Statement of Legal Effect

Clause 2: This clause amends section 427 of the Companies Act, No. 07 of 2007 (hereinafter referred to as the “principal enactment”), and the legal effect of the section as amended is to make floating charges granted by a company subjected to the provisions of the Secured Transactions Act, No. of 2023, as consequential to the enactment of the said Act to make provisions applicable to secured transactions in movable property.

Clause 3: This clause amends section 428 of the principal enactment, and the legal effect of the section as amended is to make provisions for the registration of any instrument creating a floating charge over any movable property under the Secured Transactions Act, No. of 2023.

Clause 4: This clause amends section 431 of the principal enactment, and the legal effect of the section as amended is to make the provisions of the Secured Transactions Act, No. of 2023 applicable when determining the priority of floating charges created over any movable property.

Clause 5: This clause inserts the new section 433A in the principal enactment to provide for an interpretation of the term “floating charge” for the purposes of the application of the Secured Transactions Act, No. of 2023.
