Rules

1. These Rules may be cited as the 'Excise Notification No. 02 /2024'.
2. In terms of the Excise Ordinance No.08 of 1912 (Chapter 52) hereinafter referred to as 'the Ordinance';
  - I. From and after the date of coming into effect of these rules, all persons expecting to obtain any liquor selling license which is contemporarily issued, shall forward an application to the Commissioner General of Excise by using the application form specified in Schedule I hereto.
  - II. A request shall be made to the Commissioner General of Excise, by using the application form specified in the Schedule II hereto by all those persons expecting to renew an existing excise license for the sale of liquor for the coming year, by using the application form specified in the Schedule III hereto by an applicant for the co-licensure of any excise license for the sale of liquor, by using the application form specified in Schedule IV hereto by all persons expecting to transfer the ownership of an excise license for the sale of liquor, and by using the application form specified in Schedule V hereto by all persons expecting to transfer of location of any such licensed premises.
  - III. An amount of Rs. 25,000.00 shall be paid as a non-refundable application fee in cases of applying for a new excise license for the sale of liquor, an extension of the validity period of such existing license, transfer of ownership of such license, applying for the co-licensure of such license or transfer of location of the licensed premises.
  - IV. However, Payment of the application fee mentioned in above paragraph III should not be applicable to the Excise Licenses for the sale of liquor of the categories of Excise F.L. 14 Occasional License, Excise F.L. 15 Supplementary License to extend Hours of Sale and Excise F.L.16 Auctioneers License.
  - V. In cases of applying for a new excise license for the sale of liquor, transfer of ownership of such license, applying for co- licensure of such license or transfer of the location of the licensed premises, those application forms can be obtained from the Excise Head Office by paying the prescribed application fee. However, application forms for extending the validity period of such licenses can be obtained from the Excise Head Office or Offices of the Assistant Commissioners of Excise located island wide.
  - VI. Applications obtained as per the provisions of these rules shall be completed and submitted along with relevant documents to the Excise Officer-in-Charge of the excise area of authority, where the proposed premises for the license is located in cases of new licenses, and where the existing licensed premises is located in cases of existing licenses.
  - VII. However, the Commissioner General of Excise reserves the right to search and extract any information relating to any applicant from any document file available at the Excise Department or to request and obtain any information necessary for considering the issuance of the license applied for, including details of the income tax or other tax payments of the applicant.
  - VIII. All applications submitted as per the above Schedule VI should be completed in all aspects and all the required documents should be annexed. Incomplete applications or applications submitted without necessary documents or which does not conform to the guidelines and conditions set out in the Schedule VI to these rules will be rejected.
  - IX. However, the issuance of any application under the provisions of this section should not be a guarantee for the issuance of a new excise license for the sale of liquor, the transfer of ownership of an excise license or the appointment of a co- licensure to a license or the approval for the transfer of location of a licensed premises as applied for by such application.

3. Upon receipt of all requests under Rule 2 above, the Commissioner General of Excise shall consider those applications in accordance with the provisions of the Excise Ordinance and shall satisfy such applications are in accordance with the guidelines and conditions specified in Schedule VI hereto.
4. Relevant license fee specified for the particular type of license for the particular period of time should be paid by the relevant licensee in cases of granting a new excise license to sell liquor or extending the period of validity of such license already been granted under these rules.
5. All excise licenses for the sale of liquor are issued for a period of one calendar year (January 01 to December 31), and the relevant license fee for the particular year should be paid at least seven working days before the date of commencement of the relevant fiscal year. However, in case of not receiving the said license fee by the relevant Divisional Secretary within seven working days from the commencement of the relevant financial year, permission should be granted to pay the said license fee subjected to a fine of one percent of the license fee within a period of four weeks. Afterwards that time period of four weeks the said fine should be three percent of the license fee.
6. Those licenses issued at some point in the middle of the year, will be so issued only for the rest of the year. In respect of those licenses issued in the middle of the year, license fees should be charged proportionately for the rest of that year.
7. Further, every person who transfer the right to any existing excise license for the sale of liquor, become a co-licensee of such license or transfers the location of the said license, shall for the time being pay the following fees in respect thereof.

Fee for the transfer of location of a license - Rs. 250,000/-

North Western	189	-	39
Uva	92	4	24
Sabaragamuwa	149	-	29
Total	1,578	34	362

- II. Those limitations mentioned in the above paragraph I, will not apply in respect of retail licenses (Excise F.L. 04) that are issued to Super Markets, Grocery Stores and like enterprises where the annual turnover of the applicant company /business or their parent company/ business exceeds Rs. 1,000 million.
- III. A second license within the same administrative district in favor of an applicant who has already been granted a license will only be considered if there is no other eligible applicant.
- IV. However, the Commissioner General of Excise will not issue an applicant more than two licenses within a particular district, when in the opinion of the Commissioner General of Excise it can lead to a likely situation of monopoly or under supply of liquor or hinder free and unfettered supply distribution or consumption of liquor within the district.
- V. In evaluating and considering an application for a license made by an applicant, who had received more than two licenses, within or outside the district, the Commissioner General of Excise shall take into account all or any factors of economy, social welfare, culture, religion, needs of liquor industry, safety of the society and the consumers monopolistic situations and undue influence on the liquor industry and consumption likely in his opinion to affect adversely the policy of excise and may refuse such applications where deem expedient in his opinion.

(2) Extension of the validity of existing Excise Licenses for the sale of liquor

- I. Current holders of excise licenses are not entitled to automatic renewal thereof, and upon the expiry of the validity period of the said licenses, if the relevant licensee intends to extend further the validity period of the said license, he shall submit his application within 30 days in advance of each year according to these guidelines and conditions.
- II. The application that submitted as prescribed above will be considered by the Commissioner General of Excise in accordance with these guidelines and conditions and in accordance with any other provisions laid down in the Excise Ordinance.
- III. Applications for a license in respect of a licensed premises already in operation should have been fully paid and settled for all claims due in respect of the license already in operation or the license previously in operation or any other license in the name of the applicant.
- IV. If there is an inquiry still pending in respect of such licenses already in operation, to execute a license on the same premises or to execute another license in the name of the applicant will be considered upon a security deposit equivalent to a compounding fee that may be imposed by the Commissioner General of Excise in accordance with the Excise (Amendment) Act No. 37 of 1990 and subject to the results of such inquiry.

(3) Transfer the ownership of an existing Excise License for the sale of liquor:

- I. A request for transfer the ownership of an excise license to another person will be considered only after paying the relevant application fee and obtaining an application form in the name of the proposed transferee, duly completed and submitted along with the relevant documents, and only if the proposed transferee fulfills all the requirements mentioned in these rules to be completed in order to obtain the license.
- II. If the proposed transferee is not a legal heir of the excise license holder concerned, the proposed transferee should be liable to pay the fee prescribed in the present for transferring the right of the license.

(4) Applying for the co-licensure of an existing Excise License for the sale of liquor

- I. A request to grant the co-licensure to another person or persons in addition to the current license holder or license holders related to any excise license will be considered only if the relevant application fee is paid and obtaining an application form or application forms in the name of the proposed co-licensee or co-licensees and duly completing the relevant documents and only if the proposed co-licensee or co-licensees meet all the requirements of these rules to be completed to obtain the licensure.
- II. The proposed co-licensee should pay the relevant fee prescribed in the present for the appointment as a co-licensee.

(5) Transferring the location of an existing Excise License for the sale of liquor:

- I. Transfer of premises on which an excise license has been granted for the sale of liquor is not normally permitted. However, in cases of a natural disaster or due to a Government development activity or any other reason considered reasonable by the Commissioner General of Excise such as proximity to other licenses and uneven distribution of licensed premises etc., it should be permissible to transfer the location to which an excise license is issued within the same district in which it was in operation.
- II. However, the rule contained in the section I above, shall not apply for the wholesale licenses for the sale of liquor.
- III. Transfer of the location of a premises granted with an excise license would be permitted only if the proposed premises conforms to the rules, guidelines and conditions set out in this notification.
