PART I

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE OFFICE FOR NATIONAL UNITY AND RECONCILIATION

Establishment of the Office for National Unity
and Reconciliation

3. (1) There shall be established an office which shall be called and known as the “Office for National Unity and Reconciliation” (hereinafter referred to as the “Reconciliation Office”).

(2) The Reconciliation Office shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(3) The headquarters of the Reconciliation Office shall be situated in Colombo and the Reconciliation Office may, from time to time, establish such number of regional offices as may be necessary, to achieve its mandate.

4. (1) The Reconciliation Office shall consist of -

Constitution of the Reconciliation
Office

- (a) one ex-officio member appointed by the President, as nominated by the Minister, who shall be an officer not below the rank of an Additional Secretary of the Ministry of the Minister; and
- (b) ten other members appointed by the President on the recommendation of the Minister made in accordance with the provisions of subsection (2) (hereinafter referred to as the “appointed members”).

(2) In making recommendations for the appointment of members referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1), the Minister shall have due regard to -

- (a) ensure that the composition of the Reconciliation Office reflects the pluralistic nature of the Sri Lankan society;
- (b) ensure that the persons recommended to be appointed as members of the Reconciliation Office shall be persons having eminence and experience in one or more of the fields of human rights law, international humanitarian law, reconciliation and social harmony, national unity, management, project planning and regional development; and
