as a basis for the clearance of cheques and the settlement of balances among such banks and financial institutions in accordance with such rules as may be made in that behalf by the Central Bank.

(4) The Central Bank may enter into agreements with the participants of a system established under subsection (1) and issue in writing to the participants of the system, rules for the operation of the system.

(5) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (4), such rules may provide –

- (a) for the provision of intra-day credit against the collateral of securities to the participants and the conditions attaching to the provision of such credit;
- (b) for the appointment of the Central Bank as a certification authority for the purpose of issuing certificates to participants under any law applicable to the appointment of certification authorities in respect of electronic signatures;
- (c) for the formulation and adoption of a code of conduct for participants;
- (d) for the authentication of transactions carried out electronically;
- (e) for the Central Bank, if it considers necessary in the interest of the system, to cease or suspend the operation of the system, or to withdraw or suspend the privileges or rights of any participant or category of participants or to suspend or revoke the membership in the system of a participant;

- (f) for the appointment of auditors or inspectors for the auditing or inspection of the operating systems of participants in respect of the settlement system; and
- (g) for the payment of charges and fees to the Central Bank by the participants.

(6) A payment or transfer made through a system established under subsection (1), is final and irrevocable –

- (a) in the case of a transaction involving funds transfer only, upon the settlement account of the participant requesting the funds transfer being debited;
- (b) in the case of a transaction involving a securities transfer only, upon the securities account of the participant requesting the securities transfer being debited; or
- (c) in the case of a transaction involving both a funds transfer and a securities transfer, upon debiting the settlement account or the securities account of a participant requesting the funds transfer or the securities transfer as the case may be, whichever occurs earlier, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, such payment or transfer shall not be required to be reversed, repaid or set aside, and subject to the provisions of Articles 126 and 140 of the Constitution, no court shall order such payment or transfer to be rectified or stayed.

(7) (a) Any scripless securities issued under this Act or the Local Treasury Bills Ordinance (Chapter 417) or the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance (Chapter 420) shall be transferred, pledged, encumbered, lent, borrowed or transacted in only as provided by or under the rules made under this Act or regulations made under the Local Treasury Bills Ordinance or the Registered Stock and Securities Ordinance, as the case may be.

(b) A transfer, pledge, encumbrance, loan, borrowing or transaction effected under paragraph (a) shall be valid and effectual notwithstanding anything in any other written law, and the claim of a participant of the system on any scripless securities posted as collateral in accordance with those rules or regulations as may be applicable shall have priority over the claims on such scripless securities of a person who is not a participant of the system.

(8) Nothing in subsections (5) and (6) shall affect any other legal right or remedy available to a person who has suffered any loss or damage by a payment, transfer or settlement effected through a system established under subsection (1).

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions of any written law relating to the winding up of companies, if proceedings for the winding up of a participant of a system have commenced—

- (a) the Central Bank may do anything permitted or required by the rules of the system in order to net obligations incurred on or before the day on which the proceedings commenced;
- (b) the obligations that are netted under the rules of the system shall be disregarded in the proceedings; and
- (c) the netting made by the Central Bank and any payment made by the participant under the rules of the system shall not be voidable in the proceedings.

(10) If proceedings for the winding up of a participant is commenced and a payment or settlement owed by such participant has been made as referred to in subsection (6) or (9), and if a payment or settlement of such funds or securities would have been void or voidable under any other written law if made outside the system, the liquidator of such participant may recover from the person to whose benefit such payment or settlement was made such amount as would have been recoverable, if such payment or settlement had been made outside the system.

(11) Where any transaction effected through a system established under subsection (1) is carried out electronically, such transaction shall not be denied legal effect, validity or enforceability solely on the ground that such transaction is carried out electronically or that the information relating to such transaction is maintained in the form of an electronic record, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, such record may be tendered in evidence in proceedings before any court or tribunal.

(12) Any or all of the functions referred to in subsection (1) or (2) may be carried out by a body corporate authorized for the purpose by the Governing Board, subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Governing Board.

(13) The Central Bank shall provide facilities –

- (a) for financial institutions other than licensed commercial banks, as may be approved by the Governing Board, to maintain accounts at the Central Bank for the purpose of settling securities transactions; and
- (b) for financial institutions other than licensed commercial banks, as may be approved by the Governing Board to maintain accounts at the Central Bank for the purpose of holding scripless securities or clearing and settling transactions in scripless securities among direct participants.

(14) (a) Any or all of the functions referred to in paragraph (d) of subsection (1), paragraph (a) of subsection (3) and subsection (13) may be carried out by a body corporate authorized for the purpose by the Governing Board, subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Governing Board.

(b) The body corporate referred to in paragraph (a) may maintain an account with the Central Bank for the purpose of carrying out such functions.

Licensing and
oversight

60. (1) The Central Bank shall be responsible for the regulation, licensing, registration and oversight of payment, clearing and settlement systems as further specified in the Payment and Settlement Systems Act, No. 28 of 2005 or any other written law relating to regulation, licensing, registration and oversight of payment, clearing and settlement systems.

(2) The Central Bank may, by rules –

- (a) require the registration or licensing of any payment, clearing and settlement system or the operator of such system;
- (b) require any payment, clearing and settlement system or the operator of such system to observe such conditions and requirements as may be prescribed by the Central Bank; and
- (c) regulate and oversee the issuance of payment instruments.

(3) Any employee of the Central Bank or any other qualified person nominated by the Central Bank, may conduct periodic examinations over payment, clearing and settlement systems and the participants of such systems, to examine such accounts, books, documents and other records, or to obtain such information or records of such systems and participants or to take such other action as the Central Bank may direct.

(4) The payment, clearing and settlement systems, and their operators and participants, shall furnish the Central Bank with such information and records as the Central Bank may require.

(5) The Central Bank may disclose information and data obtained under subsection (3) or (4) in whole or in part in accordance with section 79.

PART IX

SUPERVISION AND RESOLUTION OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

61. (1) The Central Bank shall be exclusively responsible for the regulation, licensing, registration and supervision of financial institutions. Such responsibility shall include the imposition of administrative measures within the meaning of section 107.

Supervisory
authority of the
Central Bank

(2) Any employee of the Central Bank or any other qualified person authorized by the Central Bank shall examine the books and accounts of financial institutions, at least once in each examination period, and shall make such further examinations in respect of any financial institution, whenever required so to do by the Governor of the Central Bank.

(3) A report on the results of each examination under this section shall be furnished to the Governing Board.

(4) Any person authorized by the Central Bank may—

- (a) administer oaths or affirmations, in accordance with the Oaths and Affirmations Ordinance (Chapter 17), to any director, officer, or employee of any financial institution;
- (b) require any director, officer, or employee to furnish such information as such person may consider necessary for the purpose of ascertaining the true condition of the affairs of any such financial institution; or
- (c) require any director, officer, or employee to produce for inspection any book, record, or other document in his possession containing or likely to contain any information.

(5) It shall be the duty of every director, officer or employee of any financial institution to afford to the Central Bank or to any person authorized by the Central Bank an opportunity to examine books and records and its cash, assets, liabilities and general condition, whenever so requested by the Central Bank.

(6) The Central Bank may, for the purpose of the continuous supervision of financial institutions—

- (a) require any such financial institution, to furnish from time to time and within such period as may be specified, such statement and information relating to the business or affairs of such financial institution, as it may consider necessary to obtain for the purpose of ascertaining the true condition of the affairs of such financial institution;
- (b) require the auditor of any such financial institution, to furnish to it within such period as may be specified, any information in relation to an audit carried out by such auditor of such financial institution, as it may consider necessary to obtain for the purpose referred to in paragraph (a); and
- (c) examine the books and accounts kept by any such financial institution as it may deem necessary for the purpose of verifying the accuracy of any statement or information so furnished.

(7) Any employee of the Central Bank or any other qualified person authorized by the Central Bank shall examine the books and accounts of any subsidiary or agency of any financial institution including the overseas operations of such financial institution, if directions in that behalf are given by the Central Bank.

(8) The Central Bank may exchange information and data obtained under subsection (4) or (6), in whole or in part or aggregate form, from the classes of financial institutions determined in accordance with the nature of their business, with competent authorities in or outside Sri Lanka that are entrusted with –

- (a) the supervision of other financial institutions;
- (b) the supervision of financial markets;
- (c) maintaining the stability of the financial system through the use of macroprudential policy; and
- (d) the reorganization or resolution of financial institutions, and may enter into an agreement with any of such authorities for determining the procedure for the exchange of information and data and specifying their respective roles and duties.

(9) The Central Bank may disclose information and data obtained under subsection (4) or (6), in whole or in part or aggregate form, from the classes of financial institutions determined in accordance with the nature of their business in accordance with section 79.

(10) In this section-

“examination period” means a period of such duration as may be specified for the purpose by the Central Bank; and

“qualified person” means a person who possesses an academic or professional qualification and extensive knowledge and experience in the field of Banking, Finance, Accounting, Auditing, Law, Risk Management or any other similar field.

authority of the
Central Bank

62. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, the Central Bank shall be the authority responsible for the resolution of financial institutions:

Provided however, where the resolution involves public funds, such resolution decisions shall be taken in consultation with the Minister subject to the applicable laws.

(2) The Central Bank may enter into agreements with foreign supervisors and resolution authorities for the exchange of information and cooperation in resolution planning and in the implementation of resolution measures.

(3) The Central Bank shall carry out resolution planning and implement resolution measures on financial institutions in accordance with the provisions of this Act and other applicable laws.

PART X

MACROPRUDENTIAL AUTHORITY

Macroprudential
objectives of the
Central Bank

63. (1) The Central Bank shall be the macroprudential authority in Sri Lanka.

(2) The Central Bank shall develop and periodically update the overall approach to the use of macroprudential tools, and publish such approaches with a view to informing the public of the role of the Central Bank in macroprudential policy.

(3) In order to achieve the financial stability, the Central Bank shall pursue the following intermediate macroprudential objectives:-

- (a) to maintain the resilience of the financial system, in a manner that supports the provision of financial services even under adverse economic and financial conditions;

- (b) to contain risks from unsustainable increases in credit and leverage; and
- (c) to contain risks from interconnectedness within the financial system and control the risk of failure of individual systemically important institutions.

(4) (a) Without prejudice to the provisions of sections 5 and 6, the Central Bank shall, on the request of the Minister, provide the Minister with information regarding the exercise, performance and discharge of the powers, duties and functions of the Central Bank.

(b) Any specific information relating to supervised or overseen entities may be provided only for the purpose of the Government's functions with respect to financial stability, including crisis prevention and crisis management.

(c) Notwithstanding the confidentiality requirements specified in this Act, the supply of such information shall be subject to such limitations as the Central Bank may deem appropriate to preserve confidentiality.

(5) In the achievement of financial stability under subsection (3), the Central Bank shall consider the interests of depositors.

64. (1) The Central Bank, as the macroprudential authority may-

Macroprudential
powers of the
Central Bank

- (b) request, collect, compile, analyze or publish data, information and statistics in order to achieve the macroprudential objectives;
- (c) conduct stress testing and simulation exercises;

- (d) designate systemically important financial sector participants under section 68;
- (e) adopt and apply the macroprudential instruments indicated in section 66 to financial institutions regulated and supervised by the Central Bank;
- (f) adopt and apply enhanced macroprudential oversight to systemically important financial sector participants;
- (g) identify gaps in regulation that could pose systemic risks;
- (h) formulate strategies and policies to mitigate or address identified systemic risks;
- (i) monitor domestic and international financial regulatory developments and advise on legislative or regulatory measures that will enhance financial stability;
- (j) develop and propose prudential standards to be applied by relevant financial sector authorities in respect of financial sector participants regulated and supervised by such authorities;
- (k) facilitate information sharing and cooperation among relevant financial sector authorities; and
- (l) propose to the Financial System Oversight Committee the recommendations to be issued to public or financial sector authorities.

(2) The Governing Board shall meet at least quarterly for the purpose of deciding any matter in relation to macroprudential authority under this section.

(3) The Central Bank shall, without prejudice to its autonomy, communicate to the Financial System Oversight Committee, such information as may be necessary for the exercise, performance and discharge of powers, duties and functions under this section.

65. (1) The Central Bank shall monitor, analyse, and assess –

Monitoring, analysis and assessment of risks

- (a) vulnerabilities of the financial sector, including the risks arising from the developments in the financial sector;
- (b) risks to the financial system, including those arising from financial developments in the household and non-financial corporate sectors;
- (c) risks to the financial system arising from the broader economic context, in or outside Sri Lanka; and
- (d) any risk to the financial system stability, the nature and extent of such risk, including any risk contemplated in any matter raised by members of the Financial System Oversight Committee or reported by a financial sector authority in terms of this Act or communicated by a public authority.

(2) The Central Bank shall determine the methodology and indicators to be used in the assessment of systemic risks, at an early stage.

66. (1) In order to mitigate or eliminate identified systemic risks, the Central Bank shall issue qualitative and quantitative macroprudential instruments, which include –

Macroprudential
instruments

- (a) countercyclical capital buffers;
- (b) capital conservation buffer;

- (c) dynamic provisioning;

- (k) liquidity tools;
- (l) capital surcharges;
- (m) liquidity surcharges;
- (n) control of inter-linkages in funding or derivatives markets; and
- (o) margin deposit requirements.

(2) The Central Bank may apply macroprudential instruments in respect of any financial sector participant or class of such financial sector participants regulated and supervised by the Central Bank.

Powers of the
Central Bank
upon financial institutions

67. (1) The Central Bank may exercise the following powers upon financial institutions:-

- (a) to directly collect relevant data or information;
- (b) to apply a macroprudential instrument according to section 66;

- (c) to conduct on-site inspections to verify data and information collected under paragraph (a), and verify compliance with the rules made under this Act; and
- (d) to enforce such rules by applying the administrative measures indicated in section 107 of this Act to any financial sector participant that is not compliant, and ordering a financial sector participant to take, or refrain from taking, actions that are necessary to restore compliance.

(2) The Central Bank shall have the power to collect relevant data or information directly from any person or institution in order to achieve its macroprudential objectives.

68. (1) The Central Bank shall prescribe the criteria that are used to designate a financial sector participant as systemically important.

Designation of systemically important financial sector
participants

(2) Nothing provided for in subsection (1) shall be construed so as to entitle any financial sector participant designated as systemically important to claim any form of guarantee or credit or other support from any public authority.

69. The Central Bank shall, if it considers necessary to prevent or mitigate a systemic risk with powers other than macroprudential instruments as provided for in subsection (1) of section 66, or if such risk is likely to be arising from the behaviour of any class of financial sector participants outside of the Central Bank's regulatory or supervisory authority, propose to the Financial System Oversight Committee, recommendations to be issued to relevant public authorities or to financial sector authorities, under section 75.

(2) The Financial System Oversight Committee may invite representatives from any other public authority to the meetings of the Committee to express their opinions.

(3) The Secretary to the Financial System Oversight Committee who shall be an employee of the Central Bank shall be nominated by the Governor of the Central Bank.

(4) The quorum for a meeting of the Financial System Oversight Committee shall be four voting members, including the members referred to in paragraph (a), and (b) or (c) of subsection (1).

(5) Every voting member of the Financial System Oversight Committee shall have one vote and in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

(6) The Financial System Oversight Committee shall, in the case of paragraph (c) of section 72, vote by ordinary resolution.

(7) A meeting of the Financial System Oversight Committee shall be convened at least quarterly. Any extraordinary meeting may be convened by the Chairperson, at his discretion or at the written request of at least two voting members.

(8) The Financial System Oversight Committee may make rules regarding the procedures to be followed at its meetings.

(9) The Secretary to the Financial System Oversight Committee shall keep the minutes of each meeting of the Financial System Oversight Committee at least for a period of twelve years.

Secretariat of the Financial System
Oversight
Committee

74. The Central Bank shall establish a Secretariat of the Financial System Oversight Committee, which shall be responsible for high-quality analytical, statistical, administrative, logistical and financial support to the Financial System Oversight Committee, under the direction of the Chairperson of the Financial System Oversight Committee.

75. (1) Any recommendation under paragraph (c) of section 72 may be of either general or specific nature and may be addressed to all or one or more public authorities, according to the mandate of the authority receiving the recommendation.

Recommendations to public authorities and
financial sector
authorities

(2) The recommendation shall include a specified timeline for the policy response.

(3) The recommendation may be addressed to financial sector authorities in order to request the adoption of specific actions by exercising its regulatory, supervisory, enforcement, or resolution powers, according to the mandate of the authority receiving the recommendation.

(4) The recommendation shall be deemed to be fully implemented when the authority receiving it adopts all the actions within the timeline specified in the recommendation.

(5) (a) Where the receiving authority does not intend to fully implement the recommendation, it shall communicate the reasons therefor to the Secretariat of the Financial System Oversight Committee.

(b) Where the receiving authority implements only a part of the recommendation within the specified timeline, it shall communicate the reasons for not implementing the rest of the recommendation to the Secretariat of the Financial System Oversight Committee.

(6) Where the Financial System Oversight Committee decides not to implement the recommendation in full, it shall make public such decision.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (6), where a recommendation is issued on a financial sector participant designated as systemically important, the Financial System Oversight Committee shall be convened immediately and shall determine whether to re-issue the recommendation subject to a detailed explanation. If any recommendation is re-issued and if it is not fully implemented by the financial sector participant, the Financial System Oversight Committee shall publish the decision taken.

(8) (a) The Financial System Oversight Committee shall, in appropriate circumstances, decide whether a recommendation shall be published.

(b) If the Financial System Oversight Committee decides to make a recommendation public, it shall inform the receiving authority in advance.

(c) The authority receiving a recommendation that has been made public by the Financial System Oversight Committee may make its views and reasoning public in response thereto.

PART XII

INFORMATION EXCHANGE WITH FINANCIAL SECTOR AUTHORITIES

Information
exchange with regard to macroprudential
issues

76. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law, the financial sector authorities shall cooperate with the Central Bank regarding its macroprudential authority and shall provide the Central Bank with all the data and information necessary in the exercise of its macroprudential authority.

(2) Upon a request for data or information or statistics made by the Central Bank under this Part, a financial sector authority shall provide the Central Bank with any such data, information or statistics in its possession within a period specified in such request or within a reasonable period.

Agreement

77. (1) For the implementation of the provisions of this Part of this Act, the Central Bank shall, as soon as practicable, enter into an agreement with each financial sector authority, for determining the procedure for such implementation and specifying their respective roles and duties.

(2) The agreement shall, as a minimum, include provisions on-

- (a) collection and sharing of information; and
- (b) notification and consultation on macroprudential policy measures to be taken by financial sector authorities.

(3) The Central Bank may, for the implementation of the provisions of this Part of this Act, enter into an agreement with any public authority.

(4) The agreement entered into under subsection (1) may be reviewed and updated as appropriate, at least once in every three years.

PART XIII

STATISTICS AND INFORMATION

78. The Central Bank, in order to achieve its objects and for the effective exercise, performance and discharge of its powers, duties and functions under this Act or any other written law, may-

Collection of statistics and
information

- (a) request, collect, compile, analyze, abstract and publish relevant statistics and information;
- (b) prescribe the statistical information so required and the form in which such information is to be provided to the Central Bank, the persons subject to reporting requirements, the applicable confidentiality regime and the administrative measures that may be imposed in case of breach of such requirements; and
- (c) coordinate with bi-lateral and multilateral agencies in the adoption of internationally accepted statistical methodologies and data dissemination standards with a view to achieving consistency and efficiency in the organization of statistics and information.

Dissemination of statistics and
information

79. The Central Bank may publish statistics, information and the methodology applied in the compilation of statistics and information, subject to the provisions of section 119.

PART XIV

RELATIONSHIP WITH THE PARLIAMENT, THE GOVERNMENT AND THE PUBLIC

Accountability

80. (1) The Central Bank shall, once in every six months and at such additional times as it deems necessary, inform the public regarding the implementation of its monetary policy, and the achievement of its objects.

(2) (a) The Governor of the Central Bank, the members of the Governing Board and the Monetary Policy Board and every Deputy Governor of the Central Bank shall, at the request of the Parliament, be heard by the Parliament or any of its committees once in every four months, regarding the functions of the Central Bank.

(b) The Governor of the Central Bank, the members of the Governing Board and the Monetary Policy Board and every Deputy Governor of the Central Bank may, on their own initiative, seek an opportunity to apprise functions of the Central Bank or to submit any document or report of the Central Bank to Parliament.

(3) The Governor of the Central Bank shall ensure that the Central Bank shall, within a period of four months after the close of each financial year, publish, and lay before Parliament through the Minister, a report approved by the Governing Board, on the state of the economy during such financial year emphasizing its policy objectives and the condition of the financial system. The report shall include a review and an assessment of the policies of the Central Bank followed during such financial year.

Financial
advisor, fiscal agent of, and banker to, the Government

81. (1) The Central Bank shall act as the financial advisor to the Government.

(2) The Central Bank may, on such terms and conditions as it shall agree with the Government, act as fiscal agent of the Government to the extent provided for by or under any written law and banker to the Government.

(3) In the discharge of its functions as the fiscal agent of, and banker to the Government, the Central Bank may engage the services of banks or other institutions in places, whether in or outside Sri Lanka, where the Central Bank does not have offices or agencies adequately equipped to perform such functions.

(4) The Central Bank shall, on request of the Government, provide the Government with data on funds received by the Central Bank, acting as the fiscal agent of the Government.

(5) The Government shall, on request of the Central Bank, provide the Central Bank with such information and documents as the Central Bank may request for the purpose of coordinating the functions of the Central Bank with the fiscal policy of the Government.

(6) The Central Bank may represent the Government of Sri Lanka in any dealing, negotiation, or transaction with the International Monetary Fund, the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development or any other international financial institution of which Sri Lanka is a member, and shall maintain such accounts as may result from Sri Lanka's membership in, or operations with, such International Monetary Fund, International Bank for Reconstruction and Development or such other international financial institution. The Central Bank may be authorized by the Government to represent it in any dealing, negotiation, or transaction with foreign Governments, institutions, or agencies.

(7) The Central Bank may operate a registry for securities issued by the Government.

82. (1) The Central Bank shall be the official depository, and may accept deposits in any currency from, or on behalf of the Government:

Depository for the Government

Provided however, the Central Bank may authorize one or more licensed commercial banks operating in Sri Lanka to accept Government deposits, subject to such rules as the Governing Board may prescribe.

(2) As the depository, the Central Bank shall receive and disburse moneys, keep records thereof, and provide other financial services related thereto to the Government.

(3) The Central Bank shall not pay any interest on any deposit held by the Government in Sri Lankan rupees.

Coordination
Council

83. (1) There shall be a Council for the Coordination of Fiscal, Monetary and Financial Stability Policies of the Central Bank, (in this Act referred to as the “Coordination Council”) consisting of the following members:—

- (a) the Governor of the Central Bank, who shall be the Chairperson;
- (b) the Secretary to the Treasury; and
- (c) the Secretary to the Ministry of the Minister assigned the subject of Economic Policy, in the event that such subject is assigned to a Minister other than the Minister of Finance.

(2) The Coordination Council shall hold its meetings quarterly to share information and exchange views on recent macroeconomic developments, outlook, and risks.

(3) The Chairperson of the Coordination Council shall call for an emergency meeting to share information and exchange views on any event or circumstance that poses a significant risk to financial stability, or that is expected to have a substantial adverse effect on economic activity, in Sri Lanka, with contagion effects among financial sector participants.

(4) The Central Bank shall place before the Coordination Council—

- (a) the data relevant for the purpose of subsection (2); and
- (b) the assessment of the Central Bank regarding the impact of economic policies of the Government on inflation, monetary conditions and fiscal operations.

(5) For the avoidance of doubts, the Coordination Council shall have no authority to make decisions over the fiscal, monetary and financial stability policies.

84. (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of sections 5 and 6, the Central Bank shall-

Cooperation
with the Government

- (a) cooperate with the Government and any other public authority; and
- (b) exchange views with the Government and any other public authority on policies relating to monetary, foreign exchange operations, financial system stability, crisis prevention and crisis management and fiscal matters.

(2) The Central Bank and the Minister shall keep each other fully informed of all matters that affect the functions of the Central Bank and the Ministry.

(3) The Central Bank may advise the Government on any matter which, in its opinion, is likely to affect the achievement of the objects of the Central Bank under this Act.

85. Without prejudice to the provisions of sections 5 and 6, the Central Bank may, in order to achieve its objects and in the exercise, performance and discharge of its powers, duties and functions under this Act, cooperate with domestic or foreign regulatory, supervisory or monetary authorities, or with public international financial institutions, with a view to sharing information, coordinating activities, or arranging any other form of cooperation as it may deem necessary.

Inter-
institutional
cooperation

Prohibition on monetary
financing

86. (1) The Central Bank shall not, directly or indirectly, grant credits to the Government or any public authority owned by the Government or to any other public entity.

(2) The Central Bank shall not incur any cost on behalf of the Government, except for expenses related to the functions of the Central Bank under subsection (3) of section 113 of this Act.

(3) The prohibition laid down in subsection (1) shall not apply to such Government-owned or publicly-owned banks and other financial institutions as may be determined by the Governing Board.

(4) The Central Bank shall not purchase securities issued by the Government, any Government-owned entity, or any other public entity in the primary market. The Central Bank may purchase such securities in the secondary market provided that such purchases do not circumvent the prohibition laid down in subsection (1).

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (4), upon a Proclamation being made under the Public Security Ordinance (Chapter 40) in the interests of the Public Security and the preservation of public order, or a global health emergency that substantially and materially disrupts or constraints access by the Government to market funding, the Central Bank may purchase Treasury Bills in the primary market, where-

- (a) the Central Bank, in consultation with the Minister and subject to its monetary policy objectives under this Act, recommends the amount and terms of such Treasury Bills to be purchased under this subsection;
- (b) Parliament approves every each recommendation; and
- (c) upon the approval of Parliament, the Central Bank publishes in the Gazette the reasons for and, the amount and terms of such purchase of Treasury Bills:

Provided, however, the total amount of the purchase of Treasury Bills under this subsection shall-

- (i) not exceed five per centum of the limit of the Treasury Bills approved by Parliament, applicable for the respective financial year;
- (ii) be at prevailing market interest rates;
- (iii) be on a temporary basis for a period not exceeding six month;
- (iv) be repaid immediately upon maturity, in cash only;
- (v) be of maturities not exceeding six months; and
- (vi) not be rolled over or renewed.

PART XV

CREDIT OPERATIONS

87. (1) The Central Bank may, as the agent of the Government-

Credit
operations with
institutions

- (b) issue guarantees, pay indemnity payments, recover any post claim recoveries and write off any unrecoverable balance; or
- (c) disburse grants and interest subsidy, out of the funds of the Government with a view to implementing refinance loan schemes and interest subsidy loan schemes under such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Government.

(2) Any loan or advance granted to such institution shall be made against a promissory note or such other security as may be determined by the Government subject to the following conditions:-

- (a) that the loan or advance is repayable within such period not exceeding fifteen years as may be determined by the Government;

- (b) that the repayment to the Central Bank of the loan or advance is secured by the assignment to the Central Bank, by way of pledge, of debts owed to such institution by its borrowers in respect of such purpose; and
- (c) such other conditions including the rate of interest on such loan or advance, as determined by the Government.

(3) The Central Bank may, in consultation with the Minister, prescribe the terms and conditions subject to which loans or advances will be made available to credit institutions out of the funds provided by the Government, for the purposes for which their loans in general are destined, or relating to any other matters affecting or connected with the credit policy of such institutions.

(4) An assignment of debts to the Central Bank under this Part of this Act shall be effected by an instrument which shall be in such form as may be determined by the Governing Board.

(5) The Central Bank shall, on the execution of an assignment, have a first charge on the debts so assigned.

(6) The provisions of this Part of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other provision of this Act.

Stamp duty

88. No stamp duty shall be chargeable or payable on or in respect of any instrument of assignment of debt by way of pledge to the Central Bank under this Part of this Act.

Registration of instrument of assignment

103. (1) There shall be an Audit Committee of the Central Bank (in this Act referred to as the “Audit Committee”) consisting of such number of members of the Governing Board appointed pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section 8 as may be nominated by the Governing Board.

(2) (a) In the absence of at least one member of the Governing Board with extensive experience in the field of Accounting or Auditing, an expert with extensive experience in such field shall be appointed by the Governing Board as an additional member of the Audit Committee.

(b) The expert shall not have been a member of the Governing Board or an employee of the Central Bank during the period of three years immediately preceding the date of his appointment as a member of the Audit Committee.

(3) An expert appointed under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) shall be removed by a decision of the Governing Board if the Governing Board is satisfied that such expert is subject to any of the disqualifications referred to in subsection (2) of section 17.

(4) The powers, duties and functions of the Audit Committee shall include-

- (a) overseeing the internal audit function;
- (b) monitoring compliance with the findings and recommendations issued by the Chief Internal Auditor;
- (c) meeting with the auditors to discuss their findings; and
- (d) reviewing with the auditors the annual financial statements.

(5) The Audit Committee shall, once in four months report to the Governing Board.

(6) Subject to subsection (2), the Governing Board shall define the composition, and powers, duties and functions of the Audit Committee in the Audit Charter of the Central Bank.

PART XVIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

104. The Central Bank shall, without prejudice to the provisions of section 6, support the general economic policy framework of the Government as provided for in any law with a view to encouraging and promoting the development of the productive resources of Sri Lanka.

Duty of the Central Bank to support the economic policy of the Government

105. (1) The Central Bank shall have the power to make such rules or issue such directions as it may consider necessary for exercising, performing and discharging the powers, duties and functions entrusted to the Central Bank by or under this Act or any other written law.

Regulatory instruments

(2) A rule made by the Central Bank shall have general application. It shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable.

(3) A direction issued by the Central Bank shall be binding on the addressee only.

106. (1) Every rule or order made by the Central Bank under this Act shall be published in the Gazette and shall, except any rule or order specified in subsection (2), come into force on the date of such publication or on such later date as such rule or order shall specify.

Publication of rules and directions

(2) Upon the publication under subsection (1), every rule or order, the contravention of, or failure to comply with which, entails criminal sanction shall, within three months from the date of publication, be placed before Parliament for approval. Such rule or order shall come into force on the date on which such rule or order is approved by Parliament.

(3) The Central Bank shall maintain a public register of its published rules and directions.

Administrative measures

107. (1) The Central Bank may take administrative measures on any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any rule, direction or decision made or issued thereunder.

(2) The Central Bank shall, before taking any administrative measures against a person, afford such person an adequate opportunity to be heard providing all material facts pertaining to the contravention referred to in subsection (1).

(3) (a) The Central Bank shall make rules specifying the procedure to be followed in respect of the imposition of administrative measures.

(b) In the case of administrative fines, the amount of administrative fines shall be prescribed by the Governing Board.

(c) Every rule made under this subsection shall be placed before Parliament for approval.

(d) Every rule made under this subsection shall come into force on the date on which such rule is approved by Parliament.

(4) In determining whether to impose administrative measures, and the extent of such measures, the Central Bank shall take into consideration-

- (a) the severity of the contravention and whether such contravention is recurring;
- (b) whether any loss or damage is caused to the depositors or any other person due to such contravention;

- (c) whether the person against whom a penalty is to be imposed is unduly benefitted from such contravention;
- (d) the financial resources of such person;
- (e) any mitigating factors; and
- (f) such other matters as it considers to be relevant.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in any written or other law, no person shall be liable or subject to any action or proceedings in any court in respect of any loss or damage suffered or incurred or alleged to have been suffered or incurred by any other person by reason of any act or thing done or omitted to be done by such person in carrying out or complying with any provision of this Act or any rule, order or direction made or issued under this Act.

(6) For the purpose of this section, “administrative measures” includes administrative fines, written warnings or orders, suspension and dismissal of administrators of financial institutions, revocation of licences and other measures, as specified in this Act.

108. (1) Where an employee of the Central Bank or a qualified person authorized by the Central Bank is satisfied, after examination by himself or any examiner of the affairs of any banking institution, or upon information received from the banking institution, that the banking institution is insolvent or is likely to become unable to meet the demands of its depositors, or that its continuance in business is likely to involve loss to its depositors or creditors, the employee of the Central Bank or the qualified person authorized by the Central Bank shall make a report accordingly to the Governor of the Central Bank for submission to the Central Bank.

Power of the Central Bank to suspend or restrict business of a banking institution

(2) Where the Central Bank, upon review of the facts and circumstances, is of opinion that action should be taken as hereinafter provided, the Central Bank may make Order directing the banking institution forthwith to suspend business in Sri Lanka and directing an employee of the Central Bank or a qualified person authorized by the Central Bank to take charge of all books, records and assets of the banking institution and to take such measures as may be necessary to prevent the continuance of business by the banking institution.

(3) Subject to the provisions of Articles 126 and 140 of the Constitution, no action or proceeding may be instituted in any court for the purpose of securing the review or revocation of any Order made under subsection (2) or in respect of any loss or damage incurred, or likely to be or alleged to be incurred, by reason of such Order.

(4) An Order made by the Central Bank under subsection (2) in respect of any banking institution shall cease to have effect upon the expiration of a period of six months from the date on which it is made, and it shall be the duty of the Central Bank, as soon as practicable and in any event before expiration of the said period—

- (a) to make Order permitting the banking institution to resume business, either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the Central Bank may consider necessary in the public interest or in the interest of the depositors and other creditors of the banking institution;
- (b) to cause an employee of the Central Bank or a qualified person authorized by the Central Bank to make an application to the competent court under such written law as may be applicable in that behalf for the winding up of the banking institution; or

- (c) to cause an employee of the Central Bank or a qualified person authorized by the Central Bank to make an application to the competent court, to wind up the affairs of a branch of the banking institution, incorporated outside Sri Lanka.

(5) Where an order has been made by the Central Bank under subsection (4) permitting the resumption of business by any banking institution subject to such conditions as may be specified in the Order, the competent court may, on an application made to it in that behalf by the banking institution at any time while the Order is in force, make an order permitting the banking institution to resume business unconditionally, or varying or altering, in such manner as the court may determine, any or all of the conditions specified by the Central Bank, and any such order shall have effect notwithstanding anything in the Order made by the Central Bank under subsection (4).

(6) The employee of the Central Bank or the qualified person authorized by the Central Bank shall be named respondent to any such application and shall be entitled on behalf of the Central Bank to be heard and to adduce evidence at the hearing thereof.

(7) Where an application is made by an employee of the Central Bank or a qualified person authorized by the Central Bank as provided for in subsection (4) for the winding up of any banking institution-

- (a) the banking institution shall not carry on business during the pendency of the application unless it is authorized so to do by the court and except in accordance with such conditions, if any, as may be specified by the court; and
- (b) the court, if it is of opinion after such inquiry as it may consider necessary, that the banking institution is not insolvent, may make an order permitting the banking institution to resume business either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as the court may consider necessary in the public interest or in the interest of the depositors and other creditors of the banking institution.

(8) Every order made by a competent court under this section shall be subject to an appeal to the Court of Appeal and the provisions of the Civil Procedure Code relating to appeals in civil actions shall mutatis mutandis apply in the case of any such appeal:

Provided however, an order under paragraph (b) of subsection (7) shall be final and shall not be subject to appeal.

(9) Every application to a competent court under this section shall be deemed to be an action of the value of five thousand rupees.

(10) In this section—

“competent court”, in relation to any banking institution, means the High Court established by Article 154P of the Constitution and exercising civil jurisdiction under the High Court of the Provinces (Special Provisions) Act, No. 10 of 1996.

(11) Where the business of a banking institution has been suspended under subsection (2), the Central Bank may—

- (a) require such banking institution to forthwith take any action or to do any act or thing which the Central Bank may consider necessary for carrying on the business of such banking institution;
- (b) appoint a fit and proper person to advise such banking institution with regard to the proper conduct of the business of such banking institution;

- (c) assume control of, and carry on the business of such banking institution or delegate to another person, the carrying on of the business of the banking institution;
- (d) reorganize such banking institution by increasing its capital and arranging for new shareholders and by the reconstitution of its board of directors; and
- (e) make such arrangements as are necessary for the amalgamation of such banking institution with any other banking institution that consents to such amalgamation.

(12) (a) Where an Order has been made by the Central Bank under subsection (1) of section 76M of the Banking Act, No. 30 of 1988 in respect of a licensed specialised bank, the provisions of subsections (4), (5), (7), (8), (9), (10) and (11) of this section shall, notwithstanding subsections (3) and (4) of section 76M of the Banking Act and subject to paragraph (ii) of this subsection, mutatis mutandis, apply to such bank as if it were a banking institution.

(b) Where the application of the provisions of subsection (4) of this section requires -

- (i) the winding up of a licensed specialised bank, the Central Bank shall cancel the licence issued to such bank under Part IXA of the Banking Act and the provisions of Part VIII of that Act shall apply to such winding up as if it were a compulsory winding up of the bank, in the case of a bank incorporated or established within Sri Lanka or a compulsory winding up of the affairs or closure of the business of the bank, in the case of a bank incorporated outside Sri Lanka; or
- (ii) the resumption of business of a licensed specialized bank, the Central Bank may exercise the powers conferred on it under section 76N of the Banking Act;

(c) In this subsection “licensed specialised bank” shall have the same meaning as in the Banking Act, No. 30 of 1988.

Training

109. The Central Bank shall promote and sponsor the training of technical personnel on the subjects which are relevant to the operations of the Central Bank, and for that purpose, the Central Bank is hereby authorized to defray the costs of study, in Sri Lanka or abroad, of employees of the Central Bank who are of proven merit, or of any other qualified persons selected by the Central Bank.

Offences under this Act

110. (1) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Act commits an offence under this Act.

(2) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of any rule or order made under this Act, the contravention of, or failure to comply with which entails criminal sanction, commits an offence under this Act.

(3) Where an offence under this Act is committed by a body corporate, then every person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director or an officer of such body corporate shall be deemed to have committed that offence unless such person proves that the offence was committed without such person’s knowledge, or that such person exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

Penalty

111. Any person who commits an offence under this Act shall, on conviction after summary trial before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five million rupees or to imprisonment of either description for a term not exceeding three years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Compounding
offences

112. The Governing Board may, having regard to the circumstances in which an offence under this Act was committed, compound such offence for a sum of money not exceeding one half of the maximum fine specified under this Act for such offence.

113. (1) The Central Bank may collect fees or charges for the services which it renders in the exercise, performance and discharge of the powers, duties and functions under this Act.

Fees and charges

(2) The Central Bank shall publish such fees or charges in its official website.

(3) The Central Bank shall be reimbursed at market rates for any expenditure incurred by it at the request of or on behalf of the Government, for rendering any service other than those specifically provided for in this Act.

114. (1) Except as otherwise specifically authorized by this Act or any other written law, the Central Bank shall not-

Prohibited activities

- (a) grant any credit, except as authorized under this Act or make any monetary or financial gain;
- (b) engage in trade or otherwise have a direct interest in any commercial, industrial, or other undertaking except where such interest is acquired in satisfaction of any of its claims:

Provided however, all such interest shall be disposed of at the earliest possible opportunity;

- (c) purchase the shares of any other bank or financial institution or of any company, or grant loans or advances upon the security of any such shares;
- (d) grant loans or advances on the mortgage of, or otherwise on the security of, immovable property or documents of title relating thereto; or
- (e) acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise any right in or to real property, except as it may consider necessary or expedient for the provision of premises for the conduct of its administration and operations or such other requirements incidental to the discharging of its functions.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the Central Bank may-

- (a) make adequately secured loans to, or have an ownership share or otherwise participate in, any organization that is engaged in activities that are required for the proper discharge of the functions of the Central Bank and including an ownership share or otherwise participate in any company which, in the opinion of the Governing Board, was formed for the advancement and promotion of human resources and technological development in the banking and financial sector in Sri Lanka, or to provide for all or any of the facilities;
- (b) grant loans to any employee of the Central Bank, in accordance with rules made by the Governing Board;
- (c) establish employee retirement funds or similar arrangements for the benefit or protection of the employees of the Central Bank and their dependents and nominees, and manage such funds or arrangements; and
- (d) lease out any property that is not immediately required for the purposes of the Central Bank.

(3) Any activity referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) shall be published by the Central Bank in the report referred to in subsection (3) of section 80.

Provisions of this Act to prevail over
other written law

115. Subject to the provisions of subsection (6) of section 119, the provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law and accordingly, in the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the provisions of this Act and such other written law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

116. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other written law – Tax exemption

- (a) the Central Bank shall be exempt from the payment of income tax;
- (b) all goods of any description imported or purchased out of bond by the Central Bank shall be exempt from customs duty; and
- (c) the Central Bank shall be exempt from the payment of stamp duty on any instrument executed by, or on behalf of, or in favour of the Central Bank in cases where, but for this exemption, the Central Bank would be liable to pay the duty chargeable in respect of such instrument.

117. (1) The Central Bank shall have the first priority and an unconditional preferential right against all other claims to satisfy each of its claims arising from the discharge of its functions from any cash balances, securities and other assets that it holds for the account of the debtor concerned, whether as collateral to secure its claims or otherwise, at the time such claim becomes due and payable. Preferential right

(2) The Central Bank may exercise its preferential right only by appropriating the cash balances by way of compensation and by selling securities and other assets without undue delay in a commercially reasonable manner and paying itself from the proceeds of the sale after deducting therefrom the costs associated with the sale.

(3) No action from any court of law or from any public entity shall be required for the Central Bank to exercise its preferential right under subsection (2), and no other claim shall be permitted to delay the exercise by the Central Bank of its preferential right in accordance with subsection (2).

Immunity from
attachment

118. (1) No attachment or execution shall be issued against the Central Bank or its property, including gold, special drawing rights, currency, credits, deposits or securities, and any proceeds thereof, before the issuance of a final judgment by any court of law established in Sri Lanka.

(2) The Central Bank may, at its discretion, waive the protection either in whole or in part, explicitly and in writing, except with respect to its gold and the special drawing rights.

Confidentiality

119. (1) No person who serves or has served as the Governor of the Central Bank, any other member of the Governing Board and Monetary Policy Board, a member of the Financial System Oversight Committee, or an employee of the Central Bank or in any other capacity under the authority of the Central Bank shall, except in the exercise, performance and discharge of such person's powers, duties and functions under this Act or any other written law, permit access to, disclose or publicize any non-public information which he has obtained in the performance of his duties or use such information, or allow such information to be used, for personal gain.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), any person referred to in that subsection may disclose non-public information outside the Central Bank, in accordance with procedures established by the Governing Board, if such disclosure-

- (a) is made in accordance with the written consent of the natural or legal person to whom such information relates;
- (b) is made as required by a court of law or to comply with any other provisions of this Act or any other written law for the time being in force;

- (c) is made to the external auditors of the Central Bank to such extent as is necessary to conduct the audit of the Central Bank;
- (d) is made to provide information to domestic or foreign regulatory, supervisory, or monetary authorities, or to public international financial institutions, in the exercise of their duties in relation to the Central Bank; or
- (e) is required in the interests of the Central Bank in any legal proceedings.

(3) The Governing Board shall be entitled to determine the classification and accessibility of information held by or drawn up by the Central Bank.

(4) Where, in any legal proceedings, a certified copy of any book or document of the Central Bank or of any entry in such book or document is produced, such certified copy shall be received as prima facie evidence of the existence of such book, document or entry, as the case may be, and shall be admitted as evidence of the matters, transactions or accounts therein recorded in every case where, and to the same extent as, the original book, document or entry is now by law admissible, but not further or otherwise.

(5) In this Section, “certified copy” in relation to any book, document or entry, means a copy of such book, document or entry, together with a certificate written at the foot of such copy-

- (a) that it is a true copy of such book, document or entry;
- (b) that such book or document is still in the custody of the Central Bank; and

- (c) that such entry is contained in one of the ordinary books of the Central Bank, and was made in the usual and ordinary course of business, and such certificate being dated and subscribed with the name and official title of such officer as may be authorized for the purpose by the Governor of the Central Bank.

(6) The provisions of the Right to Information Act, No. 12 of 2016 shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, and accordingly in the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the provisions of the Right to Information Act and this Act, the provisions of the Right to Information Act shall prevail in relation to any information of the Central Bank.

Protection from
action

120. No civil or criminal proceedings shall be instituted against the Governor of the Central Bank, members of the Governing Board and Monetary Policy Board, any employee of the Central Bank, or a person who previously held such a position, for any act which in good faith is done or purported to be done by him under this Act pursuant to and in the course of the exercise, performance and discharge of the powers, duties and functions on behalf of the Central Bank, if he proves that he acted in good faith and exercised all due diligence, reasonable care and skill.

Indemnification
for costs in legal proceedings

121. (1) The Governor of the Central Bank, other members of the Governing Board and Monetary Policy Board, employees of the Central Bank, every person who has been a member of any of such Board or an employee of the Central Bank shall be indemnified by the Central Bank for all losses and expenses incurred by him after appointed date in or about the exercise, performance and discharge of his powers, duties and functions under this Act, other than such losses and expenses as the Governing Board may deem to have been constituted due to his misconduct or willful default.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), every person who has the benefit of such indemnity shall be entitled to seek legal advice or obtain legal representation in respect of any inquiry or investigation conducted by any statutory authority or any legal proceedings instituted against such person. The Central Bank shall pay such cost as may be reasonably incurred in respect of such inquiry or investigation or proceedings, as and when such cost is incurred:

Provided however, where it is held that a person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Central Bank due to misconduct or willful default on the part of such person, he shall be forthwith required to reimburse the Central bank on demand, the total cost so incurred by the Central Bank. The amount so demanded shall constitute a debt due from such person to the Central Bank until reimbursed.

122. The Governor of the Central Bank, other members of the Governing Board and Monetary Policy Board and the employees of the Central Bank shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning and for the purpose of the Penal Code (Chapter 19).

Members and employees deemed to be public servants

123. The Central Bank shall be deemed to be a Scheduled Institution within the meaning of the Bribery Act (Chapter 26) and the provisions of that Act shall be construed accordingly.

Central Bank deemed to be a Scheduled Institution.

124. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

REPEALS AND SAVINGS

125. The Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422) is hereby repealed.

Repeal of the
Monetary Law
Act (Chapter 422)

126. (1) The Governor of the Central Bank appointed under the provisions of the Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422) and holding office on the day immediately prior to the appointed date shall be deemed to be and continue to be the Governor of the Central Bank under this Act, and shall continue to serve in such office until the expiration of the term of his office.

Continuation of
terms of office

(2) The members of the Monetary Board appointed under the provisions of the Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422), except the Secretary to the Treasury appointed under that Act and holding office on the day immediately prior to the appointed date shall be deemed to be the members of the Governing Board under this Act, and shall continue to be members of the Governing Board under this Act until the expiration of the term of their respective offices.

(3) The persons who continue to be the Governor of the Central Bank or the members of the Governing Board in terms of the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) shall be eligible for reappointment to any office under this Act:

Provided however, any such person shall not serve for a term exceeding twelve years including the period such person served as the Governor of the Central Bank or an appointed member, under the provisions of the Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422).

Provisional
advances

127. (1) Notwithstanding the prohibition in section 86 of this Act, the Central Bank may make new direct provisional advances to the Government to finance expenditures authorized to be incurred out of the Consolidated Fund within the first month of the financial year:

Provided however, every such new advance shall be repaid within a period of not exceeding six months and the total amount of such advances outstanding shall not exceed ten per centum of the revenue of the first four months of the preceding financial year as reported in the half yearly report published by the Ministry of the Minister under the Fiscal Management (Responsibility) Act, No. 3 of 2003 for the relevant period.

(2) Such new advances shall bear interest at prevailing market-related rates as determined by the Central Bank.

(3) Such new advances shall not be made to refinance the outstanding credit of the Central Bank to the Government on the appointed date.

(4) The provisions of subsections (1), (2) and (3) of this section shall be effective until such time provisions are made by law for the Government to finance its immediate fiscal requirements.

Central Bank to purchase
securities issued by the Government

128. Notwithstanding the prohibition in subsection (4) of section 86, the Central Bank may purchase securities issued by the Government in the primary market, bearing interest at prevailing market-related rates, within a period of eighteen months from the appointed date:

Provided however, such securities shall mature or be redeemed within a period of one year from the appointed date and the total amount of such securities purchased shall not exceed one-tenth of the limit of the Treasury Bills approved by Parliament.

129. (1) Notwithstanding the prohibition in subsections (1) and (4) of section 86, any outstanding credit of the Central Bank to the Government and any holding of securities purchased on the primary market as at the appointed date may be maintained.

Transitory credit to the Government

(2) The Central Bank shall, in consultation with the Minister, convert any outstanding credit of the Central Bank to the Government and any outstanding securities purchased on the primary market as at the appointed date, over a period of one year immediately succeeding such date, into negotiable debt instruments with a specified maturity period on which the Central Bank shall, as much as possible, sell such debt instruments under its monetary policy.

130. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 96 and 97, if from the appointed date the latest audited financial statements of the Central Bank prior to the appointed date reflect that the values of its assets are below the sum of its monetary liabilities and paid-up capital, and in accordance with the Government's financial position, it is unable to transfer to the Central Bank the necessary amount in currency or in negotiable debt instruments pursuant to section 97, the Central Bank shall not be required to pay and credit any remaining distributable earnings pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 96 to the Consolidated Fund, but such distributable earnings shall instead be applied to restore its capital to an unimpaired level:

Application of distributable earnings to restore the capital

Provided however, if the capital of the Central Bank is or continues to be impaired after a period of six years from the appointed date, the provisions of section 97 shall be applicable.

131. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 114, any outstanding credit granted to credit institutions pursuant to section 88A of the Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422) and any credit guarantee given under section 108 or 108A of the said Act shall be maintained under this Act subject to the terms and conditions as agreed.

Central Bank to continue to act
as agent of the Government

132. Notwithstanding the repeal of the Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422), the Central Bank shall continue to act as agent of the Government pursuant to sections 112 and 113 of the repealed Act, which shall be limited only in respect of the issuance of securities of the Government for the account of the Government and in respect of the management of public debt, until such date as the relevant law relating to public debt management agency or office comes into operation.

Rights and obligations of the Monetary
Board

133. (1) Any right or obligation attributed to the Monetary Board under the Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422) or any other law prior to the appointed date shall be assumed by the Central Bank under this Act, except as provided otherwise.

(2) Any action, regulation or decision taken or issued or made by the Monetary Board under the Monetary Law Act (Chapter 422) or any other law prior to the appointed date, shall be deemed to have been taken or issued or made by the Central Bank under this Act, except as provided otherwise.
