PRISONS ORDINANCE (CHAPTER 54)

RULES made by the Minister of Justice under section 94 of the Prisons Ordinance (Chapter 54).

Dr. WIJEYADASA RAJAPAKSHE,
Minister of Justice, Prison Affairs and Constitutional Reforms.

Colombo,
07th July, 2022.

Rules

Prison Rules published in the Gazette No. 7093 of March 19, 1920 are hereby further amended as follows:-

- (1) Under the heading “RULES AS TO THE MEDICAL OFFICER”, by the repeal of the rule 80 thereof and the substitution therefor of the following:-

“80. (1) Where a Medical Officer or a Medical Practitioner has diagnosed a sentenced prisoner with a serious illness from which he is unlikely to recover, based on the written evidence of such Medical Officer or the Medical Practitioner, after being recommended by a Medical Board appointed by the Minister assigned the subject of health, such prisoner may be considered for placement under correctional supervision or on parole.

(2) Where the Medical Officer or the Medical Practitioner is of the opinion-

- (a) that the life of a prisoner will be endangered by further imprisonment and that the prisoner's condition cannot be improved by temporary removal to a public hospital for surgical or other treatment; or
- (b) that the prisoner has being diagnosed with a terminal illness which is likely to terminate fatally within a brief period and before the expiration of the sentence and that the prisoner is still capable of being removed and there is reason to think that the prisoner has friends or relatives able and willing to take care of him in the event of his release; or
- (c) that the mental condition of the prisoner will be adversely affected or endangered by further imprisonment, the Medical Officer or the Medical Practitioner shall forthwith, submit to the Director General of Health Services a full medical report together with the particulars of such prisoner on prison form 26.

(3) The Director General of Health Services shall on receipt of such report under paragraph (2), appoint a Medical Board to examine the prisoner and to report on such prisoner on Prison Form 30, and forward such report together with his own recommendations thereon and all papers relevant to such prisoner marked "Urgent", to the Minister assigned the subject of justice through the Minister assigned the subject of health for submission to the President, for consideration for grant of pardon under the provisions of the Constitution."

(2) Under the heading RULES AS TO ADMISSION AND DISCHARGE OF PRISONERS:-

(a) by the repeal of rule 165 and substitution therefor of the following:-

"165. (1) A child of a female prisoner may be received into the prison with the mother if that child is below five years of age and is not attending school. When such child is received to the prison with the mother, the jailer shall certify on the back of the warrant that the child has been received, and obtain the Superintendent's signature to the endorsement.

(2) When a child is received into the prison, the jailer at once shall report such fact to the Superintendent and the Medical Officer of the prison. The Medical Officer shall, within twenty-four hours of the admission of the Child, conduct an examination of the child and submit the Medical report to the Superintendent.

(3) The Superintendent shall inform the fact of admission of the child to the Department of probation and Child Care Services, forthwith which shall as soon as practicable confer with the Superintendent and the Medical Officer of the prison whether it is in the best interest of the child to reside with the mother.

(4) The Continued residence of the child within the prison premises is dependent upon such assessment.

(5) Based on the assessment, where the Department of Prisons decides that it is not in the best interest of the child to reside with the mother in prison, the Department of probation and Child Care Services may place the child in the care of relatives of the Child if satisfactory arrangements can be made for the physical and psychological maintenance of the Child. If placing the child in the care of relatives is found not to be in the best interest of the Child, the child to be handed over to the Department of probation and Child Care.

(6) Department of Prisons shall ensure facilities for the proper biological, psychological and social growth of Children residing with female prisoners including food, education, medical facilities and appropriate recreation within the prison.

(7) As far as practicable, prison authorities shall maintain special units for mother and child in female prisons to ensure a safe environment for children.”.

(b) by the repeal of rule 166 and substitution therefor of the following:-

“166. When a child reaches the age of five years, the child shall be separated from the mother upon the certificate of the medical officer that the child is in a fit condition to be separated from the mother. The Department of prison shall ascertain whether satisfactory arrangements can be made for the maintenance of the child outside the prison. If no such arrangements can be made, the child shall be handed over to the Department of Probation and Child Care.”.

(3) Under the heading RULES AS TO SEPARATION AND CLASSIFICATION OF PRISONERS:-

(a) by the repeal of rule 178 and substitution therefor of the following:-
