Sabaragamuwa Provincial Council
18th December, 2024.

By-law regarding inspection and approval of land plans, land subdivision plans and building plans in an area where the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance is in force within the jurisdiction of Pelmadulla Pradeshiya Sabha

1. This by-law is to make provision for approving land plans, land subdivision plans, building plans in an area where the provisions of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance are in force within the jurisdiction of Pelmadulla Pradeshiya Sabha, thereby streamlining matters related to public health in the jurisdiction and for other matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.
2. This by-law may be cited as the By-law for inspection and approval of land plans, land subdivision plans and building plans in an area where the Housing and Town Development Ordinance is in force within the jurisdiction of Pelmadulla Pradeshiya Sabha.
3. The Pelmadulla Pradeshiya Sabha is vested with powers to formulate this by-law by virtue of sub Section 126 (vi), (viii) and (ix) of the Pradeshiya Sabhas Act, No. 15 of 1987.
4. (1) Under Section 5 of the Housing and Town Development Ordinance No. 19 of 1915, a plan related to the construction of buildings or reconstruction of buildings submitted to the Chairman for approval shall be submitted for the Chairman's approval by means of an application form related to the requirements described under this by-law.

 (2) The fees to be charged for receiving an application under this Section from the Sabha shall be determined and declared by the Sabha in a resolution from time to time.
5. Where a construction plan under Section 5 of the Housing and Town Development Ordinance No. 19 of 1915 is submitted for approval in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 above, the land to which the application relates shall be as described in a land plan or land subdivision plan that has been approved by the Chairman as per the requirements under this by-law.
6. (1) Every application for a land plan, land subdivision plan submitted for approval under Section 5 above shall be made in accordance with the manner described in the First Schedule to this by-law in an application form fulfilling the requirements applicable thereto.

 (2) The fees to be charged for receiving an application under this Section from the Sabha shall be determined and declared by the Sabha in a resolution from time to time.
7. A plot of land that is intended for construction purposes shall be delineated by a plan drawn by an licensed surveyor in the form of a development plan and the minimum size requirement for such a plot is not less than 6 perches for residential use and not less than 4 perches for commercial purposes.

 In the case of sub-dividing land for development purposes, the minimum plot area for sub-division should not be less than 10 perches for residential purposes and 6 perches for commercial purposes.
8. In respect of a land plan, a land subdivision plan submitted for approval, shall be prepared taking into account the following conditions.
 - (1) The location of buildings, if any, shall be shown to scale.
 - (2) A plan must be drawn to scale of 1:1000 for every subdivided land and a scale of 1:1000 or 1:2000 for non-subdivided land.

- (3) The scale, North direction and assessment numbers of adjoining plots of land or buildings, if any, shall be clearly indicated on the plan.
 - (4) Access roads to the land and their width shall be mentioned.
 - (5) Existing and proposed drains and watercourses shall be indicated with direction of drainage.
 - (6) The plan shall include a drainage system that demonstrates the systematic flow of natural water or rainwater and how the drain system is connected to any public drain or other water flow and if the levels of the existing water drains are inadequate, the location of the alternative drains to be prepared shall be indicated in the plan.
 - (7) In the event that the slope of the land is 10 degrees or more, the height levels, contour lines and street levels of the concerned land shall be indicated on the plan.
 - (8) The boundaries of the submitted plan shall be marked in black.
 - (9) All street lines, building lines and other road reserves or reserve or boundary prescribed by a statutory authority or published in a gazetted development plan, if any, shall be specified in the plan.
 - (10) The route plan shall include the depiction of existing waterways, ditches, fences or borders, retaining walls, as well as electric and telephone lines.
 - (11) Whenever a land of one hectare or more is subdivided and where the area of one plot is reduced to 40 perches, and when the land is subdivided into more than 10 plots, 10% of the land shall be set aside and be depicted in the plan as for public facilities, excluding the land designated for the internal roads.
 - (12) In the case of a subdivision plan, all such internal roads shall be shown in the plan as established in accordance with the provisions of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance.
 - (13) A space of 7.5*5.5 cm should be reserved on the front page of the plan for recording the details relevant to the plan approval.
 - (14) In the event that electric poles for power line connections are located within or close to the area included in the plan, the relevant location shall be depicted or recorded in the plan.
9. Under this by-law, prior to the issuance of a certificate of conformity by the Chairman i.e. the certificate to be obtained by the owner or the developer of the land, the area allocated for public facilities applicable to a subdivision plan shall be vested in the Pradeshiya Sabha by the owner of the land through a deed of gift.
 10. (1). In relation to every application submitted for approval under Section 6 of this by-law, the Chairman shall grant approval based on the recommendations of the Physical Planning Committee described under this by-law.

(2). Any person who is dissatisfied with a decision of the Chairman under this Section may submit an appeal to the Commissioner of Local Government within three months of the notification of the said decision and the decision of the Commissioner of Local Government shall be final.

(3) The Commissioner of Local Government has the authority to periodically establish appropriate provisions concerning the appeal procedure under this section as needed.
 11. In the event that approval cannot be granted for an application submitted under Section 6 of this by-law, the Chairman is required to notify the applicant within 30 days of receiving the application including the reasons why such approval cannot be granted, in accordance with the provisions of this by-law.
 12. An application for approval of a plan for a plot of land or a plan for a subdivision of land under this by-law can be made by either the owner of the land or the developer of the land, with the consent of the owner.
 13. It shall be the responsibility of the applicant to maintain a plot of land or all lots of land or one or more lots of land included in a subdivision plan approved under this by-law so as not to cause any public nuisance as long as the rights of the applicant are not excluded.

14. Before excluding any existing rights or incurring liability for such exclusion related to a plot of land under a subdivision plan approved under Section 10 of this by-law, the owner of the land shall obtain a certificate of conformity from the Chairman confirming that the relevant land or plot of land has been developed in accordance with the conditions specified in the approval.
15. Where any land relating to a plan of subdivision or a plot of land approved under this by-law is sold subject to the tax described under Section 154 of the Pradeshiya Sabhas Act, No. 15 of 1987, the owner of the land or the developer is required to report the value of consideration of the land to the Secretary of the Pradeshiya Sabha.
16. The fees to be charged for the matters in the application for approval under Section 10 shall be as detailed under the Second Schedule to this by-law.
17. When there is any development work carried out on any land without a subdivision plan approved by the Chairman within the jurisdiction of the Sabha after the coming into force of this by-law, in respect of every application submitted for regularization of the relevant plan for approval, it shall be lawful to levy an additional fee in addition to the fees determined under the above section, subject to the maximums under the groupings described in the Second Schedule of this by-law, periodically determined and charged by the Sabha through a resolution.
18. Whenever the Physical Planning Committee recommends that a settlement certificate be obtained by a legal authority specified under the Third Schedule to this by-law or by any other legal authority that may be considered relevant before granting approval in respect of a land plan or land subdivision plan submitted for approval under this by-law and it is lawful for the Chairman to ask the applicant to furnish the relevant settlement certificate for the pending approval.
19. A plan relating to the construction or re-construction of a building submitted for approval under Section 5 of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance shall be submitted with an application prescribed in the Fourth Schedule to this by-law.
20. The construction relating to an application made under Section 19 above shall be a construction relating to land shown on a plan approved by the Chairman under Section 5 of this by-law.
21. The fees to be charged for the matter relating to an application submitted under Section 19 above shall be the fees prescribed under the Second Schedule of this by-law.
22. Every request submitted for a written approval of the Chairman under Section 6 of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance shall be made in a form prescribed in the Fourth Schedule to this by-law.
23. In an application under Section 22, the construction to be altered shall be shown in red on the approved plan concerned.
24. In relation to an application for a plan under Section 19 and an application for written approval under Section 22 above based on the recommendations of a Physical Planning Committee under this by-law, the Chairman or any other authorized authority under the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance shall, as the case may be, approve the plan or provide written approval.
25. It is the function of the Chairman or the granting authority to grant the approval for a plan submitted under Section 19 and Section 22 above within a period of 30 days of receipt of the relevant application or to inform the applicant of the relevant reasons if it is not possible.

26. Approval for a construction or reconstruction plan, or for a plan for modification under this by-law, can be applied for by either the landowner or the developer, provided that the consent of the owner is granted.
27. For any construction that has been carried out without an approved plan under Section 5 of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance or without approval under Section 6 of the said Ordinance, it shall be lawful to charge a regularization fee in addition to the prescribed fee described in the Second Schedule of this by-law, during the submission for approval, in approving the related plan and granting approval under Section 19 and Section 22 of this by-law. However, for a period of 02 years from the effective date of this by-law, the charging of a statutory fee charged under this section shall not be applicable in approving a plan or granting approval for a construction or alteration that has been carried out without an approved plan.
28. The Chairman shall apply the relevant provisions of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance in granting approval for a plan submitted under Section 19 and for an application submitted for approval under Section 22 of this by-law and in cases where the provisions of the ordinance are silent, the Planning and Development Regulations of the Urban Development Authority, as the case may be, shall be applied.
29. Appeals relating to a person dissatisfied with a decision of the Chairman in relation to an application under Section 19 and Section 22 of this by-law shall be governed by the provisions of the Housing and Town Improvement Ordinance.
30. (1) The Physical Planning Committee for the purpose under this by-law shall be of the following composition.
- (a). Chairman of the Pradeshiya Sabha
 - (b). Secretary of the Pradeshiya Sabha
 - (c). Technical Officer, Planning Officer
 - (d). Medical Officer of Health or his representative
 - (e). Subject Officer
- (2). If the Chairman determines that it is necessary to obtain the observations of another authority during the approval process of an application submitted under this by-law, the provisions of the first Sub-Section above shall not prevent a representative of that authority from participating in the Physical Planning Committee.
31. Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing section of this by-law, prior to considering a plan of the land, a plan of subdivision of land, a plan relating to the construction or reconstruction of a building submitted for approval under the Physical Planning Committee, the Chairman shall obtain a recommended report related to that plan by properly forwarding the plan to the relevant authority, if the land, building concerned is located in an area declared by the National Building Research Organization to require permission from that authority.
32. It shall be lawful for the members representing the Physical Planning Committee appointed under Section 30 of this by-law to be paid an allowance subject to the amounts as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Local Government. However, participation allowances paid to a Physical Committee member under this Section shall be subject to a maximum of seventy-five percent of the fees charged in respect of the applications submitted for the purpose of this by-law being considered on that day.
33. The Pradeshiya Sabha shall maintain a separate account in the general fund of the Pradeshiya Sabha for the fees incurred for the matters under this by-law.
34. Any act of approving a land plan, approving a plan of subdivision, approving a plan relating to the construction or re-construction of a building, approving a change in relation to an application made under this by-law shall be without prejudice to the rights in respect of the property to which it relates.

35. Developing any land without obtaining approval of a land plan or subdivision plan as mentioned under this by-law is considered an offense and upon conviction by a Magistrate's Court for this offense, the offender shall be liable to punishment under Section 122 of the Pradeshiya Sabhas Act No. 15 of 1987.
