(b) a small envelope marked as 'A' with the following printed on it –

(i) full name of postal voter according to the registration made under the Medical Ordinance;

(ii) registration number of the postal voter;

(iii) National Identity Card number;

(iv) address registered with the Medical Council;

(v) signature of the voter; and

(vi) names of two witnesses, their registration numbers and signatures; and

(c) a large envelope marked as 'B' for placing in the small envelope marked as 'A' and posting the postal vote to the Returning Officer.

22. (1) The postal ballot paper shall be witnessed by two witnesses before casting the vote.

(2) The witnesses referred to in paragraph (1) shall be a medical practitioner, a dentist, a person entitled to practice medicine and surgery under section 41 of the Medical Ordinance, an Attorney-at-law or a Justice of the Peace who shall place their signatures and the official stamp on the envelope marked as 'A'.

(3) Upon casting the vote, ballot paper shall be placed in the small envelope marked as 'A' by the voter and sealed and, the signature of the voter should be placed over the seal of the small envelope marked as 'A'.

- (4) The small envelope marked as 'A' shall be placed in the larger envelope marked as 'B' by the voter, enter his particulars on the larger envelope marked as 'B' and sealed.
 - (5) The voter shall send the large envelope marked as 'B' to the Returning Officer by registered post to be received on or before the closing date for receipt of postal ballot papers.
 - (6) If there are more than one ballot paper in the smaller envelope marked as 'A' or if there are more than one smaller envelope marked as 'A' in a larger envelope marked as 'B', such ballot papers shall be rejected.
23. (1) The postal votes received by registered post after the closing date mentioned in the Notice of Election shall be rejected. The last day of receiving postal vote shall be a working day of the week.
- (2) The larger envelope marked as 'B' containing the smaller envelope marked as 'A' shall be date stamped, serially numbered, and kept in the custody of the Returning Officer, who shall be responsible for its safety.
 - (3) The name of the voter, the registration number and the address of the voter registered under Medical Ordinance on the large envelope marked as 'B' shall be verified with the 'Register of Applicants to be treated as Postal Voters and certified by the Returning Officer.
 - (4) Where the particulars on the envelope are correct, the envelope shall be deposited in the postal ballot box. Any discrepancy shall be brought to the notice of the Returning Officer, whose decision shall be the final and conclusive on the acceptance or the rejection of the postal vote.
24. (1) The voting in person shall be conducted in a venue determined by the Medical Council and shall be held on a consecutive Tuesday and Wednesday.
- (2) The voting in person shall commence at 9.00 a.m. and conclude at 4.00 p.m. on each day.
 - (3) An experienced election staff shall be employed on the dates of voting in person. Such staff shall be subject to the supervision of the Returning Officer.
 - (4) A list of eligible to vote in person shall be prepared according to the alphabetical order referred to as the 'Register of Voters in Person' and be given to the election staff to ensure the casting of votes.
 - (5) An arrangement shall be made to mark the ballot paper without being seen by anyone else.
 - (6) Any candidate or one of his agents may be allowed to observe the voting throughout the period of voting.
 - (7) A person entitled to vote shall declare his full name, registration number and prove his identity with the National Identity Card or Medical Council Identity Card or Passport or Driving License.
 - (8) The slit through which votes are inserted into the ballot box shall be sealed with a strip of paper containing the signatures of the Returning Officer and the candidates or their agents placed across upon conclusion of voting.
25. For the purpose of elections, the returning officer, with the assistance and advice of the Election Commission, shall appoint such officers and servants as may be necessary in addition to the staff of the Medical Council.

26. A voter shall not be allowed to vote -

- (a) If such voter fails or refuses to provide proof of his identity;
- (b) Where it has been identified that such voter has already voted in person or under postal voting; and
- (c) Where the name of the voter has been erased from the relevant register.

27. (1) The ballot papers used for voting in person and postal voting shall be printed in two different colours.

(2) There shall be two separate boxes for postal ballot papers and ballot papers voted in person.

(3) The returning officer shall inform the candidates a date and time at which the ballot boxes are sealed. The candidate or one of his authorized agents shall be allowed to inspect the empty ballot boxes before they are sealed and place their signatures.

PART III COUNTING VOTES

28. (1) The Counting of votes in respect of an election held under Part II shall commence after the conclusion of voting in person.

(2) The counting shall be in the presence of the President of the Medical Council, the Returning Officer, the staff appointed for counting of votes and two authorized agents per candidate may be present at the time of counting of the votes.

(3) The postal votes shall be counted first, followed by votes in person. The number of votes inside the two boxes shall be counted separately. The numbers deposited in the ballot boxes shall be equal to the number voted by postal voting and voted in person.

29. (1) The Returning Officer shall, prior to commencing the counting of votes, ascertain that the seals of the postal voters' ballot boxes are intact and, open in the presence of the staff and authorized agents and take out the ballot papers.

(2) Upon the postal voters' ballot box is opened, the Returning Officer shall count and note the number of covering envelopes and shall then open each covering envelope separately.

(3) After the Returning Officer opens a covering envelope marked as 'B' and the smaller envelope marked as 'A' shall be taken out and the particulars contained therein shall be verified with the 'Register of Applicants to be treated as a postal voter'.

(4) In case of discrepancy, the decision of the Returning Officer shall be final on the acceptance or the rejection of the postal vote.

(5) The Returning Officer, while counting and recording the number of ballot papers shall keep the ballot papers with their face upwards and take all proper precautions for preventing any person from seeing the numbers printed on the back of the papers.

30. The ballot papers cast in person shall be counted separately against each candidate in the same manner.

31. If the mark of a ballot paper is unclear, it shall be decided by the Returning Officer whether to reject or accept the vote. The Returning Officer shall mark 'rejected' on every vote rejected and the total rejected votes shall be recorded separately.

32. The total valid votes and the number of valid votes secured by each candidate shall be counted separately. The candidate who has secured highest number of votes shall be declared as elected, thereafter the next highest shall be
