Regulations

1. These regulations may be cited as the Drug Dependent Persons (licensing of Private Treatment Centres) Regulations No. 01 of 2010.

2. No persons shall establish a Private Treatment Centre for the purpose of providing care and rehabilitation for drug dependent persons, unless such person has obtained a license for such purpose in terms of these regulations.

3. Any person who intends to establish a Private Treatment Centre for the care and rehabilitation of drug dependent persons may make an application for a license in writing, to the National Dangerous Drug Control Board (hereinafter referred to as the "NDDCB") in the format set out in Form of Schedule 1 hereto, accompanied by an application fee of rupees one thousand :

Provided that, any person who has already established a Private Treatment Centre for the care and rehabilitation of drug dependent persons prior to the coming into operation of this regulation may make an application within six months from the date of operation of these regulations, to the NDDCB in the format set out in Form 1 of Schedule 1 hereto, accompanied by an application fee of Rupees One Thousand for a license to continue to maintain such existing Private Treatment Centre.

4. (1) The NDDCB may after satisfying itself that the applicant has complied with the requirements set out in the application, upon the payment of a license fee of Rupees Five Thousand, issue to such applicant, a license within one month from the date of receipt of an application, authorizing the place specified in the application as a Private Treatment Centre.

(2) A license issued under this regulation shall be valid for a period of two years from the date of issue of such license. A licensee may one month before the date of expiry of a license issued to him under this regulation, make an application in writing to the NDDCB in the format set out in Form 2 of Schedule 1 hereto, for renewal of such license in each two years.

(3) Every application for renewal of a license issued under this regulation shall be accompanied by a fee of Rupees Five Hundred.

(4) The NDDCB may after satisfying itself with the information furnished by a licensee in an application for renewal of a license and upon the payment of a renewal fee of Rupees Two Thousand, may, within one month from the date of such application renew such license for another period of two years.

5. (1) a license issued under regulation 4, may be cancelled by the NDDCB where—

- (a) any conditions subject to which such license has been issued are contravened by the licensee ; or
- (b) any information provided in an application to obtain a license under these regulations, is found to be false or inaccurate.

(2) The NDDCB may before the cancellation of a license issued under regulation 4, grant an opportunity to the licensee to show cause as to why such license should not be cancelled. Any cancellation of a license under this regulation shall be informed to the licensee :

Provided that, any person whose license has been cancelled under this regulation may if he proves to the satisfaction of the NDDCB that the contravention due to which the license was cancelled has been rectified, apply for a new license after one year from the date of such cancellation.
