Temporary. - Journalists who arrive to Sri Lanka for a short or definite period to cover special occasions or to produce documentaries (in case of covering special occasions the prior approval of the relevant Sri Lankan authorities should have been obtained.)

4. Every Journalist requesting for a Media Identity Card must provide a certified photocopy of the Identity Card, which is issued by their Media Institution and a copy of the appointment letter. Print and Electronic Media, which have a considerable sale and a considerable number of readers/spectators are considered as recognized Media Institutions.

5. Applications prepared by the Department should be filled in and forwarded to the Director General of Government Information with Two stamp size, colour photographs and other relevant documents mentioned herein. Media identity cards will be issued normally within the first Six Months of each year and on special requirements until 30th September. Application forms, which are not duly filled in, will be rejected. However, the final decision on issuing this Media Identity Card will be made by the Director General of Government Information.

6. Media Identity Cards will be issued, to National Level Journalists on the basis of annual renewal and to regional journalists on the basis of renewal once in Two years, by the Director General of Government Information with his signature. However, a list of journalists in news and current affairs divisions who require identity cards should be forwarded by the head of the Media Institution or the chief Administrative Officer for the prior approval of the Director General of Government Information.

Dr. RANGA KALANSOORIYA,
Director General of Government Information.

General Conditions

01. A maximum of 03 Identity cards will be issued for monthly newspapers/ magazines.

02. A maximum of 02 Identity cards will be issued to Newspapers/ Magazines printed once in Two Months.

However, Media Institutions related to above 01 and 02, should provide recently published 12 subsequent copies in order to prove that their publication is continuously published.

03. A supplement issued with a certain newspaper should not be considered as a separate newspaper and Identity cards for journalists who have applied for identity cards in such supplements should be issued under the name of the main newspaper.

04. Although identity cards should not be issued for newspapers published on one field (political, religious, women's newspapers etc.) limited number of identity cards may be issued if they publish 25% news in their paper. The news published with the by-line of the journalist will be considered as a criterion in this regard.

05. Head of the Institution is responsible of obtaining the identity card and forwarding it to this Department from a Journalist who resigned/ dismissed from his Media Institution. Otherwise, a substitute identity card will not be issued.

06. To obtain an Identity card for a misplaced Identity card, it should be complained to the police and with the police report a request should be made by the Institution he serves.

07. Media Identity cards will not be issued to Newspapers/ Magazines published by Institutions such as religious Institutions and Organizations as they do not participate in general press conferences.

08. Regarding other Government Institutions, Media Identity cards will be issued only to Media units established in those Institutions.

Dr. RANGA KALANSOORIYA,
