However, these contracts had been abandoned as at 31st December, 2008 without completing items valued at Rs. 35,335,859. Proper action had not been taken during the year 2008 to get those items completed and steps had not been taken against the contractors in terms of the agreements for non completion of the contracts and for defective works.

The following observations are made –

The following management inefficiencies were observed –

- (a) According to the lease agreement entered into with the People's Bank on 18th March, 1982, the annual lease rent for the People's Bank Branch operating in the Senate Building should be revised. - (b) The Chairman of the University Grants Commission by his letter No. UGC/HQ/9/1/38 dated 05th September, 2007 addressed to the Vice Chancellor had instructed that no recruitments should be done for the security service. Nevertheless, 07 security officers had been recruited and salaries amounting to Rs. 1,491,036 and overtime amounting to Rs. 9,065,822 had been paid during the year 2008.
