- ii. From Grade II to Grade III on completion of five (5) years service in Grade II combined with a record of good performance of which the Bank shall be the sole Judge and provided further that such stenographer passes the Efficiency Bar Test set by the Bank annually.
- iii. From Grade III to Grade IV on completion of five (5) years service in Grade III combined with a record of good performance of which the Bank shall be the sole Judge and provided further that such stenographer passes the Efficiency Bar Test set by the Bank annually or Parts 1 and 2 of the Examination of the Chartered Secretaries, London.

B). No Change in Annual Incremental Date Upon Grading. -

The Provisions set out in Clause 15 and 15 (a) shall not have the effect of changing the annual incremental date of an employee.

17. Provident Fund. -

(a) RATE OF CONTRIBUTION. -

The rates of contribution to the Provident Fund by the Bank shall be :

Bank's contribution	- 12% (twelve per cent) of salary
Employee's contribution	- 8% (eight per cent) of salary

Provident Fund contribution shall be on the consolidated salary referred to at Clause 5 hereof and the amount paid for that month as cost of living allowance subject to the Rules of the Provident Fund.

- (b) INTEREST ON PROVIDENT FUND CONTRIBUTIONS HELD BY THE BANK. - Where Provident Fund monies are invested in the Bank, the Bank shall continue to pay the rate of interest paid of 12 months' fixed deposits for a sum of Rs. 100,000/= published by the N.S.B prevailing as at the 1st January for the first half of the year and on the rate prevailing on the 1st July for the second half of the year on the net Provident Fund monies invested at the Bank.

- (c) DEFICIENCY IN BANK'S CONTRIBUTIONS TO PROVIDENT FUND TO AN EMPLOYEE NOT ENTITLED TO A PENSION. - Where an employee shall cease to be employed by the Bank in circumstances which do not entitle to a pension or payment in lieu of pension as the case may be, such employee shall be entitled to the difference between the Bank's contributions made to the Fund during his period of service and the employer's minimum rate of contribution he would have been entitled to, in terms of the Employee's Provident Fund Act and its amendments from time to time as a contribution to the Fund by the employer on behalf of such employee. Such deficiency will be the difference between the following minimum rates of contribution under the Act and 10% of basic salary actually contributed by the Bank up to 31st March 1992.

From 1.1.1971 to 31.12.1980 - 9% of gross salary
From 1.1.1981 onwards - 12% of gross salary

Prior to 31.12.1970 the employer's minimum rate of contribution was 6% of total earnings (gross salary), which was less than 10% of basic salary, and therefore no deficiency arises.

18. Terminal Benefits

- (a) PENSIONS.— An employee shall, upon reaching the retirement age of the Bank, i.e., 60 years or in terms of his contract of employment at 55 years, and who is in the permanent employment of the Bank at such time, and shall have completed not less than ten (10) years of actual continuous service (excluding absence/ leave without pay), be entitled to a monthly pension computed on the following basis :

Provided, however, that where an employee is entitled to compensation by the Bank under any laws in force at the time or An Award of Court, such employee shall only be entitled to a pension or such compensation as opted by him, but not to both. Provided further that in the case of an employee whose premature retirement occurred in consequence of an accident which entitled him to compensation, the pre - acceptance of pension as provided herein will not restrict the right of such employee in subsequently claiming any balance compensation under any written law.

- (c) LUMP SUM GRATUITY IN LIEU OF PENSION RIGHTS.— An employee who is entitled to receive a pension in terms of (a) or (b) above may at his discretion opt for the payment of a lump sum gratuity in lieu of his pension and any other payments arising there from. The payment will be computed on the following basis :

- (i) Employees opting to retire at 55 years

Number of completed years of pensionable service (subject to a maximum of 35 years) plus 5 years	×	Monthly Gross salary payable for the month of Retirement

- (ii) Employees opting to retire at 60 years

The above payment shall constitute a settlement in full and final satisfaction of all claims against the Bank on account of the cessation of employment in respect of gratuity, pension, deficiency, if any, in the Bank's contribution to Provident Fund to an employee not paid a pension in terms of Clause 17.

- (d) DEATH GRATUITY - On the death of an employee who has been confirmed and is in the permanent employment of the Bank, the Banks will make a compassionate payment of two Months gross salary for each year of completed service subject to a minimum of nine month's gross salary to the legitimate dependents of the deceased employee, as may be determined by the Bank at its sole discretion on the basis of information supplied to them. In the case of the death of an employee who is not confirmed in employment the amount payable will be 50% of that payable to a confirmed employee provided that in the case of an employee who has not been confirmed consequent upon a promotion to a higher grade, the gratuity payable will be calculated as in the case of a confirmed employee. The gross salary for this purpose shall be the last drawn salary plus the cost of Living Allowance.

Provided, however, that in the event of death arising out of and in the course of employment, the dependents shall be entitled to and receive either the death gratuity referred to herein or payment by way of compensation under any laws in force at the time on account of Employees' Compensation or under any other law or an Award of Court, whichever is higher. Provided further that in the case of an employee whose death occurred in consequence, the pre-acceptance of death gratuity as provided herein shall not restrict the right of such dependents in subsequently claiming any balance compensation due to them under any written law.

- (e) GRATUITY ON RESIGNATION/ TERMINATION PRIOR TO RETIREMENT.- An employee shall, upon resignation/ termination of employment prior to retirement in circumstances which do not entitle him to the terminal benefits referred to at the aforementioned Clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) be entitled to a gratuity computed in terms of the Payment of Gratuity Act (1983), which shall be paid within 30 days of the cessation of employment.

The salary for this purpose shall comprise the salary referred to at Clause 5 and the Cost of Living Allowance referred to at Clause 7 (a) hereof.

Completed years of actual service shall include only actual continuous service worked excluding absence/ leave without pay, but subject to the provisions of the Payment of Gratuity Act (1983) and Clause 20 thereof.

- (f) COMMUTED PENSION.-

- (i) At the option of the Employee at the time of retirement, 25% of the monthly pension into 120 will be paid to employees who are entitled to a pension, who do not opt for a lump sum payment as provided for in the agreement and who opt for such commuted pension.
- (ii) Where an employee commutes his monthly pension in the manner aforesaid, the monthly pension payable to him during the first ten (10) years of retirement will be 75% of the monthly pension he would have been entitled to at the time of retirement if he had not so commuted his pension. After the expiry of the said ten (10) years the amount of the monthly pension so commuted will be restored and added to the monthly pension then being paid.

- (g) ALTERNATE TERMINAL BENEFIT PLAN.-

- (i) An employee who opted for the Alternate Terminal Benefit Plan under the Re-structured Pension Scheme offered by the Bank will not be entitled to a monthly pension on reaching the agreed retirement age nor will such employee be entitled to any statutory gratuity which is built-in to the terminal benefits lump-sum payable under the re-structured scheme at the time of retirement/separation.
- (ii) Further, as per the Re-structured Pension Scheme, in the event of early separation prior to retirement (excluding death) an employee will be entitled to withdraw the accumulated amount in the Defined Contribution Fund Account, subject to rules of the Fund on forfeiture.
- (iii) However, in the event of death of an eligible employee whilst in service, the full accumulation will be released to the nominated party/parties or legal heirs.

(ii) AVAILMENT

The Bank will be entitled to refuse to grant pay for any days of absence on grounds of sickness not supported by a Certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner.

- (a) Where such period of absence exceeds two (2) consecutive days including weekly or other holidays, or
  - (b) Where the number of days already allowed on full pay on grounds of sickness, uncertified by a Medical Practitioner, is in excess of twelve (12) days in any one year.
- (iii) ACCUMULATION .-
- An employee who takes less than his entitlement in any one (1) year as prescribed above shall be entitled to avail himself of the balance of his entitlement for such year in any succeeding year or years, subject to the following provisions ;
- (a) In no case shall the entitlement to medical leave on full pay, by reason of such accumulation, exceed ninety (90) days, and
  - (b) The accumulated medical leave may only be availed of on account of prolonged illness, hospitalization or similar circumstances, supported by a Certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner,
  - (c) Where an employee has exhausted his current year's sick leave as a result of prolonged illness such as an infectious disease or prolonged hospitalizations, the employer may permit him to set off any further absence on grounds of ill health against such accumulated sick leave up to the extent of the leave taken for such earlier prolonged illness.
- (iv) The Bank will be entitled, after inquiry and advising the employee concerned, to refuse to pay and / or take any action as appropriate in situations where the absence on grounds of sickness not supported by a Certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner, occurs in the following circumstances :
- (a) Where the Bank has reasonable cause to suspect the bona fides of the application and / or reason for absence of an employee, or
  - (b) Where the absence of the employee on grounds of sickness immediately follows or precedes any weekly or other holiday and the Bank has reasonable cause to suspect the bona fides of the application and/or reason for absence of the employee.
- (c) CASUAL LEAVE.-
- An employee shall be entitled to a maximum of seven (7) days casual leave in each year of employment where of not more than two (2) days shall be taken at any one given time and such leave shall not precede or follow any period of annual leave. All casual leave shall be by prior approval of the Bank, unless the reason for such absence is justified to the satisfaction of the Bank as being in circumstances that could not have been foreseen by such employee.

28. Suspension. -

- (i) Where an employee is suspended pending a disciplinary inquiry on investigations, such employee will, subject to the provisions of Sub-clauses (ii) and (iii) below, receive half his salary from the date of suspension up to six (6) months and full pay thereafter, subject to the condition that the delay was not due to the employee concerned.
- (ii) Where the suspension is on account of charges involving financial dishonesty such a fraud or misappropriation, the employee will not be entitled to any salary during the period of suspension unless the inquiry is not concluded within six (6) months of the date of suspension in which event he will receive half his salary (Salary plus Cost of Living Allowance) during his suspension beyond the said six months period. Provided that if the delay beyond six (6) months is due to the employee's own conduct or due to the employee being in custody or remand thereby making it impossible for the Bank to hold or conclude the inquiry, half such salary as aforementioned will not be payable.
- (iii) In cases not involving financial dishonesty as aforementioned, where the employer is prevented from concluding the inquiry within six (6) months of suspension for reasons beyond the employer's control such as where the employee makes repeated requests for postponements or where he is remanded or in police custody or where the matter is under investigation by the Police, the employee will continue to receive half his salary and will not receive full pay in these circumstances.

29. Disciplinary Procedure. - Where the Bank proposes to take disciplinary action against an employee except, however, in the case of oral warning, letters of advice, caution or warnings for minor offenses, the following procedure shall apply ;

- (a) Irrespective of whether such employee has been suspended, the employee shall be furnished with a show cause letter which shall set out the particulars of the charges against such employee and such show cause letter shall give the employee not less than ten (10) calendar days within which to tender his explanation in writing to the charges preferred.
- (b) Within ten (10) calendar days after the date of the show cause letter the employee shall tender in writing to the Bank his explanation to the aforesaid charges provided however that if in the circumstances it is reasonable, the employee may request the Bank for an extension of time within which to tender the written explanation and where such request is made, the Bank shall normally grant such request for such further period of time as is considered necessary by the Bank in the circumstances.
- (c) If where the employee tenders his explanation within the period of time allowed to the employee to show cause and the Bank is satisfied with such explanation, the Bank shall withdraw the charge/s against the employee and if the employee is under suspension, the Bank shall forthwith reinstate the employee and shall pay to such employee his salary and entitlements in respect of the period of such suspension.
- (d) Where the employee tenders his explanation within the time allowed to him to show cause and the Bank is not satisfied with such explanation, the Bank shall, subject to sub - clause (k) (iii) hereof, hold an inquiry into the charges against such employee.
- (e) The Bank shall commence an inquiry as referred to in sub-clause (d) hereof within 21 working days from the date of receipt by them of the written explanation to the show cause letter unless it is not possible to do so for reasons beyond the Bank's control, or by reason of the employee's own conduct or seeking, or by reason of unforeseen circumstances.
- (f) The Bank will permit a member of the Branch Union of the same Grade or of a Higher Grade than the accused employee or an office bearer of the Branch Union irrespective of grade (in which case the Bank reserves to itself the right to prevent the person carrying on the defense for unacceptable conduct) to defend the accused employee at a domestic inquiry provided the defending employee has not obtained a legal qualification. The defending employee will not suffer any loss of salary for absence from work on this account. The Bank will further allow another member of the Branch Union to be present at the inquiry as an Observer without loss of salary for absence from work. The accused employee shall submit to the Bank in writing the name of the Defending Employee and Observer not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for the commencement of the inquiry. The Defending Employee shall be entitled to examine the witnesses for the accused employee and cross examine witnesses for the Bank. The inquiring Officer will be entitled to require a Defending Employee or Observer who obstructs the inquiry to withdraw therefrom and the Defending Employee or Observer shall forthwith comply with such requirement. The absence of a Defending Employee or Observer from the whole or any part of an inquiry for any reason whatsoever shall not vitiate such inquiry, nor the proceedings thereat, nor the findings pursuant thereto. The Observer shall not be entitled to participate in the proceedings but he may answer any question which the inquiring Officer may ask him.
- (g) The Union will be entitled to a copy of the proceedings of the inquiry conducted subject to the Observer and the accused employee signing proceedings as a correct record. After the proceedings have been certified and a copy issued to the accused employee for all purposes thereafter the proceedings shall be taken as a true copy of such proceedings before the inquiring Officer.
- (h) The Inquiring Officer shall maintain his impartiality and shall not attempt to act the role of the prosecution as well.
- (i) Within thirty (30) working days after the conclusion of the inquiry the Bank shall inform the employee, in writing, of the findings in respect of the charges and of the punishment, if any, imposed by the Employer.
- (j) Where the Bank fails to inform the employee as aforesaid within the said period of thirty (30) working days except for reasons beyond the control of the Bank or by reason of the conduct of the employee, such employee shall not be punished thereafter in respect of such charges and no inference adverse to the employee shall be drawn in respect of such charges.
- (k) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions, the Bank shall not be required to hold a domestic inquiry in any of the following circumstances :
  - (i) Where the employee fails to tender his written explanation before the expiry of the time allowed to show cause in which event the Bank shall be entitled to take disciplinary action on the basis that such employee had no cause to show.
  - (ii) where the employee makes a written admission of the charges against him.

- (iii) where the Bank proposes to warn an employee, but without prejudice to the Union's right to request the Employer thereafter to hold an inquiry, in which event the fact that the inquiry did not commence within twenty one (21) working days after receipt of the employee's explanation shall not be material or relevant.
- (l) The findings of a domestic inquiry and the punishment if any imposed by the Bank shall be final and binding on the Bank and the employee and the Union, unless the employee or the Union shall within three (3) months from the date on which the Bank had notified such employee of the findings or punishment, raises a dispute in respect of such findings and/ or punishment.
- (m) Where an employee is under suspension and the Bank makes order that -
  - (i) the employment of the employee shall be terminated, then the termination of such employment shall take effect as from the date of suspension or such later date as the Bank may determine ; provided further that the Bank shall not be entitled to recover from the employee any payment made in respect of salary to the employee in respect of such period of suspension, if any such payment has been made.
  - (ii) the employment of the employee shall not be terminated, then the employee shall be employed forthwith and shall be paid the entirety of his salary in respect of the period of suspension without prejudice to the right of the Bank to impose such other punishment other than termination, which may include the whole or part of the period of suspension pending inquiry, on the basis of the findings of the inquiry.
- (n) The observance by the Bank of sub-clauses (e), (i) and (j) shall not be necessary where an inquiry is not held in view of the fact that the matter under inquiry is being referred, or has been referred, to the Police or other authorities for investigation or inquiries or in view of the fact that criminal charges are pending against the employee.

30. Technology.-

- (i) The Third Schedule hereto contains matters relating to new Computer Based Banking Technology agreed upon between the parties.
- (ii) The Bank will furnish the Union on request information relating to new computer hardware to be introduced by the Bank, i.e., published manufacturer's specifications relating to equipment. The Bank will be under no obligation to provide information relating to software.
- (iii) The Union will be free to make representations on matters relating to the introduction of new Computer Based Banking Technology in the Bank other than on matters covered in this Agreement and subject to sub-clause (ii) above.
- (iv) Notwithstanding the provisions of (iii) above, the Union will not be entitled to raise any industrial dispute on matters relating to Computer Based Banking Technology, will not resort to any industrial action in that regard and any representations/ dispute in that connection shall not fall within the meaning of an industrial dispute under the laws of Sri Lanka.
- (v) It is agreed that any matter raised by the Union relating to the adverse effects of the use of computers shall be referred to the Monitoring Committee set up under the Collective Agreement for resolution. In the event of the Monitoring Committee not being able to satisfy the Union, such matter shall be referred to the Department of Health and Safety of the Labour Department and the recommendation given by the Doctor-in-Charge shall be accepted by both parties and where changes are necessary in terms of such recommendation the Monitoring Committee shall prevail on the Bank concerned to implement such changes.

31. Trade Union Action.-

- (a) MATTERS RELATED AND COVERED IN THE AGREEMENT :
The Union and its members covered and bound by this Agreement jointly and severally agree with the Bank that during the continuance in force of this Agreement they shall not engage in any strike or other form of Trade Union action including go-slow, boycott or demonstrations or picketing or any form of collective action against the Bank in respect of any dispute related to this Agreement.
- (b) MATTERS NOT RELATED AND NOT COVERED IN THIS AGREEMENT :
The Union and its members covered and bound by this Agreement jointly and severally agree with the Bank that during the continuance in force of this Agreement they shall not engage in any strike or other form of Trade Union action including go-slow, boycott or demonstrations or picketing or any form of collective action against the Bank in respect of any dispute that may arise on any matter not related to this Agreement until -

- (i) The Branch Union of the Bank has exhausted all forms of conciliation to resolve such dispute amicably with the Bank, at which stage the Branch Union shall notify the Bank in writing of its intention to refer such matter to the Parent Union (the Ceylon Bank Employees' Union)
- (ii) The Parent Union (the Ceylon Bank Employees' Union) has intervened in the matter and has exhausted all forms of conciliation to resolve such dispute amicably with the Bank and/ or the Employers' Federation of Ceylon.
- (iii) In the event of there being no settlement at the level of conciliation aforesaid, the Parent Union has to give notice in writing of not less than fourteen (14) days of the fact that there has been no satisfactory settlement of the dispute and that it wishes to resort to trade union action.

32. Union Check-off Facilities.— During the continuance in force of this Agreement and provided the Union has not less than forty (40) per cent membership among the employees covered by this Agreement the Bank shall continue to grant check-off, provided, however, that the Bank reserves the right to stop, suspend, or discontinue such facility in the event of the Union violating any of the provisions of this Collective Agreement in relation to the Bank.

33. Implementation and Interpretation of this Agreement.— (i) Where either the Union or the Bank are dissatisfied with the manner in which the Collective Agreement is being implemented or where there is a complaint regarding the adverse effects of computer technology change such matter shall be dealt with by a Monitoring Committee set up by the Bank consisting of two representatives from the Bank and two representatives from the Union. The Bank or the Union may request that a matter be placed before the Monitoring Committee by communication addressed to the Employers' Federation of Ceylon setting out the cause of complaint.

- (ii) Any dispute over the interpretation of the Agreement shall be settled by voluntary arbitration under Section 3 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1950.

34. Consequences of Termination of Agreement.— On the termination of this Agreement all terms, conditions, benefits, facilities and concessions enjoyed by the Union and/ or its members shall ipso facto cease.

9. In respect of claims for hospitalization which span the end of any year, reimbursement will be made out of the entitlement of either or both years as applicable.

THIRD SCHEDULE

The parties agree to the following conditions in relation to the introduction of new Computer Based Banking Technology by the Bank covered and bound by this Agreement.

1. Wherever practical, the Bank will endeavour to ensure that jobs are designed to include a mix of VDU/non VDU tasks which seek to provide variation in visual and mental demands upon the operator.
  2. The work load of operators of VDUs will be regularly reviewed by Management for the purpose of ensuring proper safety and effectiveness of the operations.
  3. The Banks agree to provide VDU operator with adequate training within the parameters of their job description to ensure the safety and health of employees.
  4. (a) In selecting VDUs, the Bank will attempt to obtain equipment, which will ensure the following :
    - (i) Screens that give clear stable images.
    - (ii) Proper sitting of keyboards so as to ensure the reduction of stress and improved maneuverability.
    - (iii) Equipment which is quiet in operation so that the level of noise is kept to a reasonable limit.
  - (b) The Bank will undertake proper servicing and maintenance to ensure optimum functioning of the VDUs.
  - (c) The Bank will pay attention to the proper positioning of screens, keyboards and provide facilities for placing documents and ancillary equipment in a manner to facilitate the work of employees.
  - (d) The Bank will endeavour to provide lighting facilities to minimize visual fatigue in the operation of VDUs.
  - (e) Employee whose main or primary function, as decided by the Management of the Bank, is the operation of a VDU, will be permitted to visit, at the cost of the Bank, an Optician selected by the Bank to have his eyesight examined prior to his commencing employment on a VDU. In the event of an adverse report being obtained from the Optician, the employee should inform the Bank immediately.
  - (f) Where an employee whose main or primary function, as decided by the Management of the Bank, is the operation of a VDU, and he is already using spectacles, when he is called upon to operate a VDU for the first time, he will be permitted, at the expenses of the Bank, to be examined by an Optician nominated by the Bank for the purpose of obtaining an opinion as to whether any modification is necessary to his lenses. The cost of such examination and modification to the lenses if necessary, will be borne by the Bank on the following basis.
    - (i) The cost of the examination will be met by the Bank outside the limits prescribed by the Medical Assistance Scheme herein.
    - (ii) The cost of modification of the lenses will be met within the Medical Assistance Scheme, but if such cost should exceed the limits prescribed by the scheme, the Bank will bear such additional cost as well.
5. Accepting the fact that continuous work at a terminal by a Data Entry Operator causes a certain amount of strain, the Bank is agreeable to a reasonable pause in entering information at or about the end of each period of 2 hours so long as there is no disruption of the smooth flow of work and so long as such pause does not exceed 10 minutes.

6. The provisions of this Agreement will apply to employees whose main or primary function, as decided by the Management of the Bank, is operating a VDU. Provided however the Union will be entitled to make representations as to whether the main or primary function is the operation of a VDU subject to there being no industrial dispute being raised on this issue.
7. The Bank agrees that they will not seek to retrench employees who become redundant solely and exclusively in consequence of the introduction of new Computer Based Banking Technology. Instead, the Bank may avail itself of any one or more of the following options:
  - (a) The aforementioned excess employees may be transferred to other sections / Departments to perform work which is within their skill and capacity without reduction in salary and allowances which are in force at such time in relation to such employees. This option refers to a transfer other than within the scope of employment, which the Bank would under normal circumstances be entitled to effect.
  - (b) The Bank may, on a transfer within the scope of (a) above, re-train an employee if the Bank consider it necessary.
  - (c) The Banks will be entitled to negotiate with employees who are redundant for the reasons contemplated in this Agreement, with a view to achieving a cessation of employment on terms mutually agreed upon and this will not amount to retrenchment within the meaning of this schedule.
8. For the purpose of this Agreement, retrenchment will mean an involuntary termination of the employees made redundant consequent upon the introduction of new Computer Based Banking Technology. It will not include a situation where such redundant employees voluntarily leave the service of the employers on terms mutually agreed upon.
