- iii An employee is entitled to be furnished with a 'show cause 'notice setting out the charge of misconduct alleged against him and the employee shall be granted not less than seven (7) clear working days in which to give the answer or explanation. Where necessary the employee may request futher time and the Employer shall permit a reasonable amount of time depending on the nature of the charges, but not exceeding a total of 14 working days, other than in exceptional circumstances.
- iv If the Employer is satisfied with the written explanation, the employee shall be exonerated of the charge or charges and where appropriate he shall be summoned to report back for work. Where the explanation is unsatisfactory, the Employer shall hold a disciplinary inquiry within a reasonable length of time and shall commence such inquiry within 30 working days from the date on which the explanation to the 'show cause' letter is received. Unless circumstances prevent the employer from doing so.
- v An employee shall be permitted to have a Union member to defend him at the Inquiry. Such representative shall not be a professional. If the employee wished to have the benefit of a such representation he shall inform the Superintendent of the name of the person defending him at least 48 hours before the inquiry is due to commence. The Superintendent may object to the individual selected. In which event the accused employee may nominate another representative. The failure of an employee to be defended by a representative shall not vitiate the inquiry.

- The Employer shall endeavour to give the findings and convey the punishment, if any, within a period of 30 working days from the date on which the inquiry is concluded unless there is justification for the delay. In no case shall the findings be delayed beyond 90 working days from the date of conclusion of the inquiry, save and expect in the case of a pending criminal investigation. If no findings are given within 90 working days and the above exception does not apply, the accused employee shall be exonerated of the charges.
- vii Notwithstanding the above provisions, an Employer may, where the circumstances so warrant, terminate an employee summarily. In such event the letter of termination shall set out the reasons for termination, including the justification for summary termination. In such event, the Union may appeal to the Employer or to the appropriate forum.

20. Suspension Pending Disciplinary Inquiries –

- i An employee may be suspended from work without pay for a period not exceeding one month pending a disciplinary inquiry when there is prima facie evidence, in the opinion of the Employer, of a charge or charges of misconduct against him. Such suspension shall be in writing.
- ii Suspension of an employee on the ground referred to in sub-clause (1) above for any period in excess of one month shall be on half pay.
