- (iii) Upon any sum of money due from the society to such member in respect of the purchase of any scheduled agricultural product as an agent of any Statutory Board.

- (b) Any outstanding demands or dues payable to a housing society by any member or past member in respect of rent, shares, loans or purchase money or any other rights or amounts payable to such society shall be a first charge upon his interest in the immovable property of the society.

- (c) The Member in this section shall include the Associate members.

Charge and set-off in respect of shares or interest of members.

25. (1) A registered society shall have a charge upon the shares or other interests in the capital and on the deposits of a member or past member or deceased member and upon any dividend, bonus or profits payable to a member or past member or to the estate of a deceased member in respect of: –

- (a) Any debt due to the society;

(b) Any debt due to any other registered society; Or

(c) Any amount due to the liquidator of any registered society: from such member or past member or estate, and may set off, or pay to such other society, or liquidator, as the case may be, any sum credited or payable to a member or past member or estate of a deceased member in or towards payment of any such debt or amount.

26. Subject to the provisions of section 25, the share contribution or other interest of a member in the capital of a registered society shall not be liable to attachment or sale under any decree or order of a court in respect of any debt or liability incurred by such member, and neither his assignee in-insolvency nor a receiver appointed under Chapter L of the Civil Procedure Code, shall be entitled to, or have any claim on, such share, contribution or other interest.

Shares, contributions and other interests not liable to attachment or sale.

27. (1) On the death of a member, a registered Society with limited liability or with unlimited liability may transfer the share or other interest of the deceased member to the person nominated in accordance with the rules made in that behalf, or, if there is no person so nominated, to such persons as may appear to the committee to be the heir or legal representative of the deceased member, or may pay to such nominee, heir, or legal representative, as the case may be, a sum representing the value of such member's share or other interest, as ascertained in accordance with the rules or by-laws.

Transfer of interest on the death of a member.

28. (1) A registered society may receive deposits from or for the benefit of minors and it shall be lawful for a registered society to pay to such minors the interest, which may become due on such deposits. Any deposits made by a minor may, together with the interest accrued thereon, be paid to that minor; and any deposit made on behalf of a minor may, together with the interest accrued thereon, be paid to the guardian of that minor for the use of the minor.

Deposits by or on behalf of minor.

(2) The receipt of any minor or guardian for money paid to him by a society under this section shall be a sufficient discharge of the liability of that society in respect of that money.

29. (1) The liability of a past member for the debts of a registered society as they existed on the date on which he ceased to be a member shall continue for a period of two years reckoned from that date.

Liability of past member and estate of deceased member for debts of society.

(2) The estate of a deceased member shall, for a period of two years reckoned from the date of his decease, be liable for the debts of the society as they existed on the date of his decease.

30. (1) Any register or list of members kept by any registered society shall be prima facie evidence of any of the following particulars entered therein: -

Register of members.

(a) The date on which the name of any person was entered in such register or list as a member;

(b) The date on which any such person ceased to be a member;

(c) The name of the nominee of the member and date of nomination.

31. (1) A copy of any entry in a book of a registered society regularly kept in the course of business shall, if certified in such manner as may be prescribed by the rules, be received in any legal proceeding, civil or criminal, as prima facie evidence of the existence of such entry, and shall be admitted as evidence of the matters, transactions, and accounts therein recorded in every case where, and to the same extent as, the original entry itself is admissible.

Proof of entries in books of society.

(2) No officer of any registered society shall in any legal proceedings to which the society is not a party, be compelled to produce any of the society's books, the contents of which can be proved under Sub-section (1) or to appear as a witness to prove any matters, transactions or accounts therein recorded, unless the court for special reasons so directs.

Deposits of securities as pledges by a society.

32. (1) Notwithstanding any written or other law for the time being in force, registered society may: —
- (a) Pledge as security for a general balance of account any securities held by it ; and
 - (b) Authorize the creditor, in the event of default of payment on the date of the termination, of a notice issued to the society, to sell any or all of such securities, without recourse to court, and to credit the proceeds to such balance of account.

Right to acquire and sell property.

33. A registered society may acquire by purchase, gift or otherwise and take on lease lands, buildings or other movable or immovable property, or sell, mortgage, lease exchange or otherwise dispose of lands, buildings or other movable or immovable property for any purpose connected with its objects.

Provided however, that in the case of any transaction previously referred to in this section in connection with any immovable property or any movable property specified in the rules specifically made for the purpose, the prior approval of the Registrar shall be obtained in writing.

Compulsory acquisition of lands and buildings.

34. (1) Where any land or building is required for any purpose connected with the objects of a registered society, that purpose shall be deemed to be a public purpose and that land or building may be acquired under the Land Acquisition Act by the Government or the North Central Provincial Council for that society.

(2) Where any land or building is to be acquired under the Land Acquisition Act by the Government or the North Central Provincial Council for a registered society, that society shall, before an Order relating to that land or building is made under section 38 of the said Act, pay to the Government and the Provincial Council the amount determined under that Act as the compensation payable in respect of such land or building and also the costs incurred by the Government or by the North Central Provincial Council in the acquisition process.

Provided however, that where it becomes necessary to take possession of any land or building on the ground of any urgency before the amount of compensation is determined under the said Act, the society concerned shall pay to the Government before such Order is made such amount as, in the opinion of the acquiring officer is likely to be determined as the compensation payable in respect of that land or building, and shall pay the balance amount, if any, after the amount of compensation is determined under the said Act.

CHAPTER V Exemption from Stamp Duty and Fees

Audit.

44. (1) Every registered society shall cause proper accounts of the income and expenditure, assets and expenditure, assets and liabilities and of all other transactions of the society to be kept.

(2) Every registered society shall prepare an annual statement of accounts and statistics relating to the activities of the society, as may be required by the Registrar or any person authorized by him. Such statement of accounts shall be submitted to the Registrar or other person authorized by him within three months of the close of the financial year to which it relates.

(3) It shall be the responsibility of any registered society to cause the accounts of the society be audited by a person or an institute approved by the Registrar at least once a year.

45. (1) In the event of disclosure of any defects in the business of a registered co-operative society at the audit held under Section 44, the Registrar may bring such defects to the notice of the society and if such society is a member of another society, also to the notice of that other society.

Communication of defects in society audit to societies.

(2) The Registrar may make an order directing the society or its officers to take such action as may be specified in the order within the time stipulated therein to remedy the defects disclosed.

(3) The Registrar shall take action in terms of the powers vested in him under the provisions of this Statute and the rules against such society or officials who violate or neglect the orders made by the Registrar.

Chapter IX

INSPECTION, INQUIRY OR INVESTIGATION OF A REGISTERED SOCIETY

46. (1) Where the membership moneys or moneys which are not membership moneys of a registered co-operative society are misused, the Registrar may of his own motion, and shall, on the application of majority of the committee, or of not less than one-third of the members, or representatives who are eligible to be present at a General Meeting in terms of the by-laws of a registered society or one third of the total membership or One Hundred members of the society whichever is less, hold an inquiry or direct some person authorized by him or order in writing in that behalf, to hold an inquiry into the constitution, business, and financial condition of the registered society.

Inquiry.

Provided, however, the Registrar shall have the power to hold a preliminary inquiry or direct in that behalf to find whether there is a prima facie case for such an inquiry, before directing to hold an inquiry as provided in Sub-section (1) hereto.

(2) For the purposes of an inquiry under Sub-section (1), the Registrar or any person authorized by him to hold an inquiry, shall have the power:-

- (a) to summon any past or present officer, agent, employee or member of the society or any other person who, in the opinion of the Registrar or the person authorized by him to inquire, can give material information about any transactions of the society or the management of its affairs;
- (b) to require the production of any book or document relating to the affairs of the society, or any cash or other property belonging to the society, by any past or present officer, agent, employee or member of the society or other person in possession of or having the custody of such book, document, cash or other property;
- (c) to summon a general meeting of the members of the society at such time and place as may be specified by him to determine such matters as may be directed by him; and
- (d) to take into his custody books of accounts or the documents of the society where he has disclosed a fraud, in the course of such inquiry;

(3) Any meeting summoned under Sub-section (2)(c) above shall have all the powers of a general meeting called under the by-laws of the society and its proceedings shall be regulated by such by-laws except that no quorum shall be necessary for such meeting and the provisions of the by-laws relating to the period of notice relating to a general meeting shall not be applicable. The Registrar or any person authorized by him may preside at such meeting but shall have no vote; in the event of an equality of votes, he shall have a casting vote.

(4) If the registrar opines that there is prima facie evidence to establish the charge against the Committee, he shall have the power to suspend such Committee for a period of six months and to appoint an interim committee to manage and administer the affairs of the society. The Registrar or any other authorized person shall conclude the inquiry within a period of six months from the date of suspension of the Committee and a final decision regarding such Committee shall be made under Sub-section 60 (a).

(5) Where an inquiry is held under this Section the Registrar shall communicate the result of the inquiry to the society and to the society, if any, of which that society is a member and to any bank to which the society is indebted.

(6) The Registrar and every person authorized by him to hold an inquiry under this Section shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code.

Inspection of books and investigation of affairs of a society.

47. (1) The Registrar shall of his own motion, or on the application of a majority of the committee, or of not less than one-third of the members or representatives who are eligible to be present at a general meeting in terms of the by-laws, or one-third of the total membership or One Hundred Members of the society whichever is less, or creditor of a registered society, inspect, or may direct any person authorized generally or specially by him by order in writing in that behalf to inspect, the books of the society:

Provided that no such inspection shall be made on the application of a creditor unless the applicant -

(a) proves that an ascertained sum of money is then due to him and that he has demanded payment thereof and has not received satisfaction within a reasonable time; and

(b) deposits with the Registrar such sum as security for the costs of the proposed inspection as the Registrar may require.

(2) The Registrar may of his own motion investigate or direct any person authorized by him to investigate the affairs of any registered society.

(3) The Registrar, or any person authorized by the Registrar shall have the power to conduct inquiry and investigation, to take into his custody books or the documents, to communicate to banks and creditors, and shall have the right to levy necessary fees at inquiries and investigations, to execute the orders of the Magistrate and to summon members. Provisions shall be made in rules with regard to the right to the disclosure or submission of information to an official, agent, sub-agent, employee, member, associate member or any other person and the right to convene the general meeting, to take into custody of documents and to inquire and obtain information.

(4) Any sum awarded by way of costs against any society or creditor under this Section may be recovered, on application to the Magistrate's Court having jurisdiction in the place where the registered office of the society is situated or the creditor resides, in like manner as a fine imposed by the Court.

(5) The Registrar and every person authorized by him to inspect the books or investigate the affairs of a registered society shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of the Penal Code and he shall have powers in terms of the provisions made in the rules.

Chapter X

SUSPENSION OR INTERDICTION AND REMOVAL OF OFFICERS AND DISSOLUTION OF THE COMMITTEE OF A REGISTERED SOCIETY

Dissolution of the committee of Society.

48. (1) If the Registrar is of opinion after an inquiry under Section 46 or an inspection or investigation under section 47 that the committee of any registered society or any members of such committee are not performing their duties and functions in a proper manner, he may after giving the Committee or its members an opportunity to submit their objections if any, in writing to the dissolution of the committee or the removal of any members from office, and after considering such objections at a general meeting of the society summoned by him: -

- (a) dissolve the Committee or remove any members of the Committee from office;
- (b) direct such society to fill the vacancies created by the removal of the Committee or any member thereof within 14 days;
- (c) appoint a person or persons for the management of the affairs of the society if the society fails to comply with the directive of the Registrar and such committee shall have all rights, privileges and powers;
- (d) re-election of any member of a Committee who is removed from office under Sub-section (1)(a) above as a member of the committee in any registered Co-operative Society until the lapse of 07 years from the date of such removal shall be unlawful.
- (e) it shall be the duty of the board of management to take action in terms of by-laws to appoint a committee prior to the expiry of the term of such board of management.

(2) If the Registrar is of opinion, after an inquiry under section 46 or an inspection or investigation under Section 47, that an ex-committee of a registered society or a member of such ex-committee has not performed its or his duties in a proper manner, the Registrar may, after taking action against the said committee or the members of such committee in terms of the provisions of Sub-section (1) above: -

- (a) appoint a person or persons for the management of the affairs of the society and the committee so appointed shall have all the rights, privileges and powers;
- (b) any member of the Committee dissolved in terms of Sub-section (1) above, shall not be re-elected as a member of a committee of any registered co-operative society until the lapse of 07 years from the date of such dissolution;
- (c) a Committee shall be appointed in accordance with the by-laws to operate the affairs of the society before the expiry of the term of the board of management appointed to the society.

(3) If the Registrar is of opinion, after an inquiry under Section 46 or an inspection or investigation under Section 47, that an ex-committee of a registered society or a member of such ex-committee has not performed its or his duties in a proper manner, the Registrar may, after taking action against the said committee or the members of such committee in terms of the provisions of Sub-section (1), issue a direction in writing prohibiting the said committee or any member thereof, from being re-elected to any committee of the said society or any other registered co-operative society. The election of any such person to the committee of any registered co-operative society after such direction shall be unlawful.

(4) The term of office of a person or persons appointed on an order issued under Sub-section (iii) of Section (a) shall be restricted to the unexpired part of the term of office of the person removed under Sub-section 56(a). Provided however if a General Body has not been established in accordance with the by-laws of any registered society, the Registrar or the Commissioner shall have the power to extend the term of office of the person so appointed until the election of a committee after establishing the General Body. Where any by-law prevents the establishment of such General Body the Registrar shall have the power to exempt the society from the requirements of such by-law and make necessary provisions for the establishment of a General Body.

(5) Where any order is made under Sub-section (a), the Registrar shall, by the same or subsequent order, appoint a fit and proper person or two or more such persons to manage and administer the affairs of the society and may from time to time remove or replace any person so appointed or appoint additional persons.

(6) Subject to the general direction and control of the Registrar, any person or persons appointed under this Section to manage the affairs of a registered society: -

(a) shall have the power to recover the assets and discharge the liabilities of the society and take such other steps as may be necessary in its interest ;

(b) shall have and may exercise all the powers, rights and privileges of a duly constituted Committee of the society, and where it becomes necessary to do so in the interest of the efficient management of the affairs of such society, shall have the powers of the General Body as are necessary.

(7) Persons appointed under this Section by the Registrar to manage the affairs of a registered society shall be jointly and severally held accountable for any loss suffered by any such acts committed by them as are contrary to the law or the By-laws of the society and shall be liable to any punishment imposed on the society.

(8) The Registrar may fix the remuneration payable to any person or persons appointed by him under this Section to manage the affairs of a registered society. The amount of such remuneration and other expenses if any, incurred in the management of the society shall be payable from the funds of the said society.

(9) It shall be the duty of the person or persons appointed under this Section to manage the affairs of a registered society and holding office immediately prior to the date on which the direction under paragraph (b) of Sub-section (1) ceases to have effect to arrange prior to the date aforesaid, for the appointment of a new committee in accordance with the by-laws of the society.

(10) Before the completion of an inquiry under Section 46 or an inspection or investigation under Section 47, if the Registrar is of opinion that a prima facie case has been established against the Committee, the Registrar shall have the power to suspend such Committee for a period of six months and appoint an interim board to manage and administer the affairs of a society. The Registrar shall complete such inquiry or investigation within six months from the date of suspension of such committee and take a final decision regarding the dissolution of such committee under Sub-section (a)(i) above.

(11) The Registrar shall appoint a board of management comprising of three members in place of the Committee so dissolved and those who are so appointed shall possess the qualifications as prescribed by the rules.

(12) (a) If the Registrar is of the opinion after an inquiry under Section 46, or an inspection or investigation under Section 47, that any officer or employee of any registered society is not performing his duties in a proper manner, or is unfit or otherwise unable to discharge his duties efficiently, he may notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Statute, the Co-operative Employees Commission Statute, No. 09 of 1994 of the North Central Province Provincial Council or any other law after giving such officer or employee an opportunity to submit their objections, by order in writing suspend or interdict as the case may be such officer or employee pending such inquiry as may be necessary and after such inquiry remove such officer or employee from office.

Provided that any employee aggrieved by an order of removal made under this sub-section, may appeal to the Co-operative Employees Commission established under Statute No. 01 of 1994 of the North Central Province Provincial Council within a period of thirty days, and the decision of such Commission shall be final —

(b) Where any officer or employee is removed under Sub-section (1) above and where such order for removal has been affirmed by the Co-operative Employees' Commission or no appeal against such order has been preferred within thirty days, another officer or employee may be appointed or elected as the case may be in accordance with the provisions applicable in respect to such election or appointment.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Statute or any other law or By-laws of a registered society, the Registrar may nominate some number of persons as members of the committee of such society as he thinks fit, or as the case may be, when it is his opinion that it is expedient to nominate some number of persons as members of the committee, in order to ensure the efficient management of affairs of the registered society which is run by the State capital or for the purpose of securing the investment or advances made in money or goods by the State or the Provincial Council of the North Western Province to that society.

Chapter XI

DISSOLUTION OF A REGISTERED SOCIETY

49. (1) If the Registrar, after an inquiry under Section 46, or an inspection or an investigation under Section 47, or on receipt of an application made by three-fourths of the members of a registered society, and after giving an opportunity to the society and to the creditors of such society to state their objections, is of opinion that the society ought to be dissolved, he may by order under his hand cancel the registration of the society.

Dissolution of a registered society.

(2) Any member or any creditor of a registered Co-operative Society may, within two months from the date of an order under Sub-section (1) above, appeal from such order to the Minister - in - charge of the subject of Co-operative.

(3) Where no appeal is made within two months from the making of an order canceling the registration of a Co-operative Society, the order shall take effect on the expiry of that period. Where an appeal is made within the said two months, the order shall not take effect until it is confirmed after the hearing of such appeal.

(4) Where the Registrar cancels the registration of a Co-operative Society under Sub-section (1), he may appoint one or more persons to be in charge of the books, documents and other property of the society and to manage the affairs of the society until the order cancelling the registration of the society takes effect, or until such order is reversed in appeal by the Minister of Co-operatives in the North Central Province Provincial Council. Upon the appointment of such person or persons the Committee of the society or any other person in charge of the books, documents, and other property of the society shall hand over such books, documents or property to the first-mentioned person or persons and such committee shall cease to function until the order cancelling the registration takes effect or until such order is reversed in appeal by the Minister of Co-operatives in the North Central Province Provincial Council.

50. (1) Dissolution of any registered co-op. society, if & when thus :-

Cancellation of registration of society.

- (a) where it is a condition of the registration of the society that the society shall comprised of at least fifteen members, the number of members of such society has been reduced to less than fifteen;
- (b) the registered society has not commenced working towards its objects within one year from the date of registration of such society;
- (c) the society has ceased to work for a period of two years prior to the date of making the order of cancellation under this Section.

51. Where the registration of a society is cancelled by an order under Section 49 or 50, the society shall cease to exist as a corporate body from the date on which the order takes effect, (hereinafter referred to as the date of dissolution). Provided that any privileges conferred on the society by or under this Statute shall be deemed to be vested in any liquidator or liquidators appointed for that society by the Registrar.

Effect of cancellation of registration.

Liquidation after cancellation of registration of
society.

52. Where the registration of a society is cancelled under Section 49 or 50, the Registrar may appoint one or more persons to be the liquidator or liquidators of such society. All the property of the society shall be vested in the liquidator or liquidators on the date on which the order of cancellation under Section 49 or 50, as the case may be, takes effect.

Liquidator's
powers.

53. (1) A liquidator appointed under Section 52 shall, subject to the guidance and control of the Registrar and to any limitations imposed by the Registrar by order under Section 54, have power: –

- (a) to determine from time to time the contributions to be made by members and past members or by the estates of deceased members of the society to its assets;
- (b) to appoint a day by proclamation or notice before which creditors whose claims are not already recorded in the books of the society shall state their claims for admission or be excluded from any distribution made before they have proved them;
- (c) to decide in accordance with the provisions of this Statute any question of priority which arises between creditors;
- (d) to refer for arbitration under Section 58 any dispute of any description mentioned in that section (references therein to the society being construed as references to the liquidator), and institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings on behalf of the society by his name or office;
- (e) to decide by what persons and in what proportions the costs of liquidation are to be borne;
- (f) to give such direction in regard to the collection and distribution of assets as may be necessary in the course of winding up the society;
- (g) to compromise any claim by or against the society provided the sanction of the Registrar has first been obtained;
- (h) to call such general meetings of members as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the liquidation;
- (i) to take possession of the books, documents and assets of the society;
- (j) to sell the property of the society; and to deposit all money collected in arbitration in such manner as may be directed by the Registrar;
- (k) to carry on the business of the society so far as may be necessary for winding it up beneficially; provided that nothing herein contained shall entitle the liquidator of a credit society to issue any loan; and
- (l) to arrange for the distribution of the assets of the society in a convenient manner when the Registrar has approved a scheme of distribution.

(2) Where there is any debt payable by any member or past member to a society whose registration is cancelled under Section 49 or 50 and such person is a member of any other society registered under this Statute after the date of such cancellation, then the liquidator of such first mentioned society appointed under Section 49, shall, subject to the guidance and control of the Registrar and to any other limitations imposed by the Registrar by order under Section 46, have power to require that such other society shall recover, from any sum of money due from such society to such person, a sum not exceeding such debt in like manner as if it was a debt due from such member to such other society and transmit the same to the liquidator.

(3) Subject to such rules as may be made in that behalf, any liquidator appointed under this Statute shall, in so far as such powers are necessary for carrying out the purposes of this section, have power to summon and enforce the attendance of parties and witnesses and to compel the production of documents by the same means and (so far as may be) in the same manner as is provided in the case of a District Court under the Civil Procedure Code.

54. (1) A liquidator shall exercise his powers subject to the control and direction of the Registrar, who may: —

Power of Registrar to control liquidation.

- (a) rescind or vary any order made by a liquidator and make whatever new order is required;
- (b) remove a liquidator from office;
- (c) call for all books, documents, and assets of the society;
- (d) by order in writing limit the powers of a liquidator under Section 53;
- (e) require accounts to be rendered to him by the liquidator at his discretion;
- (f) procure the auditing of the liquidator's accounts and authorize the distribution of the assets of the society;
- (g) make order for the remuneration of the liquidator; or
- (h) refer for arbitration any dispute (not being a dispute so referable under Section 53(1) (d) between the liquidator and any third party, if such party consents in writing to be bound by the decision of the arbitrator.

55. (1) The decision of an arbitrator on any matter referred to him under Section 54 shall be binding upon the parties, and shall be enforceable in like manner as an order made by the Registrar under that section.

Enforcement of order.

(2) An order made by a liquidator or by the Registrar under Section 53 or 54 shall not be called in question in any Civil Court, and shall be enforced by any Civil Court having jurisdiction over the area where the registered office of the society is situated in like manner as a decree of that Court is executed:

Provided however that any bank which is a creditor of a society whose registration has been cancelled shall be entitled to appeal to the Minister-in-charge of the subject of Co-operative from an order made by a liquidator or by the Registrar under Section 53 or 54 within two months from the date of such order of the liquidator or the Registrar.

(3) Where no appeal is presented to the Minister within the period of two months from making of an order by a liquidator or by the Registrar under Section 53 or 54, such order of the liquidator or, the Registrar shall take effect on the expiry of that period. Where an appeal is presented to the Minister within the period of two months, the order of the liquidator or the Registrar shall not take effect until the Minister confirms it.

56. Save in so far as hereinbefore expressly provided, no Civil Court shall have any jurisdiction in respect of any matter concerned with the dissolution of a registered society under. This, Statute.

Limitation of the Jurisdiction of the Civil Court

57. (1) In the liquidation of a society whose registration has been cancelled, the funds, including the reserve fund, shall subject to the provisions of Section 44(2) be applied first to the cost of liquidation, then to the repayment of Government or Provincial Council of the North Central Province loans and Government or Provincial Council of the North Central Province guaranteed loans then to the discharge of the other liabilities of the society, then to the payment of the share capital and then, provided the By-laws of the society permit, to the payment of a dividend at a rate not exceeding 10% for any period for which no disposal of profits was made, and to the payment of a rebate to members for any period for which no disposal of profits has been made where such period is immediately preceding the date of dissolution.

Closure of Liquidation.

(2) When the liquidation of a society has been closed and if any creditor of that society has not made any claim for what is due to him under the scheme of distribution, or the liquidator has not received any such claim, notice of the closing of the liquidation shall be published in the Gazette; and, in respect of any claim against the funds of such society, no action shall be maintainable unless it is commenced within a period of three months from the date of the publication of such notice in the Gazette.

(3) Any surplus remaining after the application of the funds to the purposes specified in Sub-section (1) and the payment of any claims for which an action is instituted under Sub-section (2), may be applied to such object of local or public utility as may be selected, subject to the approval of the Registrar, by the persons who were officers of the society at the date of the dissolution thereof.

If such persons fail within three months after the date on which the liquidation of the society is closed to select as aforesaid an object approved by the Registrar, the Registrar shall deposit the surplus in a bank or with a registered society.

The surplus so deposited may be paid into such Surplus Fund as may be constituted for the purpose of this Statute. Disbursement out of such Surplus Fund may be made at the discretion of the Registrar for such purposes and in such manner as may be provided in the rules. Provided, however, that any interest accruing on the surplus shall be paid into the Co-operative Fund.

Chapter XII

DISPUTES

Settlement of Disputes.

58. (1) If any dispute touching the business of a registered society arises.—

- (a) among members, past members and persons claiming through deceased members, or among officers or employees of the society, whether past or present, or among heirs or legal representatives of deceased officers or employees; or
- (b) between a member, past member or person claiming through a deceased member, and the society, its Committee or any officer or employee of the society, whether past or present, or any heir or legal representative of any deceased officer or employee; or
- (c) between the society or its committee and any officer or employee of the society, whether past or present, or any heir or legal representative of any deceased officer or employee; or
- (d) between an associate member, past a associate member or deceased associate member; or
- (e) between the society or its committee and _ (a) any person who was a member or an officer or employee of any other society whose business or part thereof was transferred to the society; (ii) any person who claims through any member or past member or deceased member of the society referred to in Sub-paragraph (i) above; (iii) any person who is the heir or legal representative of any officer or employee of the society referred to in Sub-paragraph (i) above; or
- (f) between the society and any other registered society, such disputes shall be referred to the Registrar for decision.
- (g) Any claim by a registered society for any debt, demand or damages due to it from a member, officer or employee, whether past or present or from an associat member, or any nominee, heir or legal representative of a deceased member, officer or employee, or any claim by a member, officer or employee, an associat member whether past or present, or any nominee heir or legal representative of a deceased member, officer or employee for any debt, demand or damages due to them from a registered society, whether such debt demand or damages be admitted or not, shall be deemed to be a dispute touching the business of the society within the meaning of this Sub-section.

(2) The Registrar may, on receipt of a reference under Sub-section (1): –

- (a) Determine the dispute himself, or
- (b) Refer it for disposal to an arbitrator or arbitrators.

(3) Any party aggrieved by an award of the arbitrator or arbitrators may appeal there from to the Registrar within 45 days from the date of such award in writing giving reasons therefor. If the Plaintiff is making the appeal, he shall deposit a sum equivalent to 10% of the value of the subject of the dispute and in the case of defendant making the appeal, he shall deposit a sum equivalent to 10% of the award.

(4) No party to any appeal made to the Registrar under Sub-section (3) above shall be entitled to appear either by himself or by any representative, before and be heard by the Registrar on such appeal.

(5) A decision of the Registrar under Sub-section (2) or in appeal under Sub-section (3) shall be final and shall not be called in question in any civil suit.

(6) The award of the arbitrator or arbitrators under Sub-section (2) shall, if no appeal is preferred to the Registrar under Sub-section (3) or if any such appeal is abandoned or withdrawn, be final and shall not be called in question in any civil court.

(7) The provisions of the Prescription Ordinance shall not apply to any claim, which is the subject of a dispute under this Section.

(8) If any question arises as to whether a dispute referred to the Registrar under this Section is a dispute touching the business of a registered society, the decision thereon of the Registrar shall be final and shall not be called in question in any civil suit.

(9) In this section “member” includes associate member.

59. (1) Where a decision of the Registrar on a dispute or an appeal referred or made to him under Section 58, (hereafter in this Section referred to as “decision”) or an award of an arbitrator on a dispute referred to him under that Section (hereafter in this Section referred to as “award”), even if no appeal has been duly made to the Registrar under the said Section is that a sum of money due from one party to the other party to the dispute, and such sum together with charges and interests connected therewith, if any, has not been paid, the Registrar may in respect of the party from whom such sum is due, (hereafter in this Section referred to as the “defaulter”),

Enforcement of a decision or award.

- (a) issue a certificate to a Divisional Secretary/Assistant Divisional Secretary, Fiscal or Deputy Fiscal, containing particulars of such sum together with costs and interest, and the name of such defaulter ; or
- (b) issue a certificate to a District Court having jurisdiction in any district where the defaulter resides or in which any property movable or immovable owned by the defaulter is situated, containing particulars of the sum due together with charges and interest, if any, and the name of the defaulter ; or
- (c) issue a certificate containing particulars of the amount due and the name and last-known place of business or residence of the defaulter to a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the division where such place is situated.

(2) (a) Where the Registrar issues a certificate under Sub-section (1)(a) above to a, Divisional Secretary/Assistant Divisional Secretary Fiscal or Deputy fiscal, such officer is hereby empowered and required to cause such sum together with costs and interest to be recovered from the defaulter by seizure and sale of his movable property.

(b) The said seizure shall be effected in such manner as such officer shall deem most expedient in that behalf, and every property so seized shall be kept for five days at the cost and charge of the defaulter. If the defaulter does not pay such sum as is due together with costs and interest, and the cost and charge of seizing and keeping the property, within the said five days, the Divisional Secretary/Assistant Divisional Secretary, Fiscal or Deputy Fiscal, as the case may be, shall cause the said property to be sold by public auction.

(c) The sum realized by the sale shall be applied: –

- (i) firstly, to pay the cost and charge of seizing, keeping and selling the property, and
- (ii) secondly, to settle the sum of money due together with costs and Interest and any sum remaining thereafter shall be restored to the owner of the property seized.

(3) Where a certificate is issued to a District Court under Sub-section (1)(b), the Court shall thereupon direct a writ of execution to issue to the Fiscal authorizing and requiring him to seize and sell all or any of the property movable and immovable of the defaulter, or such part thereof as he may deem necessary for the recovery of such sum, and the provisions of Sections 226 to 297 of the Civil Procedure Code shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such seizure and sale.

(4) Where a certificate is issued to a Magistrate under paragraph (c) of Sub-section (1), the Magistrate shall thereupon summon such defaulter before him to show cause as to why further proceedings for the recovery of the amount should not be taken against him, and in the case of failure to show sufficient cause, the amount shall be deemed to be a fine imposed by a sentence of the Magistrate on such defaulter for an offence punishable with only fine but not with imprisonment, and the provisions of Section 312 (except paragraphs (a) and (c) of Sub-section (1) of that Section) of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 shall thereupon apply, and the Magistrate may make any direction which, by the provisions of that Section, he could have made at the time of imposing such sentence. Any defaulter sentenced to a term of imprisonment in default of the payment of fine imposed in accordance with Section 291 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, shall not be absolved from the payment of any sum of money mentioned in the certificate specified in Section 59 (1) (c).

(5) Where the Registrar issues a certificate under this Section, he shall issue to the defaulter a notification thereof by personal service, registered post or telegraph; but non – receipt of such notification by the defaulter shall not invalidate proceedings under this Section.
