Revenue and Expenditure Returns

UNIVERSITY OF COLOMBO SCHOOL OF COMPUTING-UNIVERSITY OF COLOMBO

Accounting Policies 31st December 2004

BASIS of Accounting .—The Financial Statements are prepared on the historical basis of accounting, whereby the transactions are recorded at values prevailing at the dates when the assets were acquired, the liabilities were incurred and funds obtained; in accordance with generally accepted Accounting Principles and Accounting Standards laid down by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Sri Lanka.

Conversion of Foreign Currencies.—All foreign currency transactions are accounted for at the exchange rates prevailing at the date of the transactions; gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such translation and from the translation of monetary Assets and Liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognized in the Income Statement. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at exchange rates prevailing on the balance sheet date.

Revenue Recognition.—

(i) (a) Grants (Recurrent)

All Government Grants pertaining to recurrent expenditure is recognized at the time of allocation.

(b) Grants (Capital)

Grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are included in non-current liabilities as deferred income and are credited to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the expected life of the related assets.

(ii) Course Fee

Course fees are recognized over the period of instruction. Where adequate information is not available to make such allocation to different financial periods, fees are recognized as income on a cash basis.

(iii) Fees on Computer Services

Fees on computer services provided are recognized only on the completion of work.

(iv) Investment Income

Investment income is recognized on and accrual basis.

Inventories :

(i) Stationery

Stocks of stationery and other miscellaneous items are valued at the lower of cost and net realizable value. In general, cost is determined on a First in First out (FIFO) basis.

(ii) Work in Progress

No value is attached to course work and computer services in progress at the balance sheet date.

Valuation of Assets :

(i) Property Plant and Equipment

Property Plant and Equipment are recorded at cost of purchase together with any incidental expenses thereon. The assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Assets received as gifts have been valued at their fair value.

Assets, for which dates of purchase are known, depreciation is provided in proportion to the number of months completed or such assets were used from the date of purchase. Assets of which exact date of purchase is not known depreciation is provided for the whole year in which they were purchased. Depreciation will be provided on the year of the sale/disposal in proportion to the number of months the assets over the estimated useful life of assets :

* Buildings	5%
* Furniture & Fittings	10%
* Office Equipment	20%
* Library Books and Periodicals	20%
* Motor Vehicles	20%
* Laboratory & Teaching Equipment	20%

(ii) Receivables

Receivables are stated at the amounts that they are estimated to realize.

Defined benefit obligations .— Provision is made in the accounts for retirement gratuities at rates applicable under the payment of Gratuity Act, No. 12 of 1983. Although employees should complete a minimum period five years of continued employment to qualify for gratuity payments under the Act, provision is made from the commencement of employment on the assumption that all employees intend to continue in employment for at least five years.

Defined Contribution Plans .— Employees are members of the University Provident Fund and Employees Trust Fund.

Comparative Information .— Comparative information has been restated where necessary to confirm to current year presentation.

UNIVERSITY OF COLOMBO SCHOOL OF COMPUTING

Financial Statement for the Year ended 31st December 2005

INTRODUCTION.— The University of Colombo School of Computing (UCSC) was established as a Center of Higher Learning of the University of Colombo combining the expertise and resources of the Institute of Computer Technology (ICT) and the Department of Computer Science (DCS) under the UCSC Ordinance Number 01 of 2002 in September 2002. The main function of the UCSC is to provide ICT degree programs to internal undergraduate and postgraduate students and conduct research work in the field of ICT. In addition to this major function, the UCSC conduct many consultancy, training, external degree programs and research work through its five centers namely –

1. Computing Services Center
2. Advanced Digital Media Technology Center
3. External Degree Center
4. Center for E-Learning
5. Professional Development Center

The accounts submitted herewith show that the centers use their earnings to support each other and also partially support the UCSC for its day today activities, as the government funding is not adequate. The activities of the centers are given below.

Computing Services Center (CSC)

The Computing Services Center, which is the Consultancy arm of the UCSC was established in 1990 to provide Consultancy Services to the IT and related industries. The CSC also conducts shorts courses and customized training programs.

Advanced Digital Media Technology Center (ADMTC)

The ADMTC was established under the Japanese Government Assisted Advanced Digital Media Technology project. This center provides training programmes and expertise in the area of Advanced Digital Media.

External Degree Center (EDC)

The External Degree Center at present offers the most popular external degree the Bachelor of Information Technology (BIT) and provides an opportunity to thousands of students while at the same time generating income to the UCSC.

Center for E-Learning

The Center for E-Learning of the UCSC conducts research and development in area of E-Learning. This center received funding from SIDA for its initial activities.

Professional Development Center (PDC)

The main function of the Professional Development Center is to enhance the Quality of the Graduate and Undergraduate programmes offered by the University of Colombo School of Computing (UCSC) by promoting the interaction between the UCSC and the Industry.
