BE it enacted by the Parliament of the Democratic Socialist Republic of Sri Lanka as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Finance Act, No. 10 of 2015. Short title.

PART I

BARS AND TAVERNS LEVY

2. (1) There shall be levied, from every holder of a licence specified in the Schedule to this Act, issued under the Excise Ordinance (Chapter 52), who held such licence as at March 31, 2015, a levy to be called Bars and Taverns Levy (hereinafter in this Part referred to as “the levy”) of rupees two hundred and fifty thousand. Imposition of the Bars and Taverns Levy.

(2) Where a holder of a licence referred to in subsection (1), held more than one licence specified in the Schedule, he shall be liable to pay the levy in respect of every such licence.

(3) The levy shall be paid on or before November 15, 2015.

(4) The levy shall be collected by the Commissioner General and shall be remitted to the Consolidated Fund within fifteen days from the date of collection.

Default in payment of the levy.

3. (1) Any holder of a licence who fails to pay the levy as provided for in section 2, shall be deemed to be a defaulter under this Act.

(2) The provisions of section 4 shall apply to and in relation to the prosecution against any such defaulter and for the recovery of such levy.

Recovery of the levy in default.

4. (1) Where the amount of the levy or part thereof is in default, the Commissioner General shall issue a certificate containing particulars of the amount in default and the name and address of the last known place of residence or business of the defaulter to the Magistrate having jurisdiction over such place.

(2) The Magistrate shall thereupon summon the defaulter to show cause why proceedings for the recovery of the amount of the levy in default should not be taken against him.

(3) If sufficient cause is not shown by the defaulter, the amount of the levy in default shall by Order of the Magistrate be recovered as if it was a fine imposed by the Magistrate on such defaulter and shall when recovered, be remitted to the Commissioner General to be credited to the Consolidated Fund.

(4) In addition to the fine imposed under subsection (3), the licence issued to the relevant defaulter under Excise Ordinance (Chapter 52), may be cancelled by the Commissioner General with effect from December 31, 2015.

Interpretation.

5. In this Part of this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—
